What Makes 9TV the Best Entertainment Channel on Free TV?

October 5, 2014

It's been over a month since 9TV came in to our television screens. The new face of RPN 9 appoint many Filipino viewers including myself who want to try a different brand of alternative viewing experience on free TV. I assumed that Channel 9 has finally found its true calling after a longtime search for its own niche. And that would be as the news and information that aims to reach and widen nationwide free TV audience. In fact, for me or in my point of view, among all the TV networks that are available on Philippine free TV,.

What makes 9TV the best entertainment channel on Philippine TV for me is definitely its programming strategy, considering that. It is an clear, evident fact that weekdays are always slated for news and information programs, but it is on primetime and weekends that makes this channel more interesting. 9TV's beefed-up weekend programming is filled with a various and diverse mix of entertainment programs that would cater every segment of the Philippine viewing population. Perhaps the best highlight of weekend programming on the new channel 9 is its Kids Weekend block, which features the return of Sesame Street and Pokemon on Philippine television with freshly new episodes along with Batibot and Penpen de Sarapen.

Meanwhile, its local programs on primetime that complementing each program on RPN Channel 9 possess different elements and qualities. Such programs would include Temptation Island: Dare to Win, Kanta Tayo, Boses Tinig Pinoy, Price is Right, Superstar, John en Nova, Actually Yun Na! Megaon and recently launched new programs for young viewers and teensincluding Meet the Date, Carl & Ed, I'm a Princesa, Fantastik Man, Fall in Love for You, Junior TV, Barkada Diaries, Dear Hazel and Dobol Trobol, among others.

Judging by the traditional programming provided by other networks, I think that 9TV's primetime programming is better than ABS-CBN, GMA-7, IBC-13 and TV5. I would surely hope that 9TV, with 9News and its weekend programming, would continue to reach its purpose to inform and entertain many Filipino viewers with its own brand of quality alternative programming.

Former Ch 2 talents beef up RPN 9 slots as the Kasama network

By Marinel Cruz

Inquirer on May 27, 2006

RPN 9 HAS SOUGHT THE HELP OF FORMER ABS-CBN employees to beef up its programming and get a better chance at beating rival networks as the Kasama network is No.3 in dominated like GMA and ABS-CBN, according to network president Mia Concio. Concio identified Jing Magsaysay, former ABS-CBN assistant vice president for news operations, as RPN 9's officer in charge for news.

Erwin Tulfo, who used to anchor for Magandang Gabi Bayan, is now the host of the hour-long news program, Aksyon Balita (5 to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday).

Tulfo was a regular ABS-CBN reporter for nine years. Angelique Lazo, who used to anchor the evening news program for RPN 9, has transferred to PTV 4.

As early as now, the new team is already infusing changes in the news department, Concio told Inquirer Entertainment on Friday. The shows now have more action segments. They are now more responsive to the audience and more interactive as well as local news, police report (Metro Pulis), global news (Globalita), weather forecast (Ulat Panahon), sports news (with Beth Celi) and entertainment news (Spotlight).

Also part of the new RPN 9 news team is Melo del Prado, former desk editor of dzMM (ABS-CBN's AM radio) and reporter for TV Patrol.

Leddy Tantoco, formerly a reporter for dzMM, is now a writer of Isumbong Mo! (Tulfo Brothers), a public service program aired Saturday nights from 6 to 7 p.m., along with Ramon Tulfo and Raffy Tulfo.

Also part of the spruce-up is extending the airtime of Aksyon Balita from 30 minutes to a full hour, Concio pointed out.

This is just the first phase. Viewers should watch out for more, she said. Right now, it's important that we first build a credible image for our news team. With Jing and Erwin's help, we can solidify our platform.

Since February, Concio added, RPN 9's international channel, RPN USA, has been available in key areas in the United States through cable distributor Echo Star. For this project, the network tied up with the US-based Glocal Media.

Next on the drawing board, Concio said, is the strengthening of the network's entertainment programming.

RPN 9 recently started producing shows for the female audience. It has come up with three such shows For M(Mondays 12 noon), Make-Over (Fridays 12 noon), and Go Negosyo in non-prime time slots.

Connie Sison, former ABS-CBN reporter and host of Magandang Umaga Bayan, will be hosting Go Negosyo, which premieres June 5 from Monday at 10:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The network has also consulted, Solar Entertainment, which is responsible for the prime time hours (6-10 p.m.), on how to reprogram said grid.

Concio denied rumors that RPN 9 is interested in getting senior vice president for Star Magic (ABS-CBN talent center) Johnny Manahan to help. But she hinted on talking with a director who is responsible for a number of box-office hits for ABS-CBN.

Solar launches 'Kasama Mo' campaign

03/13/2007

An alternative to the crappy programming of ABS-CBN and GMA. RPN, at least, people would have more choices should they find the programming of ABS-CBN and GMA absolutely shift and disgusting.

Wilson Tieng's Solar Entertainment for Television is going to shoot for the third network slot through the Kasama Mo Network campaign launched yesterday over at RPN-9. This will clearly change and bring a fresh brand of entertainment and excitement to televiewing.

Weeknights, a collection of Tagalized TV series is starting with Pinokio screens for the anime. This is followed by a Argentina telenovela Monte Cristo, and finished off by Romance in the Rain air from 6 to 8 p.m. At 8 p.m., Pat-P Daza-Planas hosts Showbiz Ka!, a showbiz press-con on-air that brings the latest and sizzling news and happenings in showbiz. A new blend of shows takes over from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m.

On Mondays, Bayani Agbayani leads the sitcom, Kemis (Ke Misis Umaasa) with Pauleen Luna, Kiray, Gary Lim, James Blanco and Cherie Gil. On Wednesdays, the Tagalized One Tree Hill, a touching original story about the rivalry of two half-brothers and their love affairs, broadcasts. On Thursdays, Dalawang Tisoy with Eddie Gutierrez, Freddie Webb, Melanie Marquez, Sandara Park, Dexter Doria and Vince Saldana rolls. On Fridays, Dennis Padilla hosts Sabi ni Nanay, a one-of-a-kind reality dating-game. At 9:30 p.m., the soap opera drama serial called Laging Bukas ang Puso Ko top-billed by Albert Martinez and Tessie Tomas. To be followed at 10 p.m. is My Love Patzzi, the newest Koreanovela top-bileld by the primetime Korean superstar Jang Nara. And to cap these nightly shows, iMusic at 10:30 p.m., a new treatment of music videos and giving the latest gig guide and Kasama Mo gimiks, airs

ABS-CBN 2 = Kapamilya

New Brews at RPN, The Kasama Network

(Released on March 19, 2007)

RPN has a dashing new look these days and competition must be taking notice. Despite being saddled with equipment that have seen better days, RPN bigwigs are determined to wrestle back its lost glory, even part of it. They seem to be succeeding, if some new program offerings are to be the basis.

Almost overnight, the station bred and brought to Filipino homes such TV landmarks as John en Marsha, Newswatch, Your Evening with Pilita and Superstar, international phenomenal like Marimar, metamorphosed into a serious threat to the network giants. RPN is now the Kasama Mo network and the new monicker was introduced with an engaging jingle. The Solar group is behind much of the new format we hear.

RPN will not be sold because it's still privatized, after all. No political leader worth his salt would even dare give up a TV network close to or during elections. When all this political hullabaloo whittles down, we predict stories of privatization will refloat, causing anxieties within the station to resurface but lasting only until the next time election season comes around.

RPN's new programs are worth anticipating and hopefully developing loyalty for.

We indulged with a daily dose of the national pastime, entertainment gossip, courtesy of Pat P Daza-Planas' Showbiz Ka!. There is Sabi ni Nanay hosted by Dennis Padilla which we have yet to monitor and a new sitcom, Dalawang Tisoy starring Freddie Webb and Eddie Gutierrez. If the pilot telecast is a sample of its forthcoming season, we may have stumbled into another study in comic mediocrity. The first episode made us rather unsettled because the script was predictably shallow, the humor a tad stale and the overall performance of its stars a bit bland. As the show revs up, we hope it will find its bearings.

We are particularly keen on Solar's Pinokyo at ang Blue Fairy. It not only breathes life into the adventures of Pinokio which we are all familiar with but somehow reinforces the suspicion that even Indonesia may have overtaken us in the children's TV genre.

When local networks were panic-buying from Mexico, Colombia, Taiwan and Korea, we least expected that one day we would be importing TV programs from Indonesia. Pinokio is an Indonesian live animation TV series about the wooden doll that comes alive and moves around like a real human.

It is an obvious take off from the Carlo Collodi classic because this Asian Pinokio also gets adopted by his amiable sculptor who regards him like a son. It is the doll's Blue Fairy friend who looks after him through his hilarious misadventures. It is the inclusion of the orphan Dindah, a take off from Cinderella, where the Oriental Pinokio story hopes to cut clean from Collodi's Tuscan original. Pinokio nurtures a genuine friendship with the girl, teaching her in the process to develop self- confidence while on the other hand, learning to cope with true human emotions.

The Kasama network and Solar have struck a golden partnership by providing viewers, chiefly kids just home from school or the playground, a refreshing alternative to early primetime, minus the kitsch and sugar of telenovelas or the gore and sensationalism of newscasts. Catch the animated series, dubbed in Filipino, weeknights at 6 p.m. right after Aksyon Balita on RPN.

RPN Pare! for familes as branding Kasama network

July 18, 2007

We are reformatting our RPN primetime block to position it as a channel for the male viewers. May I request for a presentation to your group to show you details of our programming and other plans we have moving forward? We are repositioning RPN-9 primetime to a male oriented block filled with anime, cartoons, sports, Koreanovelas, action, adventure, comedy and sexy shows.

Weeknights TV trip will never be the same again for the male viewers when Solar Entertainment Corp.-RPN transforms its primetime block to suit the male taste this July.

Called RPN-Pare! For the Boys, the 5-hour 7-day evening block offers varied program choices tailorfit for male viewers. Goin against the regular primetime programming formula of female flair, RPN Pare! gives out the kind of programs men truly fancy with anime, cartoons, sports, comedy, action and sexy-naughty.

As Solar honcho Tiend best puts it, soap operas and game shows have long saturated prime time. Althrough these are very good programs especially as far as the female audience in concerned, a significant percentage of audience, which are males underserved. Tieng adds that clamor for male-driven programming inspired Solar to rebrand its primetime block, one that should entertain and excite the maco crowd.

For RPN Pare!, Solar is acquiring the hit action and sexy foreign canned programs. It is also producing a couple of local sports shows, and will continue to bring to television the big matches in basketball, boxing, football, billiards, gold and more! RPN remains No.3 behind the two giant networks GMA and ABS-CBN, according of the survey of AGB Nielsen-Media Research.

It has the RPN flagship news program: Aksyon Balita anchored by Aljo Bendijo and Vikki Sambilay, Monday to Friday at 5:30 p.m., and high-rating late night I-Watch News with Carlo Tirona and Lexi Schulze now airs at 11 p.m. It has finally come up with new and interesting shows. In 1960, a third station was in operation, DZBB-TV Channel 7 of the Republic Broadcasting System. It was owned by Robert "Uncle Bob" Stewart, a long-time American resident in the Philippines who also started with radio in 1950. RBS started with 25 employees, a surplus transmitter, and two old cameras.

During this time, the most popular horror drama series on Philippine television was Gabi ng Lagim, the talk show The Rafael Yabut Show, the first-ever dancing variety show Dancetime with Chito, the musical variety show on late-night The Bob Stewart Show, comedy show Eskwelahang Munti, the children show Uncle Bob's Lucky 7 Club, the first-ever counseling program Father Bob and His Telephone and the network's flagship news programs are Tagalog News, The News with Uncle Bob and Bulletin News. The canned foreign TV shows Combat, 77 Sunset Strip, The Untouchables and the cartoon Popeye, Gumby and Baby Huey. Uncle Bob, pioneered the coop spots and live advertising promotions on television had 2 television cameras and a surplus transmitter. Made the network endear to its viewers when they acquired the rights to foreign TV shows abroad like Mission Impossible, Combat and more. During the '60s, DZBB TV-7 was home to popular foreign shows.

DZBB-TV recognize the potential in canned foreign programs for the growing middle-class market. RBS 7 rated consistently at the bottom and it was in the brink of bankcruptcy and claims for the number 1 spot in ratings against ABS-3, CBN-9, ABC-5, IBC-13, MBC-11, Clark Armed Forces 8 and PBS-10.

About Us Edit

Since the granting of its broadcasting franchise in 1960, RPN has performed as a major player and has been recognized as an innovative pace-setter in the country's broadcast industry.

The network has made its mark in Philippine radio and television history with its string of innovations and achievements which include:

The introduction of state-of-the-art superior color transmission dubbed Accucolor in 1969.

The first remote color transmissions with the latest Outside Broadcast (OB) Van in the country.

The first nationwide TV broadcasts via domestic satellite in 1981.

The longest running top-rating TV series in the 70's such as John en Marsha and Superstar.

The production of critically acclaimed, distinctly award-winning Filipino mini-series like Malayo ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay.

The first record-breaking half-hour daily serial, Marimar – RPN's "programming coup" in 1996 that dislodged the top two TV networks' programs in the 6pm timeslot.

RPN was the original home of the top Hollywood TV series MacGyver, Ally McBeal, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg and The Practice. These were just few of the shows which became popular to Filipino TV viewers through RPN channel 9 known as 9TV.

PROFILE:

On June 19, 1960, the Philippine Legislature passed Republic Act No. 2980 which granted RPN a franchise to construct, establish, maintain and operate radio broadcasting and television stations in the Philippines. Once fully operational, it launched its flagship radio station in Manila, DZBI. By 1967, RPN had grown into a full network, operating DZRR in Manila as well as DZAX in Manila, DZAH and DZBS in Baguio, DZTG in Tuguegarao, DZRL in Laoag, and DXDX in Dadiangas. Since the granting of its first broadcasting franchise in 1960, RPN has performed as a major player and has been recognized as an innovative pace-setter in the country's broadcast industry.

1969 was a signal year in the growth of RPN. It was in this year that the network branched out into television with channel 9 in Manila and channel 12 in Baguio. It was also in 1969 that RPN introduced technical milestones in Philippine television. First, help and funding for the new TV network partly came from ABS-CBN in the form of its old headquarters along Roxas Boulevard and brought in its Toshiba equipment which enabled Channel 9 to telecast in full color.

Accucolor, as its color casting capability was named, was far superior and professional from the test-quality color broadcasts then being run in the country.

Then, RPN brought in the first Outside Broadcast Color Van (OB Van) in the country, making it possible to beam studio-quality broadcasts of news and special events coverage from remote sites.

RPN entered the 1970's as the country's premiere radio and television network with the coverage of the times epochal events by its award-winning news and public affairs, it's TV Hall-of-Fame local and international services, landmark local and foreign entertainment specials and extensive coverage of sporting events, from Philippines Basketball to Munich and Montreal Olympiads.

A decade later, in 1981 RPN introduced another first, when it brought true "networking" to the country as it pioneered the use of domestic satellite to simulcast its primetime block programs over all its TV stations nationwide through its new domestic satellite (DOMSAT) technology, making it possible for provincial audiences to view the same programs at the same time as their Manila counterparts.

Today, RPN known as 9TV continues to provide exceptional broadcasting together with its provincial TV and radio stations nationwide, and its partner Solar Entertainment Corporation.

RPN is also currently one of the media companies under the Presidential Communications Operations Office headed by Secretary Herminio B. Coloma, Jr.

RPN's another teleserye My Family's Lover to conquer TV viewing on March 3, 2014

March 1, 2014

We had an average of five programs in the Top 20 Weekly Primetime Program ratings. A sequestered network is always at the bottom of the order when vying to acquire performing stars and programs would consider transferring to RPN-9. The big US studios of their top programs to sequestered networks.

If the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA as well as the number 3 station IBC and TV5, it found a thread-of-the-mil and tried programs that continue to permeate the Filipino audiences here in the Philippines. We created this fan site devoted to our favorite third TV station RPN hopes to bring upscale programming to the mass market, thus appealing to a broad demographic range of TV viewers.

Based on the Kantar Media/TNS survey for Februar 2014, RPN-9 is seen by more viewers than any other local TV station as 30% total day audience share. Jose Mari Gonzales appointed him as RPN's top honcho. As a TV executive, he reinvented the telenovela's La Traidora and Marimar, dubbed to Tagalog.

RPN-9 has a semblance of competitive and innovative programming because of the shows of Solar Entertainment which is headed by my good friend and Tokayo (namesake), William Tieng.

For 54 years in the Pihlippine television space of the TV industry, RPN shows will given more push and determination will pull as the number 3 station in the Philippines! Still, more power to the Kasama network.

The comback of the top-rated foreign hit series such as MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy, the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, Dharma and Greg and The Practice are some of the best of award-winning shows will tribute to the Kasama Network's World-Class US Primetime quality programming. A strong number 3 in viewership whicg virtually stronger among A-B-C classes for upscale viewers during primetime with today's best multi-award-winning world-class its on primetime such as Glee, America's Next Top Model, Community, Chicago Fire, New Girl, 2 Broke Girls, Beauty and the Beast, The Big Bang Theory, The Vampire Diaries, American Idol, Survivor, The Carrie Diaries, The Walking Dead, The Neighbors, MacGyver, NCIS and Marvel's Agents of Shield which has been on primetime schedule with a new seasons and a new episodes in the United states for the hottest primetime shows.

More local programs of RPN cater to the wide cross section of the Philippine society, fro A-B-C markets to D-E market for the mass-based market as The Kasama Network burst with a spirit of renewal raring to take on new challenges in the Philippine broadcast industry, the network that will truly serve, inform and entertain.

Last February 28, 2014, the government-owned sequestered media network RPN had its presscon for its another first in teleserye called My Family's Lover provides welcome relief from the excessively formulaic dramas on the bigger networks.

It was one of dream come true when I got the chance to be among the guests of this launched because I am so proud to tell you that the writer for this primetime teleserye is none other than, the multi awarded writer Ms. Carmela Abaygar. I am more than proud to have the chance to have met and tell her that me and my husband collects all the books she had written in the recent press conference of RPN's primetime teleserye offering going on primetime soap operas and competing with other big television networks.

The 5 Girls played by: L-R: Kyline Alcantara, Andrea Brillantes, Jane Oineza and Erin Ocampo

This family-drama series is very timely because it focuses on family values and the growing percentage that there is a rise in number of "parenting families."

My Family's Lover is about father dad Zoren (Albert Martinez) with his wife Carmella (played by Rufa Gutierrez) to be the mother and father to her 5 kids giving birth with their youngest daughter of kids.

The couple has five daughters, played by The Kasama Network's new stable of talents - Kyline Alcantara, Jane Oineza, Andrea Brillantes, Erin Ocampo and Ingrid dela Paz, the child with autism.

The director, veteran megman and producer Joel Lamangan and The Kasama Network shared that it took this long for them to finally air a 3 teleseryes Jose Rizal, Kung Maibabalik Mo Lang and My Family's Lover because they had to keep within its corporate mission and philosophy of offering, 100% family-oriented wholesome programming. RPN is careful in bringing a good values to its Filipino audience.

Is RPN-9 doing anything at all?

April 8, 2014

RPN-9 is in the third ranks as ABS-CBN and GMA.

It makes even deserves to be mentioned in the domination. Channel 9's market share is so large that it gets scant consideration from advertisers and media buyers, and consequently its revenues can also be a tiny fraction of those of the two giants. Ask the man on the street what he associates with RPN-9 and he will most likely and rather the administration, apointment of the president Noynoy Aquino III.

"In fairness," as showbiz royalties would putting it, RPN-9 is the other privatie, government-sequestered television and radio network media in the country; and thus, the network with a chance of challenging the doupoly over the long term. The government controlled by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). The acquisition of the network by Wilson Tieng of Solar Entertainment became RPN chairman last 2007, put it in a position to compete; and the first time in the new management generated a good deal of excitement and anticipation as well.

Getting the MBA and KBL games was a brilliant idea that instantly filled RPN-9 schedule with programming practically guaranteed to rate recently and pull in the local advertisers. Picking up American Idol was also particularly astute considering that all the other local networks had ignored the show as Jessica Sanchez is the popular singer made it the talk of the town. Launching Arangkada Balita and Newswatch together with Tell the People, Saklolo Abogado, Kasangga Mo Ang Langit, Biyaheng Langit and Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo spoke of a determination to build a strong, independent and credible news organization. Airing masterpieces such quality soap opera hits as Luz Clarita, Muling Ibalik ang Tamis ng Paglbig and My Family's Lover' gave substance to Tleng's reseration of support for TV fare of those drama serials.

Of course, there were local trend as well--Pat P-Daza Planas' talk show Showbiz Ka!, educational programs Eskwela ng Bayan featuring Karen's World, Why?, Solved and Alikabok, and Ruffa Gutierrez's reality show slash beauty contest. Thankfully, they were all the homegrown programs. To be fair, RPN-9 should at least get points for trying out groundbreaking concepts. In fact, some observers say that if these programs had been produced of the network and compared to ABS-CBN and GMA-7, they have been successful.

Currently, RPN-9 is airing another set of quality innovative programs: Superstar (Angeline Quinto), a Sunday night, singing musical variety show; The Million Peso Money Drop (Rafael Rosell) and The Price is Right (Tom Rodriguez) becoming the million-peso prized game show for Filipino viewers; and Boses Tinig Pinoy, a reality show for the local national singing contest with German Moreno and Alleen Papin launching the singing champion. Still to come, already get a recent press conference, is a show in which professional Filipino actors compete for a chance to break into the superstars of the network.

The Kasama Network is doing a major reformat. In spite of everything it is doing, its ratings are strong in the large single digits. The real question therefore is: Why RPN-9 compete?

Here are ten things The Kasama Network has got to work on:

- 1. Signal strength. RPN-9's transmitter has more than the power of the ABS-CBN and GMA-7 transmitters. As a result, people in southern portions of Metro Manila who might want to watch Superstar (because they have relatives among the singers) because Channel 13's signal is strong over there. The longer RPN-9 trying to address this problem, the more money it will given on programming that many people get a chance to see.
- 2. Picture quality. Those viewers who do get the RPN-9 signal often get pictures that are grainy and almost monochromatic. It's more fun to watch the MBA and KBL isee the players. RPN-9 has to buy some new cameras, more lights, better playback machines, etc, etc. all the way in the line. With everybody else going digital and high definition acceptable.
- 3. Canned programs. ABS-CBN Sports and Action, Star TV, ETC, 2nd Avenue, Jack TV, Jack City and AXN all carry the top US programs. In order to stand out in this crowd, RPN-9 should also broadcast the current season of a canned series and should at the very least air ahead of the cable channels. Some foreign canned programs as World-Class US Primetim such as MacGyver, NYPD Blue, NCIS, Revolution, Community, Missioin: Impossible, The Walking Dead, American Idol, Survivor, The X-Files, Glee, 24 and Chicago Fire maybe The Kasama Network should, too.
- 4. Production. RPN-9 spends over a million pesos to produce each episode of its Mexican telenovelas and asianovelas from Korea and Taiwan. Obviously the people at RPN-9 will doing to match the level of spending, but this time they have to realiz that even the best concepts will be ruined by cheap execution. The recent Mutya ng Pilipinas beauty pageant is a case in point. Bringing in Oscar Awards, Academy Awards and Miss Universe from all over the world was a winning idea, the staging of the pageant was about as good as well.
- 5. Stars. Stated in Filipino televiewers want to see the stars of RPN-9. Those talents and stars with the fresh faces of them: Rafael Rosell, Angeline Quinto, Tom Rodriguez, Gemran Moreno, Nora Aunor, Bayani Agbayani, Roderick Paulate, Nova Villa, Ruffa Gutierrez, Albert Martinez, Tirso Cruz III, Randy Santiago, Kuh Ledesma, Raymond Lauchengco, Marjorie Barretto, Pat-P Daza Planas, Coney Reyes, Dennis Padilla, etc. Some hottest young stars who bame the next Kasama star.
- 6. Sales and Marketing. The banners in Mega Manila are the masses. To build market share, RPN-9 has to get the word about its programs. Like almost everyting else in this list, better publicity requires more money. You can try to be creative and get more bang in the cash register

- 7. News coverage. Live reporters of the heroic efforts of RPN-9's news reporters, it is often obvious get the top stories. The Kasama Network has to be more reliable in this respect ants to compete in news.
- 8. MBA and KBL. Sports programming, some of the entertainment network wants in the running, especially the two basketball league has all kinds of Filipino sports fans of its own.

Channel 9 premieres impressive lineup

April 8, 2014

RPN Channel 9 is the sports and action channel in the country that airs the MBA and KBL basketball games, also with American Idol and Survivor--two of the most phenomenally successful reality shows in the world.

From the "masa" niche, RPN is now gearing towards the upscale and massive men market. RPN further ups the ante by offering new locally produced programs for its target A-B-C and C-D-E male audience.

Rivera admitted that RPN is positioning itself as a local version of Clar Sports but with more comprehensive and thoughtful approach in fulfilling the entertainment needs of men. For young boys of shows the hit animes and cartoons, which is a third most popular channel in Mega Manila after parent company ABS-CBN and GMA as well as the number 3 spot of IBC and TV5, approaches entertainment for men and boys by having something for the different stages of their lives.

He said while RPN's programming was a "work in progress," the network has expanded its audience to include men aged 18 to 40 and even beyond. The reformatting is a first step towards becoming the sports and action channel for men in the Philippines and we have seen our ratings improve since then," Rivera added.

Establishing its mark as the local channel that features the best of foreign shows like American Idol, NCIS, MacGyver, NYPD Blue, Revolution, Mission: Impossible, Chicago Fire, 24: Live Another Day, The X-Files, Community, *Survivor*and The Walking Dead together with top-notch telenovelas Mar de Amor and Porque el Amor Manda, and some Koreanovelas like Wonderful Life and Dear My Sister The Kasama Network is all set to further up the ante with its new shows that are sure to capture the taste of the bes in action-packed intensifies its programming as it brings you the hottest shows and must-see television specials, recently unveiled its line-up of new shows, new seasons of American shows and must-see TV specials.

"RPN is on top of the male ABC and CDE market's shopping list," reports. He ventures into comparisons.

"The shows that you see on RPN-9 are actually shows that people go home to watch like The X-Files, NCIS,MacGyver, NYPD Blue, Revolution, Mission: Impossible, Chicago Fire, 24: Live Another Day, Community and The Walking Dead," observed Robert Rivera, the president and CEO of RPN to fill viewers.

In the planning stage are a program for single professionals and a reality show that hopes to attract contestants who are young, cool and hip. Although RPN is a nework for men and for Filipino sports. Our goal is to improve our ratings by offering complete entertainment for men. So we have something for everyone," he said. Trade partners and other guests were on the edge of their seats as they were given a ladd of the exciting shows to come in RPN-9 via an audio-visual presentation that clearly showed The Kasama Network further intensifying its sports and action programming and even introducing its website at rpn9.com.

"Before," he relates, "RpN-9 duplicated the ABS-CBN and GMA's target market, the masses." Today, he notes how things have changed for the better. The shift to the ABC-DE male market. Advertisers are now plunking in their precious budgets. Now, they realize that The Kasama Network and the cable channels target one and the same upscale audience.

RPN's new and exciting programs include the afternoon family dramas dedicated to the children and kids called Luz Clarita, starring the child star Andrea Brillantes; a mini-series Muling Ibalik ang Tamis ng Pag-Ibig starring the superstar Nora Aunor and Tirso Cruz III; soap opera

It means viewers need not follow the herd. Over the last 54 years, RPN=9 has consistently followed the concert of World-Class US Primetime programming with the best of foreign imports, and proudly Philippine-made programs guided by the spirit of originality and innovation.

This best exemplified by qutstanding foreign programs as MacGyver, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Flles, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Chicago Hope, Dharma and Greg, The Practice, among others, which are not only top-rated but also consistent awardees in the landmark of local programs like Eat Bulaga!, John en Marsha, Superstar, Champoy, Young Love, Sweet Love, Buddy en Sol, etc. Award-winning Filipino mini-series such as Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay, a Mexican telenovelas Marimar, Simplemente Maria, Acapulco, Maria la del Barrio, Luz Clarita, La Usurpadora and Maria Isabel.

It has spelled out success. It has made our programming different, unique. It is said that broadcast is like trench warfare - every inch of difference you can gain is valuable. Channel 9 also from the telenovela craze, it started La Traidora in 1994 and Marimar in 1996 which becoming the hits.

RPN-9 strives to make every program unique, with a personality of its own. Kasama treats each program as an individual product, as it believes branding in the name of thee game. Robert T. Rivera, RPN president and CEO explains: "We will just say let's produce a comedy and a drama. We conceptualize very distince programs, programs which we can say have the Kasama network trademark of originality.

Discerning viewers have remarked that viewing RPN-9 is like to going into a shop which has only the best hoices in merchandise. Every major item has been chosen with great care. And they're all one-of-a-king. RPN is in the thich of the network war to the throne, it has the "copycatting" in against it.

RPN has opted for strategic counter programming. When viewers decide to exercise their viewing time, there will be a true shift in the primetime balance of power. In July, RPN-9 unleashes new and challenging programs with populist genres. Among the US imports through

Marketing Case Study - Marimar Edit Background

Marimar is a Mexican TV telenovela originally broadcasted in 1994 in Mexico. The rights were later bought by RPN 9, dubbed it in Filipino and re-broadcasted on a primetime slot on Philippine television. Pitted against industry giants ABS-CBN and GMA-

7, Marimar caught the fancy of Filipinos and became a nationwide sensation. Intriguing is the fact that at that time, ABS-CBN and GMA's shows lord over television and their shows occupy a very huge chunk of the ratings pie. In came Marimar and shoved its rival's ratings. What made this foreign telenovela so special that it was able to do such? On the marketing perspective, what strategies were employed that led to the tipping of the ratings scale?

The company and its available resources Radio Philippines Network, Inc (RPN), initially known as Kanlaon Broadcasting system, is a broadcast television network in the Philippines owned by the Government Communications Group.

Initially it operated radio stations and in 1969 it launched its television arm. In the 70s and 80s, RPN was a big player in the local broadcast industry with several shows and special coverage in its fold. It aired special coverage like the Olympics, Thrilla in Manila and the Miss Universe Pageant. It also launched trendsetting programs such as John en Marsha, Superstar, Eat Bulaga, and several big-name animes. It also bought rights for re-broadcasting of several hit TV shows from the United States.

After the 1986 EDSA revolution, RPN was sequestered by the government and its assets were turned over to the Government Communications Group. In its fall from grace, the network lost much of its viewership to GMA and ABS-CBN. Some of its high-rating primetime shows were either cancelled or moved to a rival network. It eventually fell into a ratings slump due to the resurgence of ABS-CBN and GMA. Being a government controlled company; it was running on a tight budget.

The company stature could compete head-on with its rival's heavily funded shows. As an obvious result, the viewer-market favored other network's programming over theirs. The company is in dire need of something to turn the tide in their favor. Other Variables Providing as background to the events of the 1990s, economically, the Philippines was not faring well. Though it had made progress with its rapid economic growth under Pres. Fidel Ramos (1992-1998), the poor still constituted a majority of its citizens. This time was also characterized with power shortages leading to widespread blackouts. Being all too similar. It was also more cost-efficient and less risky to show Marimar than gambling on a similar news program to match the already popular and well staffed rival shows. RPN was already importing foreign shows (mostly from the US and Japan). Marimar was a top-rater in any Latin American country where it was shown. With Spanish influence deep in Filipinos' blood. Two years prior. Marimar thus became the pawn against the bishops and rooks of their rival. The craze was called Marimar. the executives at RPN hoped that the same phenomenon (or even half of that) would infect the Philippine scene. Disapproving they may be of the newscasts. ABS-CBN had TV Patrol and GMA had Saksi. Both GMA and ABS-CBN fielded their respective top-rating early-evening news program in the primetime slot.

At that time. Product Comparison (Strengths and Weaknesses of Programs in the 6pm slot) (pardon me for the use of non-business language. With nothing to lose and nothing in their current roster of programs resilient enough to contend with the heavyweights. Some light stuff would be earmarked here and there but the emphasis almost always bordered on the negative. Analysis Tapping an Untapped Market Owing to its near-nil resource and recognizing its inability to contend toe-to-toe with GMA and ABS-CBN's well-planned. both programs also left the same void in the market. Both news programs were headlined by the 2 network's popular newscasters. the newscast's ratings were sky-scrapers as compared to RPN's.primetime slot In 1996.

RPN looked at the programming choices it will offer for the 6pm primetime. a craze was spreading across Latin America. It was not new to them to import top-rating shows in other countries whose formula are akin to the shows patronized in the Philippines. well-executed and highly-financed newscasts.) shows supplanted by RPN on this timeslot took a back seat on its rival network's newscasts. The Primetime Slot: An introspective look the programs of ABS-CBN and GMA on its 6pm timeslot were characterized with similar attributes.. RPN decided to look elsewhere. Both programs catered to the same need. The audience were in a neck-deep dire state and the newscasts were highlighting the scenes they would otherwise leave unnoticed. News at that time was often about the dire plight of the country.

The venture was more cost-efficient: no production costs and talent fees, it made use state of the art technology in broadcasting and news reporting) round-the-clock yried and tested formula that generated high-rating To infinity and beyond Rregular marketing (Ads, billboards kept them glued to their screens.

Alternative fare for 9TV

August 22, 2014

The new Kasamas of an all-new RPN 9TV: (clokwise from top-left) Richard Gutierrez of The Price is Right, Angeline Quinto of Superstar, JM de Guzman of Temptation Island, German Moreno of Boses Tinig Pinoy, Hazel Faith dela Cruz of Dear Hazel, Ingrid dela Paz and Aaron Villaflor of I'm a Princesa, Empress Schuck and John Wayne Sace of Fall in Love for You, Kristofer Martin and Joshua Diosino of Carl & Ed, Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa of John en Nova and Bayani Agbayani of Kanta Tayo.

MANILA, Philippines, Major changes are underway for the Kasama Network, newly refurbished channel of RPN-9 makes a spash in the local Philippine TV scene this month called 9TV's initial broadcast on Saturday night (August 23) had none of the telenovelas and noontime variety shows commonly on ABS-CBN and GMA.

Starting this Monday, August 23, it will cater to a broader market with new shows that will target the Filipino masa, or viewers belonging to Class C and D. The shows will also be presented in Tagalog, veering from the channel's previous standard of shows presented in English.

It used to be that viewers would switch to Channel 9 gets a make-over for the foreign canned shows in the United States, telenovelas, Asian dramas and sports from MBA and KBL. From the Radio Philippines Network, Inc. (RPN), the station is now being reintroduced as the newest Philippine TV sensation 9TV with the chairman Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua as Chairman and Benjamin Santos as President and CEO.

9TV retaining the news and current affairs, sports and entertainment programming while expanding its primetime and weekend programming to cater more audiences which was started by the launching of Kids Weekend. Also, ALC Group of Companies appoints Benjamin Ramos as new president of the Radio Philippines Network, replacing Usec. Robert T. Rivera. I hope RPN comes up with better programming.

"It's the risk we decided to take. We wanted to give people an alternative to the current fare," said RPN's newest chairman Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon-Chua and the president and CEO Benjamin Ramos during the network's launch last Thursday in Greenhills, San Juan. According to Cabangon-Chua, these innovations were done in preparation of the network's 55th anniversary of revolutionized TV and radio broadcasting next year.

"So, RPN-9 has been in TV for 55 years. As you have mentioned, we have been innovating. Since the start of the year, we have introduced a series of TV programming initiatives. We're proud to state that these initiatives have actually been successful for us," he said. Among these innovations are the inclusion of local movies in RPN-9's programming. Ventosa said this resulted into a 150% growth in channel audience for the channel, which is now ranked third in the market according to data from Kantar Media.

"It's the risk we decided to take. We wanted to give people an alternative to the current fare," said RPN's newest chairman Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon-Chua and the president and CEO Benjamin Ramos during the network's launch last Thursday in Greenhills, San Juan.

"If we would come up with shows with just the same format, kaming pinagkaiba." Amb. Antonio added that the network will first concentrate on strengthening its prime time block, which is from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. 9TV strives for an alternative programming. 9TV is the newest major player in Philippine television industry.

9TV's new logo comes with more generis blue and red branding to reach a wider audience and strengthen its presence on free TV RPN-9. Remember these of public service program Action 9, which was anchored by Ramon Tulfo, Atty. Dong Puno, Angelique Lazo and Rey Langit.

"We've seen that the audience that has been very skeptic," Santos explained. "The market has changed, you know the market is very dynamic. We've seen that a lot more of the audience are preferring the local programming. And in doing so, we noticed also that we've been able to expand our audience."

This is why RPN-9 is set to premiere more and more local programming.

The executive of the Kasama Network added, "Whereas in the past, siguro, our programming was skewed to the broad C market. When we introduced the Tagalog movies, we've expanded to the D market. And they are also part of our audience today, so we want to cater more to the expanded audience."

This was announced last Friday by Amb. Antionio Cabangon-Chua, chairman of RPN, during the launch of 9TV's new programming lineup in a glitzy affair at the Hotel Rembrandt ballroom.

I wish that RPN-9 would bring back its own programming and to bring the network's news programs such as Arangkada Balita (weknights 6:30 p.m.) anchored by Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo, and also the long-running English late-night newscast NewsWatch (weekngihts at 11 p.m.) anchored by Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon. It will also air with the US TV shows, telenovelas, Asian dramas, animes, cartoons, etc.

Chua stressed that the unique strength of RPN-9 known as 9TV is that it brings together the superstars of local sports, the foreign canned programs in the US, telenovelas, Asian dramas, cartoons and anime with the leading lights of Philippine entertainment industry inder one roof, in a never-before-tried mix.

The need to reinvent Channel 9, Atty. Antonio said, had been pursued by its management led by a chairman Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon Chua. Negotiations led to a long-term block-time agreement between RPN, Solar Entertainment and ALC Group of Companies, the local subsidiary of Solar Television Network. The Kasama Network RPN-9 became its new brand name as 9TV adds the entertainment shows on primetime which also develop its own roster of homegrown talents and stars.

Its modest aim, according to Antonio, is to become No.2 in the so-called TV network wars. "ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are both claming to be No.1 and IBC-13 and TV5 still charting to the No.3 slot in the ratings game. We'd gladly give that to them. But we want to be the solid third force in the industry," explained Antonio.

Together with the directors and producers who have joined the new network, the list of actors who will be seen nightly has been growing by the week. Antonio happily reports, "The Kasama Network 9TV is proud to have secured the services of several established talents in the industry. We hope to be a venue where actors can showcase their talent to the fullest regardless of where they originally 'came' from. We feel that this cross-pollination of talent is very good for the entertainment industry as a whole." Of course, RPN-9 will also develop their own fresh new talents which goes without saying.

Aksyon the new rival news programs is TV Patrol and 24 Oras

Manila, Philippines – 'AKSYON' GOAL "Ma pantayan, malagpasan" is how TV5 executive Patrick Paez puts it, referring to the goal of its longest running newscast "AKSYON." For the moment, "AKSYON" has equalled, much surpassed, with the new competition ratings of ABS-CBN's "TV Patrol" and GMA's "24 Oras."

Aggressive and compassionate, "higit sa balita, aksyon" is the mantra of the TV5 newscast, anchored by Paolo Bediones, Cheryl Cosim and Erwin Tulfo, with Lourd de Veyra as weatherman and Shawn Yao as entertainment segment host.

"AKSYON" now airs at 6:30 p.m., by 30 minutes with its competiton ratings of "TV Patrol," and "24 Oras" but will be 45 minute short as TV Patrol ABS-CBN NEWS and 24 Oras GMA NEWS airs until 7:45 PM.

TO THE RESCUE Even in terms of awards, "AKSYON" has its fair share, recognized not only for its news coverage but also for its public service component. One recent example is how "AKSYON" rescued a young girl from the South. Abandoned by her mother, the girl who's mentally challenged is left alone and tieLet's listen what NEWS5 chief Luchi Cruz-Valdes has to say.

NEWS5 chief Luchi Cruz-Valdes relates that TV5's flagship newscast in a timeslot was moved to 6:30 p.m. news habit has become a challenge for the fast-rising news organization. "But, you know, now we have created our own niche. There is now a new market for news. And that to me is for the benefit of news. We now have a bigger new," shares the NEWS5 head.

TV Journalist and return of King on Reality TV Paolo Bediones who returned to co-anchor for Aksyon, PLAN International ambassador Cheryl Cosim and Hard-hitting broadcast journalist Erwin Tulfo continue to influence viewers with their strong equity, gathering stories that compel viewers to do something. The three AKSYON anchors truly have an effective connection to the public, as evidenced by Paolo Bediones returning to Aksyon's co-anchors whose almost two decade-TV career involves a lot of extreme challenges and in-depth stories of survival, gives face to RESCUE5 and the other public affairs show USI, Good Morning Club and returning King of Reality TV with the new reality shows Extreme Makeover: Home Edition Philippines. Cheryl Cosim's recent award as the Best Public Service Program host for "Alagang Kapatid" (which also won the Best Public Service Program trophy) at the 20th KBP Golden Dove Awards. Erwin Tulfo is deemed as the voice of the aggrieved through his other public affairs shows, "T3" (with brothers Raffy and Ben) and "Tutok Tulfo."

"AKSYON" delivers the most important news you bought to know in 30 minutes at 6:30 pm. This lets viewers become informed fast and first, especially in times of public advisories on natural disasters and trying times. Through News5 Aksyon Center and Rescue5, "AKSYON" extends public service beyond delivery of news. More and more people trust the newscast because of its

"Bidyo Bandido" segment wherein concerned citizens voice out problems from their community for quick resolution. Also presents stories that wrap up a day's work at RESCUE5, the very first specialized and trained news organization-based group of emergency response teams that roam around the roads of Metro Manila to gather stories and at the same time respond to victims of road mishaps or any calamities as the need arises.

WEATHER, SHOWBIZ "AKSYON" also features the most advanced weather graphics system powered by Metra, the world's leading provider of weather graphics, via its segment "Weather or Not" anchored by Lourd de Veyra. Apart from accurate and easy-to-digest weather forecast, the segment features Lourd's brand of witty and no nonsense political climate analysis through "Sabi ni Lourd."

TV host Shawn Yao, meanwhile, dishes out the juiciest stories from the entertainment scene on "Showbiz Aksyon."

Though relatively new in the newscast arena, "AKSYON" already has a share of exclusives of national concern. In one historic face-off interview since the contested 2007 senatorial polls, newly resigned Sen. Miguel Zubiri and Atty. Koko Pimentel patched up their differences on national TV first and exclusive on "A'KSYON" last August. Erwin's eye-opening story on the Bilibid drug trade has led to an investigation. The newscast also documented a series on OFWs involved in drug trade in Macau, Singapore, and Malaysia. "AKSYON" also scooped some exclusives on Ramgen Revilla slay case with Cheryl securing Janelle Manahan's video in the hospital room after her operation and Erwin delivering exclusive developments in the case.

Catch the latest news here and abroad fast and primetime on "AKSYON," now airs from Monday to Friday at 6:30 p.m. on TV5 (with simulcast broadcast on AksyonTV, Radyo Singko 92.3 News FM and TeleSingko).

TV5: TV Promo for "AKSYON" Edit

Bediones, Cosim, Tulfo, ang pinakang bagong mukha nagbabagang balita, AKSYON!. Gabigabi sa TV5.

AKSYON, the longest-running flagship news program with the new improved competition ratings of TV PATROL and 24 ORAS, anchored by Paolo Bediones, Cheryl Cosim and Erwin Tulfo. AKSYON can now be seen on it's new timeslot at 6:30pm! 7.30pm

TV5: TV Promo for "PILIPINAS NEWS" Edit

Puno, Mercado, Francisco, ang bagong progresibong pilipino para sa pambansang balitaan, PILIPINAS NEWS. Alas onse ng gabi sa TV5.

PILIPINAS NEWS, the new kind of late-night newscast, anchored by Atty. Dong Puno, Cheri Mercado and Jove Francisco. Bringing the news and unique perspective from JournalisMO

Facebook and twitter.d up by her father who had to work every day. Concerned neighbors pleaded for SOS and "AKSYON" came to the rescue of the poor girl, hungry and wallowing in filth.

"AKSYON" saw to it that the girl was given proper attention and then turned over to the DSWD which is now taking care of her.

By the way, Patrick Paez is now seen oncam, hosting "Dokumentado." Asked when wife Daphne Oseña of ABS-CBN is moving over to TV5, Patrick could not answer right away, but then said, "Mahirap katrabaho si kumander." Let's leave it at that.

Colleague Mario Bautista noted that "AKSYON" is now a new rival ratings of ABS-CBN's "TV Patrol," and GMA's "24 Oras."

Aksyon the new rival news programs

Viewers eager to watch the news before the new 6:30 p.m. airing have given Aksyon, an unprecedented new growth in ratings. In fact, TV5's banner news program has often shot up to the no. 1 spot in its timeslot, with the new rival news programs.

"The success of Aksyon can be attributed to the combination of two important factors," Tulfo related in a press conference on Tuesday. "The first being the new time slot, the new competition ratings of TV Patrol and 24 Oras, our different approach in delivering the stories of the day."

According to Tulfo, while Aksyon gives a complete coverage of national news, it has bumped up community news in its story lineup.

"We tackle national news later on in the program and begin with stories straight from where our viewers' come from," he explained. "These are the stories that the other news programs air as briefs in their police reports. We find on the other hand that our audience appreciates learning about what's going on in their neighborhoods so they can be well prepared for any eventuality."

Based on the performance growth of Aksyon in the last four quarters (January 2012 to date), the primetime newscast has shown remarkable uptrend both in national urban and Mega Manila. According to Nielsen Media Research, Aksyon has spiked from 11.4 percent audience share in Q1 to 18.1 percent in Q4 in NuTAM; and from 14.1 percent audience share (Q1) to 23.9 percent (Q4) in MegaTAM—relatively gaining from the news program counterparts in both ABS-CBN and GMA.

Though relatively new in the newscast arena, Aksyon already has a share of exclusives of national concern. In one historic face-off interview since the contested 2007 senatorial polls, newly resigned Sen. Miguel Zubiri and Atty. Koko Pimentel patched up their differences on national TV first and exclusive on Aksyon in August. Pediones' presents stories that wrap up a day's work at RESCUE5, the very first specialized and trained news organization-based group of emergency response teams that roam around the roads of Metro Manila to gather stories and at the same time respond to victims of road mishaps or any calamities as the need arises. and almost two decade-TV career involves a lot of extreme challenges and in-depth stories of survival, gives face to RESCUE5. Tulfo's eye-opening story on the Bilibid drug trade led to an investigation. The newscast also documented a series on OFWs involved in drug trade in Macau, Singapore and Malaysia. Aksyon further scooped some exclusives on the Ramgen Revilla slay case with Cosim securing Janelle Manahan's video in the hospital room after her operation; with Bediones and Tulfo delivering exclusive developments in the case.

News5 Gaining Ground: If ratings are to believed, "Aksyon" has been encroaching on the viewers of newscast that air across it on channels 2 and 7. TV5 counter programming strategy in 2012 by airing its news program 30 minutes ahead of the new competition ratings of "TV Patrol" and "24 Oras" at 6:30 p.m. slots, followed by a game and variety show.

News director Patrick Paez said possibly one of the strengths of "Aksyon" and their other news and public affairs programs as well is the kind of talents they place on cam.

"Our talents are organic, they are not manufactured. What audiences see on TV are real people doing real things," he said.

Paez cites, for instance, their weather man, Lourd de Veyra. A literary artist and 4-time Palanca awardee, Lourd anchors "Aksyon's" "Weather or Not" segment.

But aside from the physical weather report, the sometime editor and band player (Radioactive Sago) indulges in his own "The Word of the Lourd," often an irreverent take on social issues affecting the political weather of the country.

Aksyon now airs Monday to Friday at 6:30 p.m. on TV5 (with simulcast broadcast on AksyonTV, Radyo Singko 92.3 News FM and TeleSingko). (TMA)

JC De Vera to steal Nina Jose's heart?

JC De Vera, is not only making a name but is also out to steal Nina Jose' heart in the leading soap opera in the country Valiente.

JC, an established commercial model and an actor whose popularity is slowly rising and inching its way towards the matinee idol status, has been seen in the popular television programs Hey! it's Saberdey! and Lokomoko. Now, he is not only going after the hearts of those who have watched the two programs, but is out to conquer the hearts of the soap opera fans in Valiente, as well.

Since the Nina Jose-Oyo Boy Sotto loveteam is slowly breaking apart, JC De Vera might as well be a strong contender to a partnership with Nina Jose – a partnership which is up for grabs between Jasmine Curtis-Smith and Nadine Samonte. With the long-running soap opera, JC has a big chance to steal the heart of the young superstar!

Watch for the development of another epic action in Valiente, Mondays to Fridays, 9:30 p.m. right after TV5's mini-serye Nandito Ako on TV5's Primetime Panalo.

TV5's newest noontime fare

The long wait is finally over. TV5's much talked about noontime show was relaunched on last February 18 and finally debuts this coming June 16.

"Game 'N Go" is slated for a noontime slot to compete with the TV ratings of Eat Bulaga! and It's Showtime!, but unlike its counterparts this show promises to serve a buffet of treats for everyone. Instead of your run-of-the-mill noontime variety program, "Game N Go" takes the elements of a variety show, game show, and comedy sketch show. Industry veterans Manzano and Joey de Leon are together for the first time ever, leading the program as its "game makers." Supporting them are Arnell Ignacio, Gelli de Belen, Eugene Domingo and Shalani Soledad-Romulo as "game keepers."

"Game 'N Go" will feature original games like "True or Fall," "Singgaling Go," "Yugyug Tube," "Pritong Pares," "Game 'N GOcery" and the famous international game "Face It." These games will allow participating studio audiences and home viewers to win big prizes. Contestants are in for a real high-stakes game with "True or Fall," while those who consider themselves in tune will definitely be in for a challenge with "Singgaling Go." On the other hand, a few minutes inside the "Yugyug Tube" will surely test the participants' sense of balance. Conquering "Face It" will prove a feat for those afraid to conquer the giggles. Aside from the fun games and wacky contestants, viewers should also tune in for the live musical performances and entertaining sketches from celebrity guests.

Catch "Game 'N Go" every Monday to Saturday, beginning June 16, 12 noon on TV5.

TV5 Network Axes Its Showbiz Oriented Shows "Paparazzi" & "Juicy!"

MANILA, Philippines - TV5 Network's entertainment show Paparazzi has already aired its final show last July 29 while Juicy! will go off air on August 4. The report was confirmed by PEP.ph and indeed Paparazzi finally went off air after 2 years and 3 months of airing. On the July 29 show, the hosts never said their goodbyes on air but apparently they were advised by TV5 management.

Paparazzi was first hosted by Cristy Fermin, Dolly Ann Carvajal, Ruffa Gutierrez, DJ Mo Twister and Hayden Kho. After the exit of DJ Mo and Ruffa, Zoren Legaspi and Mariel Rodriguez joined the cast only this year, meanhwile Mr. Fu or Jeffrey Espiritu in real-life has been a segment host of Paparazzi under Paparazzada.

One of its hosts, DJ Mo Twister was involved with the alleged "abortion" scandal where Kapuso actress Rhian Ramos was directly pointed by the host. The video expose was uploaded in YouTube featuring DJ Mo Twister exposing the abortion made by Rhian Ramos. The video expose happened days after DJ Mo Twister said his goodbye from Paparazzi in December 2011.

Ruffa Gutierrez also shared her own spice after she resigned from the show last June 2012 due to a malicious segment during her birthday celebration on Paparazzi. She vented out her emotions over her official Twitter page after the show.

Meanwhile, the daily showbiz talk show Juicy! is confirmed to air its final show on August 4 after four years of airing. It was originally hosted by Alex Gonzaga and IC Mendoza since 2008 and later on, Cristy Fermin and *Shalala*joined the two in 2010.

Based from PEP.ph report, a new showbiz-oriented show entitled "Ang Latest" will replaced both Paparazzi and Juicy. The new show will have its daily program for 30 minutes and 1 hour during the weekend and apparently Cristy Fermin and Mr. Fu will be back to host the new show plus Congresswoman Lucy Torres-Gomez.

TV5 strengthens public affairs programming

PANGILINAN-led TV5 continues with its efforts to strengthen its news programming by launching a new late night public affairs show.

Debuting Monday last week, Reaksyon hopes to introduce another first-of-its-kind format as it mixes commentary and in-depth reports on the day's headlines.

Hosted by TV5's News Head Luchi Cruz-Valdes, Reaksyon aims to widen people's knowledge of the news with firsthand insights from the network's pool of reporters and correspondents.

"At a time when news tends to clutter public awareness, Reaksyon aims to answer the question: 'So what?' This ground-breaking program will also deliver exposés, investigative reports and additional information that leaves viewers clearly informed," Ms. Cruz-Valdes said in a statement.

Reakyson airs weeknights at 12 midnight, right after TV5's late night news program Pilipinas News or P-News.

Anchored by Atty. Dong Puno, Cherie Mercado and Jove Francisco, P-News airs every weeknight at 11:30 p.m.

"The national late-night newscast goes beyond the traditional forms of news delivery. It offers a critical perspective on the day's news and even outlines solutions that seek to alleviate pressing concerns," Ms. Cruz-Valdes said.

"As Filipinos grow tired and weary of bad news and political deadlock, P-News will aim to deliver untold stories of citizens finding ways to better their lives and impact on the lives of others." she added.

Meanwhile, TV5's long-running primetime news program AKSYON, bannered by Paolo Bediones, Cheryl Cosim and Erwin Tulfo, has now found that it is competiton which aired on 6:30 p.m. time slot to directly compete with the rivals of flagship news programs TV Patrol and 24 Oras.

Based on the year-on-year index culled from Nielsen Media Research, TV5 claims that AKSYON was able to triple its mass viewership to more than 1.5 million viewers last year, compared to its viewership levels in 2010. TV5 said the program has already attracted about 1.2 million viewers as of last month.

"The way I see it, we now have a bigger place for news because our audience believes that we deliver more than what we promise. Our 'Higit sa balita, aksyon' thrust has evolved to a call to remain vigilant and informed," Ms. Cruz-Valdes explained.

AKSYON airs weeknights at 6:30 p.m. after TV5's public service program T3 Reload: Kapatiran ng Serbisyo Publiko anchored by the Tulfo brothers Raffy, Ben and Erwin at 6 p.m.

"Throughout their respective careers, the Tulfo brothers cemented a very strong image of calling out erring public officials and criminals," Ms. Cruz-Valdes said.

"The Tulfo brothers continue to guard consumer welfare and rights, lead crime exposés and prevention and advocate issues concerning women and children. Viewers will see them in the field, tackling public concerns head on," she added. Since its inception two years ago, NEWS5 - the news and information arm of TV5 -- has aimed to raise the bar in broadcasting by introducing many firsts in broadcast journalism and public service.

For example, RESCUE5, its emergency response unit, has been active in responding to disasters and natural calamities. During operations, RESCUE5 utilizes trained NEWS5 personnel, led by Mr. Bediones, to help in operations with the team's own rubber boat and specialized crew cab units.

NEWS5 also pioneered the most advanced weather news delivery in the country through its partnership with Metra Weather System, the leading provider of weather graphics presentation systems.

TV5 launches 12 new shows

TV5 launches 12 new shows Edit

After making its presence felt in the local TV scene in recent years, Pangilinan-led TV5 aims to beat its long-established rivals at the ratings game this year with more than a dozen new shows to bolster its programming lineup.

In a press conference last Wednesday, TV5 President and Chief Executive Ray C. Espinosa unveiled the network's aggressive stance to challenge the dominance of ABS-CBN Corp. and GMA Network, Inc. at the top of the TV ratings charts.

"Our goal is to overtake the competition and win by giving viewers something new, something they will look forward to watch on TV," Mr. Espinosa told reporters.

He said more new shows will be launched this year to prove that the network is armed and ready to take on the two other networks for a battle for TV ratings.

"Hindi kami magpapahuli. (We will not be left behind.) We want to prove that TV5 is a major network, and we can provide shows that have more quality, more originality and more excitement," he said.

For the first quarter of the year alone, TV5 beefs up its programming with a wide array of shows across all time blocs.

Last night it started airing its latest prime-time miniseries, Nandito Ako, starring American Idol runner-up David Archuleta.

Joining Mr. Archuleta in the six-week series are TV5 contract stars Jasmine Curtis-Smith and Eula Caballero. The show airs weeknights 9:30 p.m., right after Wil Time Bigtime and back-to-back with the nightly drama seriesValiente, which began airing last week.

Meanwhile, TV5 will also challenge the dominance of GMA and ABS-CBN on the afternoon programming block with the launch of two drama shows.

Felina features Arci Muñoz in the lead as a kind-hearted girl whose only wish is for people to love and accept her despite her cat-like appearance.

Isang Dakot na Luha is a drama about ordinary people struggling to make ends meet amid the harsh realities of life in Manila.

The two new dramas will both premiere on Feb. 27, with Felina airing at 3:00 p.m., and Isang Dakot na Luhafollowing at 3:45 p.m.

Aside from having new drama shows, TV5 also launched a new comedy-drama, Kapitan Awesome, which began airing last Sunday.

The show stars actor Martin Escudero as an ordinary boy who transforms into an ugly superhero when he eats his favorite dumplings. It airs Sundays, 11:30 a.m. after the game show Toink! Sino Ang Tama?, which debuted on Feb. 12.

New news shows Edit

Meanwhile, TV5's news and information team News5 has also announced several new shows including a late-night newscast called Pilipinas News, which began airing last night. Pilipinas News replaces the news show Aksyon Journalismo, although the same news personalities (Dong Puno, Cherie Mercado and Jove Francisco) anchor it. It airs weeknights at 11:00 p.m.

It has also revamped its morning news magazine show Sapul Sa Singko and renamed it Good Morning Club. It began airing on Feb. 6, and is hosted by Paolo Bediones, Martin Andanar, Cheryl Cosim, Amy Perez, Christine Bersola-Babao and Chiqui Roa-Puno. It airs weekdays at 5 a.m.

News5 also launched a late-night public affairs show, Insider, which offers behind-the-scene glimpses of how some of the country's most interesting institutions operate. Airing Thursdays at 10:30 p.m., Insider features stories told by News5 chief Luchi Cruz-Valdes, news production head Patrick Paez, anchors and hosts Erwin Tulfo, Cheryl Cosim, Paolo Bediones, Raffy Tulfo, Cherie Mercado, Martin Andanar, Lourd De Veyra and Mike Templo.

Mr. Espinosa said TV5 will also present new game and reality shows, starting off with the Biggest Game Show in The World Asia, which began airing Feb. 12.

It features a team from the Philippines competing in various parlor games and physical challenges against teams from Indonesia, Thailand and Vietnam.

Hosted by Joey de Leon and Richard Gomez, it airs Sundays, 9 p.m.

Meanwhile, TV5 will air Extreme Makeover Home Edition Philippines starting March 26. The show, which builds homes for deserving people, features a design team of Paolo Bediones, Tessa Prieto-Valdez, Divine Lee, Tristan Jovellana, Marilen Montenegro and Joby Belmonte. For the rest of 2012, Mr. Espinosa said TV5 will launch more game and reality shows, including the singing contest Kanta Pilipinas with Lea Salonga, the dance competition Dancing Nation with Lucy Torres-Gomez, the reality dating show Love in Temptation Island with the TV5 Kapatid stars Derek Ramsay, and the local version of the Emmy-award winning reality show Amazing Race.

Noontime race Edit

But TV5's most surprising maneuver was its decision to launch a new noontime show that will go head-to-head against long-running noontime program Eat Bulaga! airing on GMA. The show is called Game 'N Go and will feature a number of games that will allow contestants to win huge cash prizes. Hosted by Edu Manzano, Arnell Ignacio, Shalani Soledad and Gelli de Belen, Game 'N Go will begin airing on March 10 at noon.

Mr. Espinosa said TV5 is also preparing to launch a daily talk show featuring Sharon Cuneta. The show, called Sharon, will air weekdays at 2:30 p.m. starting March 12 right after the 5 minute music video program Kapatid Music Videos. While Felina and Isang Dakot na Luha will be moved to 3:15 to 4:30 p.m. slots.

"There's more shows to come, and there are more, more reasons to tune in to TV5 where TV viewing gets more thrilling, more exciting and all the more fun," he said. -- Jeffrey O.

Claro Carmelo Ramirez, TV5 International President and Chief Executive

In a span of three years, TV5 International has already successfully distributed some of the Kapatid Network's most-watched programs all over the world, including, most recently, the various key territories in the African region, as well as to the Philippines' neighboring Asian countries.

TV5 International President and CEO Claro Carmelo Ramirez notes, "Since 2011, side-by-side with our commitment in bringing the Network's top programs to every Filipino household all over the world, TV5 International has also made it its mission to proudly introduce our various programs—and in turn, showcase the Pinoy talent—in the international scene. So far, the positive feedback of the global market to our various offerings has confirmed that our programs are indeed world-class."

As it is, key African markets have continuously clamored and demanded for more TV5 shows, after widely accepting programs like Handful of Tears (Isang Dakot na Luha), Roses and Thorns (Mga Nagbabagang Bulaklak), The Poor Heiress (Babaeng Hampaslupa), Glamorosa, and Valiente.

In addition, regional viewers from nearby Asian countries like Cambodia, Brunei, Malaysia and Vietnam, have also been in awe of the Kapatid Network's shows after commissioning the titles Felina, Cassandra, Third Eye, Enchanted Garden, Undercover and Misibis Bay.

"Non-Pinoy viewers have appreciated what TV5 International has to offer because time and again, we have proven that the Kapatid Network's programs are different, innovative, and ultimately entertaining. Further, with the international community's wide acceptance of our programs and admiration of the talent of our TV5 artists, this has solidified our future plans in forging even more partnerships with more networks in other parts of the world," shares Ramirez.

The Network Edit

PTV, the country's national television network, in cooperation with Silverstar Communications, Inc., unveils a new look with a new line of programs set to define a wider coverage toward the new millennium.

The country's government television network began operations in 1974 as GTV-4. It was renamed Maharlika Broadcasting System in 1980 and following the People Power Revolution in 1986, became People's Television 4. On March 26, 1992, President Corazon C. Aquino signed Republic Act 7306, turning PTV Network into a government corporation known formally as People's Television Network, Inc.

In June 1992, the network was given a one-time equity funding for capital outlay. Shortly after he took over the mantle of government in June 1992, president Fidel V. Ramos appointed PTV Network's first board of directors. The Network was given a one-time equity funding for capital outlay.

Since 1992, PTV has been operating on revenues it generates on its own. RA 7306 stipulates that the government shall not allocate funds for the operations of the network.

PTV has been on full satellite transmission nationwide since 1992. Its flagship station, PTV-4, which is based in Quezon City, boasts of a 40-kilowatt brand-new transmitter sitting on a 500-foot (150 m) tower. With its 27 provincial stations and its affiliation with over 800 cable systems across the country, the network has extended its reach to approximately 85% of the television viewing public nationwide. Since then, PTV has set a new trend in the Philippine television industry by being the first to acquire digital technology. It is also the first network to use all solid-state transmitters in its provincial stations with power ranging from 1kw to 10kw. It is also the first station to convert its satellite transmission to digital compression as well as simultaneous transmission of main programs to the network's provincial stations and independent cable TV systems.

PTV is also known for the excellence it has shown in the late eighties by garnering several awards for three succeeding years from the Catholic Mass Media Awards and producing several award-winning programs.

For the past years, PTV exerted efforts in finding ways to improve the network. In fact, they have converted their satellite transmission recently to digital video compression making it possible for interactive Satellite News Gathering transmission during news and special events coverage.

As provided for in its charter, PTV is mandated to give its viewers a balanced mix of news, public affairs, educational, cultural and sports programs.

Logo Edit

As the symbol of change, even the logo of the station we will be featured is unique also because the new image it wants to present to the public.

The shape of the P logo on innovative means such station is simply the service of the public (people). The tail also its shape thought balloon represents and directing viewers to open the mind, act and find solutions based on the information available to watch here. The gap in the central part of the logo that looks like a TV set shows also that the PTV-4 is the substance and tracked viewers.

The things mentioned regarding changing logo PTV- 4 with a colored "aqua blue" that always seem fresh (fresh) such as news and information will be made public, cultutal, children and educational, entertainment and sports programs in the government TV station. In conjunction with these changes creating new slogan Telebisyon ng Bayan which in turn attached to the name of PTV-4 indicates that it will continue the delivery of information about government programs that need more people. The new sound, look and feel that will be featured on PTV 4 is fundamentally just roaring to reach greater heights.

Innovative Public Information

- Maintained a balance of views -- a complete turn around from the heavily handed censorship of its predecessor GTV-4 and MBS-4 during the Marcos regime, NBN-4 during Arroyo administration, and now is PTV-4 from Aquino, Ramos, Erap and PNoy administration.
- 2. Carved out innovations in news programming as the government TV station with 4 major daily newscasts (Balitaan, News@1, News@6 and NewsLife), hourly new breaks (PTV Newsbreak) and 3 weekend updates (News@1, News@6 Weekend, The Weekend News and NewsLife Weekend).
- 3. Led in public affairs programming with poineers such as PTV Special Forum, The Veronica Chronicles, Good Morning Boss!, BizNews and Personage which became forerunners of public affairs programs in Philippine television. Meanwhile, it provided models for the public service programs such as Damayan, GSIS Members Hour, The Doctor Is In and Pinoy US Cop Ride Along.
- 4. The poineering educational programming from CONSTEL (Counting Studies via Television) such as Physics in Everyday Life, Science Made Easy, Chemistry in Action, Pamana ng Pahina, Bayani Pilipino, Fun with Math and English High School, educational and cultural shows Kahanga-hangang Pilipinas, Tipong Pinoy, Mag-Agri Tayo!, I Got You, Tele-Aralan ng Kakayahan and Ating Alamin.
- 5. Provided leadership in sports programming.
- 6. Broke the dominance of commercial television networks, it ranked number 4 in TV ratings among five networks in Metro Manila. It was proven, therefore, that a government TV

- station can have a sizeable share of the viewing audience with a programming that is balanced and credible.
- 7. Became the Hall of Fame awardee of the Catholic Mass Media Awards (CMMA) by winning the Best Station with Most Balanced Programming for three consecutive years, among other awards.
- 8. Provided longer daily broadcast hours to news and public affairs information including coverage during natural disasters.

From an MBS-4 with poor ratings, a small outreach and looted-of-equipment network in 1986, PTV-4 now ranks among the top networks in terms of nationwide reach and coverage. The network embarked on a Facilities Upgrading Project with assistance from the French government. Under the Second and Third French Protocols of 1990 between the Philippine and French governments. PTV-4 was recipient of FF74 2 million (P20 million) in the form of transmitter facilities, studio, video and audio equipment.

PTV-4 now also broadcasts from its new headquarters at the Philippine Information Agency compound in Visayas Avenue, Diliman, Quezon City.

PTV-4 launched its satellite-simulcast broadcast programming last February 14, 1994 for nationwide outreach. With the acquisition of the uplink equipment to match the Transponder 54 of the Palapa B2P Satellite lease from Telkom, Indonesia, PTV-4 operates on a full-time satellite broadcast.

Programming is 25% news and public affairs, 22% educational, cultural and children's programming, 19% sports, 35% entertainment and 10% religious. "This will kick off out sports program for the first time." As we promised, we're promiting PTV-4 as the sports network aside from out focus on news and public affairs, educational and cultral, children shows and entertainment.

Thoughts on Telebisyon ng Bayan

Thounghts ON NBC TELEVISION NETWORK

NBC boasts of itself as the station that earned the following awards: Hall of Fame Award for Best Station, Most Balanced Programming in 1987 and the Catholic Mass Media Awards, and the other pioneering and award-winning educational, cultural and public service programs such as Tele-aralan ng Kakayahan, Ating Alamin, Batibot, For Art's Sake, Coast to Coast and Paco Park Presents. The educational program called Continuing Studies via Television (CONSTEL) has been used in teacher training by the Regional and Divisional Leader Schools of the Department of Education, Culture and Sports (DECS) and in Teacher Education Institutions of the Commission on Higher Education. This program aims at upgrading teaching skills of elementary and secondary teachers of Science and English was institutionalized by DECS.

NBC has also been covering major international sports competitions, particularly the Olympic Games and the SEA Games. The programming of NBC is 11% news, 13% public affairs, 16% educational, 19% sports, 36% entertainment, and 5% religious.

Earlier this month last 2012, NBC Television Network turning into a new slogan National Brocasting Company' state television, the national television network in cooperation with Silverstar Communications, Inc., launched a new image in an attempt to reach out to more Filipinos, unveils a new look with a new line of programs set to define a coverage. Aside from launching its new logo, they launched new programs and renovated their newscasts; the decade-old Teledyaryo brand was scrapped, maybe for good itself to the country's premiere news channel likeChannel 4 is re-establishing itself as the premiere sports channel. The government-owned station, often dismissed as a government mouthpiece and propaganda machine by government critics, has shifted to commercial broadcasting, opening doors to private advertisers and introducing more interactive programing. To make itself the alternative television network, giving priority to high-quality news and public affairs, cultural and educational, and sports programs with Silverstar has been getting more aggressive with acquiring a bunch of projects since they seem to have such a strong connection with Channel 4.

Disseminate objective and up-to-date information on government projects and activities. Help translate the government's vision of national unity, social upliftment, economic progress, and enduring peace into reality to give new meaning to alternative programming and make primetime viewing more inviting, PTV guarantees to bring distinctive and captivating shows that will bring ample and balanced entertainment to its audience with Channel 4 has nationwide reach, making the PTV Network a government corporation known as People's Television Network, Inc. (PTNI) which was mandated to give its viewers a balanced mix of news and public affairs, educational, cultural and sports programs.

For your frank information, the broadcast graphics on PTV is made up of Adobe Creative Suite, which most professional videographers can easily bought PTV now using the computer animated grapgics. It's not any better than Channels 2 and 7 which they procured two years ago (an election year) some quality broadcast graphics package (Orad and VizRT), costing hundreds of million pesos to invest and to operate. On their website, the bid for broadcast graphics and virtual studios cost PHP 2.9 million.

Based on my observation, all of their newscasts have 3 main anchors, instead of 2 regular anchors and a sports anchor, as most newscasts in the rest of the world, they broadcast Paco Park Presents and Concert at the Park, which we gain the spirit of arts and culture. The weekend editions via spin-offs like News@1: The Week that Was,News@1 Junior and weekend edition for The Weekend News with Jorge Bandola and Rocky Ignacio to give its viewers a balanced mix of news and public affairs, educational and cultural, and sports programs, NBC 3 the network should "give priority to education, science and technology, arts, culture, children and sports in order to foster national pride and identity." Instead, PTV-4 fosters a culture of gambling and vices by airing programs on lotto, jai alai, online bingo, among others.

Aside from the new newscasts and a new breakfast program (Good Morning Boss!), there's a new PTVprogramming; the same public affairs programs, documentaries and educational program CONSTEL which return to the Counting Studies via Television is on TV which now airs from Monday to Saturday as PTV is now home to educational programming CONSTEL like Science Made Easy, Chemistry in Action, Physics in Everyday Life, Fun with Math and English High School aimed at upgrading teaching skills of elementary and secondary teachers of Science and English to help address the high dropout rate in grade school. Institutionalized by Department of Education, Culture and Sports (DECS), CONSTEL Science and English are being used in teacher training by the Regional and Divisional Leader Schools of the Department of Education, culture and sports and in Teacher Education Institutions of the Commission on Higher Education. Other educational and cultural programs on PTVwill bring back on television: Tele-Aralan ng Kakayahan, hosted by Cecille B. Garucho; Hands on Craft for Kids and Kidsongs.

In my opinion, NBC have a great potential to develop more as an effective alternative to the telebasura that plaguing Philippine TV landscape as a whole. However, since NBC is state-owned, they are victims of mismanagement since the time of Marcos. As Butch Francisco said once in his article, NBC is a sleeping giant.

NBC needed a second channel for cultural and intellectual programming. Most public broadcasters had two networks. And NBC must improve its TV drama department, to provide high-quality Filipino dramas to the screen as well as i-Connect, the first show on air will discuss the latest news on social media with Paolo Soler, Xeres X Guia and Abre Abracoso, NBC Special Forum, a public service program will discuss on the issues in TV forum with host Atty. Marc Castrodes, Kathy San Gabriel Scandal, investigative-type program Veronica Balayut-

Jimenez's The Veronica Chronicles, the public service talk show like GSIS Memebrs Hour hosted by VP Margie Jorillo and Ms. Bo Sanchez, the noontime children's cartoon programming like Cartoon Hour from Monday to Saturday at noon, Ka Gerry Geronimio's agricultural and livelihood program Ating Alamin marked on its 39th year anniversary, a game show like Show Up: Ang Bagong Game Show ng Bayan every Sunday with host Chx Alcala, Cacai Bautista, Samantha Page, Vanessa Villegas, Doc Harris Acero, Mark Anthony Cruz, Carby Salvador, Ms. Mj and JIREH ang bestfriend ng bayan aims mainly on bringing hope to our less fortunate brothers and sisters thru giving away prizes via different game segments of the show coupled with entertainment by special numbers from specials celebrity guests, cash prizes both for winners and non-winners, gift packages from organizers and sponsors will dominate the whole event of the show with NBC, the one and only national network that brings you quality sports viewing entertainment.

NBC is a good viewership during the basketball league of the sports events like ASEAN Basketball League and UAAP, which home to the basketball tournamets in the university basketball league and the official broadcaster of major international sports competitions like Sydney Olympics and covering the 2013 Southeast Asian Games. During these coverages, NBC received commendations from various sports organizations.

And NBC must strive hard to be an independent, plural and objective public broadcaster, free from government intervention. Oh, and I forgot, NBC should promote the right usage of the Filipino language, as most public broadcasters. Add it with provincial public broadcasters, and voila.

The New UN Television In Service to Humanity Worldwide: The new UNTV: a rebirth

In the competitive mainstream broadcasting via television, the evolution of UNTV Channel 37 is a vibrant, refreshing change from the traditional beat. Daring and more controversial today compared when it was first launched roughly three years ago, it tread what other stations refrain from traversing.

Without sacrificing values, relevance and social responsibility, UNTV is committed to deliver what every Filipino deserves balanced, quality programming, value-laden shows, and public service.

The new UNTV will be handled by Tapatan Inc., with Mr. Jay Sonza as the chairman and CEO. So, turn on your television sets and see what we have to offer in the new UNTV.

Company Info Edit

Dynamic Early Years

In 2001, the radio network NU 107 has widened its scope and included television. As the latest addition to the growing Progressive Broadcasting Corporation family, UNTV is the visual counterpart of the rock radio station with fast-paced programs, contemporary as well as edgy music videos, and original programs that "promises to send you off to bed with a smile on your face.

UNTV and DWNU 107.5 FM are owned and operated by the Progressive Broadcasting Corporation and a brainchild of banker/businessman Atom L. Henares and radio veteran Mike N. Pedero.

The radio station was born out of the need to come up with a product that would set the standard for good taste in music. In 1987, it blasted the airwaves with rock, music that is "dynamic, young, passionate, creative, and always ready to renew itself.

For more than thirteen years, NU 107's music has defined the lifestyle and taste of its young audience.

It has carved a niche in the radio broadcast history as one of the very first alternative radio station that plays artists who breaks new ground in music.

NU 107 has made inroads with Filipino rock musicians, giving them the opportunity to have their songs aired in radio, regardless if they are represented by a major label or not.

As edgy, as creative and as experimental as the radio station, UNTV strives to give audiences a taste of what television should be.

Core Mission

UN Television - Worldwide "In Service to Humanity". is the latest Philippine free TV on Channel 37, UHF band.

Revolutionary and alternative programming is the main menu of the station.

UNTV's mission is to provide best quality programs that are value-laden, educational, entertaining, informative, up-to-date, accurate.

Services Edit

In its keen desire to re-introduce the channel to a larger demographic range than its current target that are into religion and spirituality, UNTV's relaunch will officially declare the station's intent to spread its wings to a wider market towards more varied audiences.

These audiences have steadily migrated to UNTV over the past few months via its serious and relevant key program changes in the station.

The relaunch – which included a new Station ID (SID), new tagline and station icon and the launch of a new, interactive UNTV web site – provides UNTV the opportunity to tie up all these changes into one comprehensive package, designed to welcome new viewers while recognizing the role of long-time UNTV viewers in the station's unprecedented success.

For the next month or so in the coming months, new programs and shows will reveal and be presented which exhibits more than the ordinary, less of the conventional but rich in substance. In one of its thrust to promote creativity and build a community of visual and performing artist, UNTV wants them to rely on the station to be their venue to showcase their many talents and pursuits.

Satellite Technology Edit

Considered a milestone in its broadcasting, UNTV's entry into satellite broadcasting using the Agila II satellite make it available to the whole archipelago and soon to the whole of Southeast Asian countries simultaneously.

Using this technology, the satellite's coverage extends to approximately 3 billion people throughout the Asia and the Southeast Asia.

UNTV's telecast on channel 37 covers the Greater Manila Area and its neighboring provinces in Bulacan, Cavite, Rizal and Pampanga.

When it comes to innovative programming, UNTV is one to beat with its trend-setting introduction of live broadcast whereby viewers can participate via a live question and answer portion, and send feedback and queries through text messaging in several of the station's programs.

UNTV has indeed conquered the realm of cyberspace with its official homepage, www.untvweb.com and the 24/7 broadcast via the internet will be made possible through the web streaming media.

RPN-9 Starts Developing Its Own Stable Of Talents

July 31, 2013

RPN-9 seems determined to resume producing and airing local variety programs. In the 1970s and 1980s, it was among the top-raters in the local TV industry, battling with GMA-7 and IBC-13. Its popularity started waning when the network was involved in the sequestration process as the government found that the station was owned by several of alleged Marcos cronies.

Since the time of former President Cory Aquino, RPN-9 has been operating as a government owned corporation following the sequestration. That setup somehow weakened the network. Thus, it was not able to go with the flow and continue its development.

Now, RPN-9 is almost non-existent to the consciousness of Philippine TV viewers. In the past decade, it was known for showing several popular canned shows from the US like Ally McBeal and Felicity. But this decade, it was almost totally gone from the viewers' consciousness especially at the height of the network war between leaders ABS-CBN and GMA-7. RPN-9 is holding a talent search in an attempt to develop its own roster of homegrown talents for its upcoming revival.

Reviving RPN-9

Now, its president and CEO Robert T. Rivera has announced plans to revitalize and revive the once glorious TV network. RPN-9 is starting through developing its own stable of home-grown talents. It intends to do so through launching a nationwide talent search called Boses: Tinig P-Noy.

The singing contest is not aired over TV but it is being relayed through RPN-9's 12 local radio stations that are scattered nationwide. Through this search, the network hopes it could discover and soon develop its own pool of Pinoy talents. With this, RPN-9 has disclosed its plans to produce and air a new variety show, which would start airing by the end of this year.

The contest should not be underestimated. The network is ready to give up to P1 million in cash prize to the talented winner. The big winner would also secure a talent and recording contract with the network.

Boses ng P-Noy

The singing contest stages an audition for duos and trios comprising of members aged 15 years old and above. The contest would have representatives from Center for Pop Music Philippines as among the judges. There would be weekly eliminations and monthly finals.

The first leg of the contest kicked off last June in Baguio City. The second leg was held in Cagayan de Oro City last July 27. There would be succeeding announcements about where the next venue of the contest would be.

RPN-9 is not new to talent searches. The network recalled that Nora Aunor came from them. Ang Bagong Kampeon, which discovered Regine Velasquez and other singers, used to air on the station. Eat Bulaga, another talent discoverer, also spent many years with RPN-9. RPN-9 is currently operated by Solar Entertainment, which owns up to 34% of the new network. Far East Managers and Investors Inc holds the other 32% of the network. It is assumed that the rest is held by the government.

The Kasama Network

RPN has a dashing new look these days and competition of the network. Despite being saddled with equipment that have seen better days, RPN determined to back its glory days. The highest-rating TV network in the Philippine television history, RPN-9 through the multimillion-peso relaunch during its glory days in Broadcast City are top rating drama series, sitcoms, gag shows, music variety shows and music specials in RPN 9.

On June 19, 1960, the Philippine Legislature passed Republic Act No. 2980 which granted RPN a franchise to construct, establish, maintain and operate radio broadcasting and television stations in the Philippines.

Once fully operational, it launched its flagship radio station in Manila, DZBI. By 1967, RPN had grown into a full network, operating DZRR in Manila as well as DZAX- Manila, DZAH and DZBS in Baguio, DZTG in Tuguegarao, DZRL in Laoag, and DXDX in Dadiangas.

1969 was a signal year in the growth of RPN. It was in this year that the network branched out into television with channel 9 in Manila and channel 12 in Baguio. It was also in 1969 that RPN introduced technical milestones in Philippine television. First, it brought in its Toshiba equipment which enabled Channel 9 to telecast in full color. 'Accucolor', as its color casting capability was named, was far superior and professional from the test-quality color broadcasts then being run in the country.

Then, RPN brought in the first Outside Broadcast Color Van (OB Van) in the country, making it possible to beam studio-quality broadcasts of news and special events coverage from remote sites.

RPN entered the 1970's as the country's premiere radio and television network with the coverage of the times epochal events by its award-winning news and public affairs, it's TV Hall-of-Fame local and international services, landmark local and foreign entertainment specials and extensive coverage of sporting events, from Philippines Basketball to Munich and Montreal Olympiads. A decade later, in 1981 RPN introduced another first, when it brought true "networking" to the country as it pioneered the use of domestic satellite to simulcast its primetime block programs over all its TV stations nationwide, making it possible for provincial audiences to view the same programs at the same time as their Manila counterparts. Today, RPN continues to provide exceptional broadcasting together with its provincial TV and Radio stations nationwide.

RPN is also currently one of the media companies under the Presidential Communications Operations Office headed by Secretary Herminio B. Coloma, Jr.

When it comes to the first all-color television experience Thrilla in Manila, the 1988 Summer Olympics and the Apollo Missions, the award-winning Filipino mini-series are Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao, the imports of Mexican telenovelas are Marimar, Luz Clarita and Maria la del Barrio, and the outstanding foreign series are MacGyver, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue and The Practice. The unforgettable Filipino shows are John en Marsha, Superstar, Champoy, Eat Bulaga!, Ang Bagong Kampeon, Kwarta o Kahon, Gulong ng Palad, Flordeluna and Buddy en Sol to become a hit shows.

Almost overnight, the station that bred and brought to Filipino homes such TV landmarks as John en Marsha, Newswatch, An Evening with Pilita, Tanghalan ng Kampeon, Superstar, Ang Bagong Kampeon, Flordeluna, Champoy, Gulong ng Palad, Aawitan Kita, Eat Bulaga!, Buddy en Sol and international phenomenal like Marimar, metamorphosed into a serious threat to the network giants. RPN is now the Kasama Mo network and the new monicker was introduced with an engaging jingle. The Solar group behind much of the new format as part of the new programming scheme under the leadership of chairman Wilson Tieng and president and CEO Robert Rivera.

RPN will not be sold because it continue to privatized. Giving the TV network in the privatization will refloat. RPN is home to the boxing bouts, Miss Universe beauty pageant, Emmy Awards, Grammy Awards, Academy Awards and so much more. RPN-9 is powerful with 100 kilowatt Harris transmitter tower coverng Mega Manila and other provincial stations in key cities across the nation. Many are saddened by the state of things at government-owned sequestered network RPN 9 used to be the country's number one station.

The revival of this network will give Pinoy viewer crappy shows shown by the other bigger networks like ABS-CBN, GMA, IBC and TV5. RPN studios are located along Broadcast City, Capitol Hills in Diliman, Quezon City.

The success of these foreign canned shows and subsequent sale of airtime to independent TV producers made it financially viable for RPN to produce its own local shows. The station defied the limits set by the martial law era and won countless awards in broadcast journalism for Arangkada Balita and NewsWatch when RPN gathered its biggest stars, network officials and the print media to a night of entertainment, competitions, raffle draws, huge prizes and of course, fun and excitement with supervisors, directors, managers, talents, and other employees. New local programs defined with The Million Peso Money Drop, BOSES: Tinig P-Noy, Sabi ni Nanay, Roderick en Nova, Showbiz Ka!, Champoy, Superstar, Kwarta o Kahon and Chibugan Na! setting the trend. Through its regional stations, RPN programs were seen across the archipelago and in the Southeast Asia. The following year, Arangkada

Balita, NewsWatch, Superstar, Tell the People, BOSES: Tinig P-Noy, Roderick en Nova, Champoy, Chibugan Na! Nora, Pinapangako Mo, Spin-A-Win, The Million Peso Money Drop, the MBA and ABL games and Kwarta o Kahonare the trailblazers started airing in 60 American cities and parts of South America through the International Channel Network on-air performance as well as on administration.

RPN-9 for branding The Kasama Network in an alternative programming, which comes with the catchphrase Idol Maging Kasama!, is part of its bid to catch up in the local ratings game. From the way it has restructured its original shows, the number 3 network is definitely to a good start. The network's new president and chief executive officer (CEO) Robert Rivera and chairman Wilson Tieng with Solar Entertainment. RPN's new programs are worth anticipating and hopefully developing loyalty for aiming to a mass audience behind RPN on-camera talents and some homegrown RPN talents.

Thalia Telenovela Edit

The company and its available resources Radio Philippines Network, Inc (RPN), initially known as Kanlaon Broadcasting System, is a broadcast television network in the Philippines owned by the Government Communications Group. Initially operated radio stations and in 1969 it launched its television arm. In the 70s and 80s, RPN was a big player in the local broadcast industry with several shows and special coverage in its fold. It aired special coverage like the Olympics, Thrilla in Manila and the Miss Universe beauty pageant.

It also launched trendsetting programs such as John en Marsha, Superstar, Eat Bulaga, and several big-name animes. It also bought rights for re-broadcasting of several hit TV shows from the United States.

After the 1986 EDSA revolution, RPN was sequestered by the government and itsassets were turned over to the Government Communications Group. In its fall fromgrace, the network lost much of its viewership to GMA and ABS-CBN. Some of its high-rating primetime shows into a ratings slump of ABS-CBN and GMA. Being a government controlled company; it was running on a budget.

Marimar is a Mexican TV telenovela originally broadcasted in 1994 in Mexico. The rights were bought by RPN-9, dubbed it in Filipino and re-broadcasted on a primetime slot on Philippine television. Pitted against industry giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7, Marimar caught the fancy of Filipinos and became a nationwide sensation. Intriguing is the fact that at that time, ABS-CBN and GMA's shows lord over television and their shows occupy a very huge chunk of the ratings pie. In came Marimar and shoved its rival's ratings. On the marketing perspective, what strategies were employed that led to the tipping of the ratings scale.

RPN was already importing foreign shows (mostly from the US and Japan). The craze was called Marimar shows supplanted by RPN on this timeslot took a back seat on its rival network's newscasts. Marimar thus became the pawn against the bishops and rooks of their rival. Import top-rating shows in other countries whose formula are akin to the shows patronized in the Philippines. The newscast's ratings were sky-scrapers as compared to RPN's.

RPN-9 starting the telenovela craze of soap operas are Quinceañera, Mari Mar, Maria la del Barrio, La Traidora, Maria Isabel, La Viuda de Blanco, Piel, Monte Cristo, La Usurpadora, Luz Clarita, Siempre Te Amare, Preciosa, Simplemente Maria, Maria del Cielo, Sin Ti, Luz y Sombra and Serafin.

Now, a new popular telenovela compared to other networks. Rosalinda, a new telenovela airing every weeknights at 10 p.m., starring the Mexican stars like actress Thalia and actor Fernando Carrillo as Fernando José.

A telenovela more stable and more dominant network, Marimar and Rosalinda airing daily on RPN while a radio adaption tiled Marimar Radyo Novela and Rosalinda Radyo Novela will also broadcast over 14 RPN radio stations Radyo Ronda nationwide in Tagalog and Cebuano versions.

Rosalinda (Thalia) is a pretty woman who sells flowers and decorates a fancy restaurant. One day, she meets Fernando José (Fernando Carrillo), a man of high social status. He plays the piano at the restaurant. They eventually fall in love, get married, and have a child named Erika, but his stepmother Valeria desires to split the happy couple up, and she has the perfect way of doing so. Rosalinda's real mother, Soledad, served a 20-year prison sentence for the murder of Fernando José's real father. She was innocent, but took the blame. After finding out this horrible news, Fernando José abandons Rosalinda and her daughter. Valeria kidnaps Erika. Rosalinda goes into a depression and eventually loses her mind. She is locked up in a mental hospital.

Local TV viewers from local TV soap operas, preferring the Mexican telenovelas and asianovelas being shown on two TV networks, notably RPN-9, which has lined up other Mexican and Korean TV dramas.

A number of people have to slam RPN-9 for popularizing imported TV dramas a run for their money of huge profits, which detrimental to the local TV industry. The management should showing for local TV producers to improve their products to world-class level.

The phenomenal, said Roebrt Rivera as the president and CEO of the network. The entry of this Spanich-language TV series, dubebd into the Filipino, roke the traditional dominance of US and other Western canned programmed on local television. Offered Rosalinda and other soap operas to the giant TV networks in the Philippines for free on condition the local networks would provide free air time and shoulder dubbing costs. The giant networks, apparently on the local market potential of the soap operas from Mexico, Taiwan and Korea. The popular US programs via its World-Class US Primetime campaign are Glee, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, The Big Bang Theory, American Idol, The Vampire Diaries, NCIS, WWE Bottom Line, WWE SmackDown!, Hell's Kitchen. America's Next Top Model, 24, New Girl and Survivor: Caramoan were the very popular hits with Filipino viewers and advertisers.

The government's cash of The Kasama Network. The soap smashed the leadership of its rival program of ABS-CBN's Bukas Na Lang Kita Mamahalin and GMA-7's True Love.

The Kasama Network, which shows Rosalinda with the franchise. The local channel spends for dubbing Filipino in promoting the series also for Channel 9 to embark on these shows poincered in the telenovela genre along with exciting new shows that will promote good values and earn itself some money generate revenues and income thru their quality programs in innovation and creative.

Newspapers reported incidents of commuters while glued to Rosalinda inside TV-equipped buses. At least one murder was caused by the Mexican programme in Manila, where a man, watching the show, for refusing to change channels from vehicles and rushed into nearly houses and radio broadcasting station TV sets tuned to Rosalinda. The government-sequestered, wary of the show's wide popularity, the 1.3 million public employees nationwide that watching the show during office hours the acclaimed telenovelas and asianovelas which has generated a revenues and income for the sequestered TV and radio station. Stunned by Rosalinda's success, the other channels reprogrammed their shows, positioning their soap operas to match the schedule of Rosalinda across the nation popularity in the Philippines and the country.

Rosalinda's popularity could signal the entry of more Latin American canned programmes to the Philippines and the rest of Asia. RPN-9 is scheduled to air two more TV serial visiting Manila.

Officials of both the MBA, Solar Entertainment and Radio Philippines Network made the announcement as they confirmed The STAR's exclusive report yesterday that they have forged partnership for the exclusive broadcast rights of MBA games in a press conference at the Edsa Shangri-La.

The MBA and ABL had a programming schedule on RPN-9 improve programming. The network's flagship national news programs Arangkada Balita (Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo) and NewsWatch (Kiko Pangilinan and Cristina Pecson) develop among the viewers while airing the games on ABL nights making more money.

RPN chairman Wilson Tieng and RPN president and CEO Robert T. Rivera have agreed to a partnership with the ABL and MBA for the airing on the league's popular games, in line with the network's commitment to high-quality programs are foreign canned shows in the US, more local programming in a local news and public affairs programs and high-quality entertainment shows, boxing bouts, WWE wrestling, animes, telenovelas, Koreanovelas and movies. Rivera for being such a strong supporter hopes to improve its coverage of its games this season delivered with RPN digital signal quality on the nationwide network with support from regional and international RPN media outlets are RPN Regional and RPN USA.

The reality was that maintaining the league was already very prohibitive for RPN for Solar Sports, whose promotional campaign gave the birth of the league tremendous public awareness return in 2013. At a time when the economic crunch is dramatically reducing advertising all around, maintaining a basketball league with huge expenses and buying airtime to broadcast. The league has the block-timer on RPN, with the upscale programming of Channel 9 in partnership with Solar Sports while the games' telecast through RPN USA, which connects to Filipino audience in the United States in Dish Network, Guam, South Korea, Southeast Asia, Japan, China, Africa, Europe, North America, Hawaii, Middle East, Alaska,

A captive audience viewers impatient to the advertisements of various consumer products to form a team that can win the championship and entertain the Filipino overseas workers. "RPN-9 is a fantastic free-to-air broadcaster in the country, MBA and ABL basketball is excited at the opportunity to showing the action-packed with a hardcore basketball of our Filipino sports fans in millions of homes through the country." The Wilson Tieng group's entry into Channel 9 is seen as the television industry, with the network expected to become a third major player in Philippine broadcasting with the original program concepts to join the league along with the new basketball players are Jerry Condiñera, Vergel Meneses, Samboy Lim, Bong Alvarez, Nelson Asaytono and Johnny Abarrientos which will air the MBA games live on Saturdays and Sundays with provide the production crews of RPN and Solar Sports in the network's state-of-the-art braodcast satellite facilities.

The league schedules its games on Saturdays and Sundays to accommodate the airing of the local productions like The Million Peso Money Drop, BOSES: Tinig P-Noy, Superstar, Roderick en Nova, Mister Kemis Bayani and Champoy increasing the ratings to help boost Channel 9's ratings while the country's leading men's professional basketball league in Southeast Asia and the stars of the entertainment to develop its audience having its stable of talents, teen stars, actors, actress, stars and superstars.

Tonypet Albano, Wilson Tieng and Robert T. Rivera, owner of sequestered broadcasting firm RPN-9, head the country's venture in the league pitting the team from the Philippines against pro squads from Indonesia, Thailand, Singapore, Brunei and Malaysia. Rivera said RPN would be covering the ABL and MBA games for television while his partner Mikee will provide the expertise in forming and running the team meet in court. Born of the combination of RPN's technical supperiority. The proven experience of sports experts and daring creativity commitment to sports development of Solar Sports thru Basketball TV.

Six clubs from six different countries of the Association of SoutheastAsian Nations (ASEAN) in the teams of Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam with San Miguel Beermen, Indonesia Warriors, Siagon Heat, the JobStreet.com Singapore Slingers, the Westports Malaysia Dragons, the Philippine Patriots, the Chang Thailand Slammers and Sports Rev Thailand Slammers to play for the first local professional team captured the imagination of basketball fans nationwide.

Aiming to bring basketball and provide entertainment to the countryside, and discover and hone tapped talents, the MBA continues to push the boundaries with its home-and away live coverage of games separately played in the north and south, a first and a feat in Philippine basketball. The MBA banks on the regional format of competition, a winning formula that has enticed even the audience to get involved.

The MBA teams represent a particular city, province or island in the country. The league brought basketball closer to the people. The teams are grouped into two conferences: Northern (Luzon and Metro Manila) and Southern (Visayas and Mindanao). Without a doubt, the MBA fulfills the promise of more than scream-your-lungs-out kind of games. MBA basketball resulted in consistent double digit ratings and a solid audience share despite appeared to be a decline in the overall popularity of basketball and the troubles besetting the league.

The MBA had adopted the several methods of determining its champion in the home-and-away play format in the Philippine basketball landscape. The season concludes with the MBA National Finals, where the Northern Conference champion faces the Southern Conference champion to decide the MBA Championship.

This came about as The Kasama Network has carry ABL and MBA games and intends to improve its news program as part of its plan to restructure and be competitive against business giants ABS-CBN-2 and GMA-7 along with the number 3 spot of IBC-13, TV5 and Studio 23. The changes, RPN and Solar Sports said, are necessary to counteract the growing opposition posed by the soap operas, sitcoms, drama anthologies, game shows and reality shows being aired by other networks during the nightcap of the double-header league.

IBC-13 Unleashes 'Third Quarter Storm' of Strong Programs

June 28, 2014

Revamped faves, news and sports exclusives comprise IBC's Q13 slate

A group of TV officials and employees with whom I used to work, when the president Benigno Noynoy Aquino III managed Channel 4 (PTV) is the government channel, RPN-9 and IBC-13 is currently the top networks compared to the two dominants as well.

They complained that the PCGG appointed management of Channel 13 has allowed the erest while very profitable TV network to completely the rates. I told that upgrade the equipment and facilities to make the network war. And now used to be the no.3 station in all program surbeys at the bottom of surveys, competitive with other stations. Even its money-making programs compared to other giants.

Remember of IBC-13 jingle of the 80's life is a drama, life is a comedy, action and fantasy. At the 1994 station ID as Pinoy ang Dating, Those days with Super Boink, Ghost Fighter, PBA, Sinbad, Shaider, Bioman, Maskman, Kamen Rider Black, etc. In which, those VTV programming starts in 1996 with the PBA games.

With brand-new shows and newly improved favorites, The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 stands for Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 is all set to unleash a storm of game-changing programs recently announced with its "Signal No.13: Umuulan ng Kapinoy" third quarter campaign, as no less than IBC President and CEO Boots Anson-Roa spearheaded the official unveiling of the network's new line-up of Sports (I), Entertainment (B) and News and Current Affairs (C) offerings during a recent trade launch attended by a number of business partners, media agencies, key sponsors and other VIPs.

Back in the day when we used to have the likes of Ghost Fighter, Masked Rider Black and Yaiba on our TV screens, an impressive and memorable imaging campaign produced by Philippine TV networks would be possible because of budgetary concerns.

Commissioned by IBC-13, has certainly made a good mark for fans of local TV, with its very nationalistic tone fit for a image campaign. By the standards of is a masterpiece.

For me this is good news because employees especially the older ones will be more motivated to do their craft. Broadcasting equipments will be new and they can hopefully reign again. The government will have a buyer that can really manage to have a responsible news reporting. Our Philippine entertainment industry with viewers can choose more programs that are suitable to their preferences. IBC-13, TV5 and RPN-9 is doing good once again. It can now rival the two biggest networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa outlines the network's programming for the third quarter of the year.

Hosted by Maya Loves Sir Chief's love team of Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, the trade event gave attendees an exclusive and first-hand look of what promises to be even greater things to come from the Kapinoy Network this third quarter, what with a fortified programming grid that further reinforces IBC-13's commitment in offering viewers a different kind of Philippine TV experience. IBC is able to provide strong signal nationwide, and IBC-13 will be the undisputed #3 station in the country.

IBC-13's third quarter storm officially makes its mark on June 30 with the launch of an even stronger morning television block, beginning with the back-to-back premieres of two of the Kapinoy Network's most engaging programs: Retro TV (at 11:30AM-12:00NN), a most creative concept by Gel Garciano and Rowie Valencia, brings back the network's hit shows from classic files in a fun-filled, imaginative production. Mario Maurer host the show in a hip manner as a video jock who does in the intro, comments and wrapping up of the TV reruns. Mondays and Wednesdays will feature TODAS, one of the most successful gag shows in the '80s with Joey de Leon, Jimmy Santos, Maribeth Bichara, Val Sotto, Richie da Horsie, and others. Political satire comes back in the political satire Sic O'Clock News every Tuesday and Thursday, featuring Jaime Fabregas, Ces Quesada, Rene Requiestas and Khryss Adalia. Dazzling production numbers make up Friday night a reruns of The Sharon Cuneta Show, Loveliness, Maricel Live, and other variety shows are shown.

The Pinoy version of the country's favorite reality cooking competition on daytime television which is based on the US TV series with Gordom Ramsay, Hell's Kitchen (10:30-11:30AM) which welcomes Chef Rob Pengson as its new host the kusina-serye. Each season brings twelve to twenty aspiring chefs to Hell's Kitchen, a modified warehouse in Diliman, Quezon City that includes the restaurant, dual kitchen facilities, and a dormitory where the chefs reside while on the show. Breaks the chefs into two teams most often based on gender, with women on the red team, and men on the blue, and are given chef's jacket with labels of that color. The chefs compete in theses teams, barring any reassignments by Chef Rob, until only five or six chefs are left, which they are brought into a single common team wearing black-labeled jackets, though they now compete individually to be one of the final two. Each episode typically includes one challenge and one dinner service, following which a chef is eliminated from the game. In challenges, the teams or individual chefs are tasked with a cooking challenge. The type of challenges are varied, ranging from ingredient preparation, meal preparation, taste tests, and other challenges. The first challenge of each season is a signature dish cookoff, giving the chefs the opportunity to show Ramsay their cooking. Each season typically includes one or more challenges that allows teams to construct several dishes either for a banquet to be held the next dinner service or as part of designing their own menus. Other challenges typically include a "taste it, make it" task where chefs must try to recreate a dish Ramsay has prepared by taste only, and a taste-test challenge where chefs identify ingredients without sight or sound. The winner of the challenge is either determined by a scoring system set for that challenge, or based on Ramsay's and guest judges' opinions. The winning team or chef is typically rewarded with an activity away from Hell's Kitchen and other potential prizes, while the losing team or chefs are forced to do a menial task, such as cleaning the kitchens, preparing a specific ingredient for the dinner's meal, or having to prepare the food for both kitchens.

For dinner services, the chefs are expected to work their station (such as meat, pork, fish, chicken, or garnish) on the kitchen line to prepare food in coordination with their teammates and to Chef Rob's high standards for quality and presentation during a dinner service for about 100 guests (volunteers for the show), with each diner expecting to receive an appetizer, an entree, and a dessert. The chefs are given recipe books by Ramsay to study and memorize, which include some of more difficult plates including risotto and Beef Wellington, and are given a few hours before each service to prep their ingredients. Demands that all orders for one course for a table go out together, and will send back entire orders if one item is improperly prepared, such as being over- or undercooked or not seasoned correctly. While the chefs are in two teams, Chef Rob is assisted by two of his trusted sous-chefs, each monitoring one of the kitchens who will also demand the same standards. The sous-chefs shift to helping to fill available positions once the chefs are on a single black team. Chef Rob desires to complete every dinner service but poor kitchen performance by one or both teams will cause him to close one or both sides of the kitchen and sending the team(s) back to the dorms. Once the dinner service is complete, Chef Rob determines which team (if not both) is the losing team and informs them to come up with chefs to be nominated for elimination. This may be a task assigned to the "best of the worst" on the team, or may be a group consensus. Ramsay regroups the teams and hears out the nominations from the losing team(s). After giving these nominees the chance to defend themselves, Ramsay selects one to hand over their jacket and "leave Hell's Kitchen", later symbolically placing that jacket on an empty hook below the chef's picture in a row in his office, which ignites the picture signalling their departure. Ramsay is free to ignore these elimination rules as he sees. He has frequently eliminated chefs during the middle of the service if their performance is abysmal, or may override the provided nominations with his own selection. Once two chefs remain, they are each given the opportunity to develop their own menu and lead a brigade of former competitors through a full dinner service on their own. In some seasons, this has included the opportunity to decorate half of the Hell's Kitchen restaurant to their liking. Chef Rob Pengson will assure that all menu items meet his standards for high cuisine, and will oversee the service to make sure the high quality standards he expects are retained but otherwise does not get involved, allowing the two remaining chefs to demonstrate their ability to run the line to him. Ramsay will use his observations, those from the diners, and other sources to make a decision on who is the winning chef. This process is announced by having the two chefs stand at two different doors from his office, and telling them to turn the door handle and open it; only the door of the winning chef is unlocked. The winning chef receives numerous prizes including the opportunity to work as the head chef or executive chef at a restaurant of Chef Rob's choosing, as well as a cash prize. Head chef is Chef Rob Pengson, sous chefs are the blue team Chef Gene Gonzalez and the red team Chef John Cu-Unjing.

Boots Anson-Roa pulls Channel 13 to No.3

Quezon City, Aug. 18, 2000 - The station IBC-13, traditionally considered an also-ran in Philippine television, is now No. 3, behind top-notchers ABS-CBN 2 and GMA-7. Actress and former Washington diplomat Boots Anson Roa, IBC-13 top honcho, made the disclosure at a press conference last Monday.

The network is still sequestered, and Boots admitted that it's still up for privatization.

Boots also revealed that the network's franchise was granted by Congress very recently, after the network had operated for more than 30 years.

"No, the network wasn't operating illegally all through those years. It simply had to keep renewing its temporary permit to operate every year," she how the network managed to operate for almost three decades without a congressional franchise.

The purpose of that luncheon affair was to introduce to the press most of the shows produced by the network itself. Several hours of programming are produced daily by a blocktimer group, Viva-Vintage. Such programs include basketball and international sports events like the Cardiff, Wales World 9-Ball Billiards Championship participated in by several Filipino cue artists.

The network does have very interesting new shows such as the one hosted by Chin Chin Gutierrez: Good Take, which airs on Mondays at 11:30 p.m.

It features the best of Pinoy as exemplified by non-grandstanding heroes (meaning, non-politicians and non-showbiz idols dreaming of becoming politicians). Chin Chin's co-hosts are Tintin Pizarro and Karen Cabrera, both well-experienced IBC-13 news reporters and newscasters.

And, oh, yes, Chin Chin was asked to lead the invocation that afternoon and she did it in a very dramatic (even cinematic!) style that combined traditional Filipino and New Age rituals.

She led the invocation wearing some native outfit from the Mountain Province and in front of fruits and earthen jars (and this was on the stage) with three musicians playing some native instruments, including a giant shell. She lit some candles and burned some incense.

And then she had the people close their eyes, observe silence, get in touch with their inner selves, recall the people who have hurt them and forgive them mentally, recall the people they have hurt and offended and ask for their forgiveness and then project the spirit of success to all the shows of IBC-13.

Then she switched to Filipino (her first invocations were in English) and prayed to Bathala for the success of IBC-13shows. Afterwards, she asked everybody to light the candles they found at their tables to radiate to everyone and to the universe the spirit of success, peace, and harmony.

IBC-13: 'Don't cont us out' Edit

August 19, 2000

CHANNEL 13 has always been identified with the PBA Games, and recently with Viva's local production. That's because the Viva-Vintage Tandem has more or less cornered the network's primetime hours. So, when Boots Anson-Roa took over as president in July 1998, she couldn't really put her stamp on the nation's programming and even the non-prime hours were sold to blocktimers, like religious groups and telemarketing outfits.

Slowly, however, Boots managed to make her presence felt in the industry. It started with specials like Homecoming sa 13 and other youth-oriented one shot presentations. Last Monday, the network held a press conference to tell everyone not to count IBC-13 out. Boots told us that her station had gotten back some of its primetime hours: 7 to 9 p.m. on Mondays; 8 to 9 p.m. on Tuesdays; 11:30 p.m. to 12 midnight on Sundays; and 11 p.m. to 12 midnight across the board.

To fill up these hours, IBC-13 has lined up the following shows:

Children's programming from Mondays to Fridays at 4 to 4:30 p.m. as the new cartoons with Gogo's Adventures with English.

Local movies on Mondays, 7 to 9 p.m., a co-production with Viva Television.

Good Take, Mondays at 11:30 p.m. A program that highlights the achievements of individuals or groups that make them living heroes that viewers can emulate. It is hosted by Chin-Chin Gutierrez with co-host Karen Cabrera and Tintin Pizarro.

DMZ-TV, Tuesdays, 8 to 9 p.m. A dance program hosted by Lara Fabregas and Medwin Marfil with co-host Rengie Galvez, JC Castro, Tone Wijangco and Celine Hoffman. The show, which is simulcast on 89 DMZ on radio, is directed by Mark Reyes.

Last Fool Show, Fridays, 11:30 p.m. to 12 midnight. Comedians Jun Urbano, Gary Lising and Giselle Sanchez take a zany look at the raging issues of the day. The trio interview newsmakers on current developments in their own inimitable way.

Y2K: Yes to Kids, Sundays, 10 to 10:30 a.m. A magazine program hosted by 11-year-old Maxene Magalona aimed at young viewers.

Hapi Kung Healthy, Sundays, 10:30 to 11 a.m. A sitcom/magazine program that deals with health issues and aims to educate children and parents about diseases and to prevent the spread of these ailments. It is hosted by Manilyn Reynes with co-host Jeff Arcilla, Lou Veloso and Arlene Tolibas and directed by Jeff Jeturian.

Then there are the news programs: Express Balita anchored by Snooky Serna-Go and Anne Marie Soriano; Ronda Trese with Ida Marie Bernasconi and Elmer Mercado; and IBC Headliners with Precious Hipolito-Castelo, Grace Choa, Neil Edward Santos III and Manuel Llige.

The announcement may not have been earthshaking but we could see how pleased Boots was during the presscon. Ratings wise, she says, IBC-13 is now a strong No. 3, thanks primarily to the PBA games and the Viva programs. She hopes that the station-produced shows will eventually contribute to an even higher station rating.

Boots told us that for the first time, the network registered a net profit of P 37 million as of June this year. The network has been able to remit some P 58 million to the BIR for back taxes and another P28 million to its employees for back wages.

Boots explained the creative way in which the network has been able to settle these accounts. One way was to use exchange deals with suppliers so that employees can get appliances instead of cash.

The station's transmitter has also been repaired and the main studio has been fixed. Slowly, she says IBC-13 is showing positive results, so that when it is finally privatized, the network will get an attractive price. That, in the final analysis, is what Boots is aiming for, to make IBC-13 a sellable network in the future.

In the meantime, she's been telling her employees to perform well. When the new owners take over, she says many of them may just land with the new management; if they don't have good records, they may not stand a chance of being hired.

We admire Boots' management style, one in which her fellow workers are given importance. During the presscon, she took the trouble of thanking the managers who have helped her in making IBC-13 a much improved station.

IBC-13: The No.3 Network in 2000 Edit

IBC Express Balita marks 13th Annyversary

MANILA, Philippines - IBC News and Public Affairs marks the 13th anniversary of the longest-running flagship news program, Express Balita. "We would like to remind everybody, our friends and those who continue to support us from the start that it is been a year already", said Zyrene Parsad-Valencia, a news and public affairs head of News Team 13. "We started out with a vision for IBC News and Public Affairs and Express Balita meant to emphasize the network's major trust, which news, IBC producers, reporters and writers have also undergone strict and rigorous training workshop on revolutionary news delivery from IBC News Center in Broadcast City.

President Benigno Noynoy Aquino III heads the list of special guests, including former Presidents Joseph Estradaand Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo, who will grace the reception to be held at the IBC News Studios at Broadcast City in Diliman, Quezon City. Other guest include Vice-President Jejomar Binay and Senator Loren Legarda who return to broadcast journalists along with the other senators, congressmen, cabinet members, Metro Manila Mayors and other repsentaties of government and the business community.

In a daring move a year ago, IBC-13 broke away from convention and its longest-running afternoon flagship news program at 4:30 p.m. and remains for 30 minutes entire staff and production team. "The initial reactions were mixed," recalled news desk officer Nick Mendoza. "There were those who said it was too risky and those who said it was well worth the risk. The convincing reason was for IBC-13 to address an audience who found the longest-running afternoon newscast. Express Balita's afternoon timeslot at 4:30 p.m." continued Mendoza. Express Balita, the longest-running flagship news program on Philippine Television, has for news anchors and newscasters by actress personality and female broadcast journalists Snooky Serna and Ricardo Cepeda. Included in the roster of one segment host and field reporters then are Jess Caduco, Jeffrey Zaide, Pia Castro, news reporter Jake Morales, Dennis Cortes, Greg Gregorio for sports correspondent, Ralf Rivas, Jinky Baticados and Krenn Jolongbayan for entertainment correspondent. Serna is working as the TV presenter. Alongside Express Balita, IBC-13 is re-launching its late-night newscast Ronda Trese now with new anchors veteran broadcasters Jess Caduco and TV host and former commercial model Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba on weeknights at 11 p.m. starting last June 20, 2011. The new reporters were include Nalla Aguas, Kim Cardenas, Lalaine Tiangco, Minette Panganiban, Czarinah Lusuegro, Kathleen Forbes and Hajji Kaamino for the news reporters, Chin-Chin Gutierrez for exclusive reporters handling called Balita Atbp. and Jeff Arcilla as the weatherman called Ulat Panahon while Georgina Wilson as the star for entertainment news segment called Showbiz Balita.

News reports are handled by field reporters Cristina Tanio covering the provincial news, Charina Carlos covering the foreign news, Dave Abuel the police reports, Dave Llavanes Jr., Merwin Llanza and Darwin Amojelar.

"The feedback we've been getting has been very encouraging, which is reason enough for us to celebrate," saidValencia. "But Express Balita continues to evolve and there's always room for greater improvement. What we've proven the 13th year is that could be done. Now we will continue making Express Balita even better."

Express Balita now top afternoon viewership nationwide

December 25, 2012

Even through the 6:30pm timeslot from TV Patrol and 24 Oras, last Monday (6:30pm), the flagship news program Express Balita continued its reign as the No.1 program nationwide on primetime, celebrating 14th anniversary we all know is controlled by the government for the day's top stories.

More credible to the viewers behind the program should not forget the basic tenets of journalism in reporting - balance and fairness. IBC's flagship news program Express Balita has recently proven its strong primetime slot with its astonishing ratings win by scoring a national TV rating of 23.6% last Monday (January 14), beating the national TV ratings rival ABS-CBN's TV Patrol with (23.8%) and GMA's 24 Oras (15.0%), respectively based on the data fromKantar Media survey.

It is anchored by Henry Omaga-Diaz and Snooky Serna-Go continue to delivering the news will watching while surely waiting for their favorite primeime shows on IBC's PrimeTastik block. Reporters rarely go out of town now-a-days due to the lack of funds and are merely confined to cover news in Metro Manila as aggressive team to cover the polls in the most-comprehensive investigate hot news inside and outside the country. Snooky Serna continues to hosting on IBC-13 through her public service program Snooky. The reportorial teams are tasked to gather news from equal number of maintains a 24/7 shift of news reporters, cameramen and drivers are tasked to cover every major beat in the Greater Manila Area as well as nearby provinces from new writers and live reports in contrast to the OB Vans and ENG Vans used by its competitors.

number has dwindled over the years due to the lack of funding and necessary equipment to make it a credible and competitive news program. More people trust the newscast because of its Lingkod Kapinoy segment wherein public service operating under the IBC Foundation, Inc. led by female broadcast journalists Ms. Serna extends a helping hand to those in need.

Adding to its misery is the morale currently being by its reportorial teams to its production staff its mother station their field reporters more such as allowing them to give a live coverage of the latest news rather than just hearing their voices on a taped report to make them more competitive and teleprompter to read the latest headlines.

The anchor in this police segment in Presinto 13. Also features the most advanced weather graphics system powered by Weather Central, the world's leading provider of weather graphics, via Ulat Panahon segment anchored by Jeff Arcilla. Serna was a last resurfaced on ABS-CBN soap operas of show business as new career while Snooky become IBC's newscaster while projecting a new image, more corporate - looking this time.

As Serna, so Kapinoy network with an invigorated News and Public Affairs while Snooky will hosting a public service program Snooky which airs on Friday nights. Noli Eala has been in the news anchor and through networks for years. Eala has been the news anchors of IBC Balita Ngayon in 1998 and Express Balita since 2001.

Many of the reporters report live from the IBC Newsroom while surely waiting for favorite primeime shows on IBC's PrimeTastik block on IBC-13. Also part of the spruce-up is extending the airtime of Express Balita from 30 minutes to a full hour, thanks to Maria Ressa as IBC-13's officer in charge for news.

Snooky said, alongside Express Balita, IBC is re-launching its new comprhensive late-night news: Ronda Trese now with new anchors Czarinah Lusuegro and Jess Caduco on weeknights at 11:30 pm.

A credible broadcast journalist Jess Caduco, who is the field reporter, is now one of the most refreshing faces in Philippine television as independent journalism of news strutting, prompt, realistic, no objectivity, goodness fears. Gaining solid experience through the networks, he made as one of the best live reporters on field while Czarinah Lusuegro will continue to anchors and reporter the female homegrown news anchor.

Promising a strong competition, IBC has just acquired new stateofthe art cameras that utilize discs instead of tapes, non-linear editing facilities, and a centralized server-based technology for its new programs with a sequestered TV station. Aside from this, they also have satellite news gathering terminals with flyaways to be used in covering live events in Metro Manila and remote areas, in addition to IBC's OB vans and ENG vans that use microwave links to transmit audio and video. The privatization of the network, IBC 13 is being run from a private corporation. The money to buy OB vans which would help improve the station's news coverage. Despite being reinvigorating "productive" and full of children's programs for kids such as flagship kiddie show like KapinoyLand, Barney and Friends, Y2K: Yes to Kids, Bear in a Big Blue House, Sesame Street, now remained the undisputed number 3 TV station in the Philippines due to the Kapinoy branding will having a homegrown primetime block of Viva Entertainment as Viva-TV, noontime show Lunch Break, educational program Cooltura, lifestyle tele-magazine show Chinatown TV and flagship news programs Express Balita and Ronda Trese, together with Good Take, Linawin Natin, Nora Mismo, Angara ng Bayan, Pulsong Pinoy and Snooky possibly the remaining Kapinoy shows. IBC debuted in 1961 and had given rise to many hit shows in the '70s and the '80s is known programs as the number 1 sequestered government-TV station such as the popularity comedy programs like Chicks to Chicks, Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Sic O 'Clock News, CUTE: Call Us Two For Entertainment, showbiz-oriented talk show Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino and See-True, Ora Engkantada, Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, horror series Pinoy TV Komiks, game show Lucky 13, Ula, Ang Batang Gubat, Kulit Bulilit, tokusatsu and anime series like Bioman, Maskman, Shaider, Daimos, Voltes V, Transformers and G.I. Proven amount of viewers since the time of grandparents to the masses that IBC is one of the TV

In 2013, IBC's new management wanted to improve their broadcasts by airing some of its classic programs as IBC Classics, aside to the Viva-TV block, flagship children's programming like KapinoyLand, Barney and Friends, Sesame Street, Y2K Yes to Kids, Cabbage Patch Kids and Bear in a Big Blue House, a daily noontime showLunch Break, magazine show Cooltura and flagship news program Express Balita and Ronda Trese, together with Good Take, Linawin Natin, Snooky, Nora Mismo, Pulsong Pinoy and Angara ng Bayan. Bringing IBC to be aViva-TV primetime block on free TV.

We are repositioning Viva-TV primetime on IBC-13 to a primetime block filled with movies, cartoons, anime, dramas, comedy, reality, game shows, telenovelas, asianovelas and sports.

53 Years of Broadcasting Edit

February 3, 2013

ABS-CBN and GMA Network, Inc. claim respectively they are number one in Mega Manila and nationwide viewership ratings. They both showcased mass-oriented TV shows, reality shows, teleserye and others.

Sequestered TV station IBC has a dashing new look these days and competition must be taking a strong. Despite being saddled with equipment that have seen better days, IBC bigwigs are determined to wrestle back its glory days, even part of it. They seem to be succeeding, if some new program offerings are to be the masses. Almost overnight, the station that bred and brought to Filipino homes such TV landmarks as rise to many hit shows in the '70s and the '80s is known programs as the number 1 sequestered government-TV station such as the popularity shows like Chicks to Chicks, Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Sic O 'Clock News, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, See-True, Johnny Weismuller as Tarsan, Lucky 13, Ula, Ang Batang Gubat, Kulit Bulilit and tokusatsu and anime like Bioman,Maskman, Shaider, Diamos and Battle Ball, metamorphosed into a threat to the network giants. IBC is now the Kapinoy network for the No.3 network and the new monicker is introduced with new IBC jingle. The Viva Group of Company is behind much of the new format we hear.

IBC-13 will not be sold because its still up for privatized, after all would even dare give up a TV network. Even stories of privatization will refloat, within the station to resurface the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away since IBC now recieves the KBP Golden Dove Awards and PMPC Star Awards for the Best TV Station earning awards in their respective categories as well as all on-air promos, radio, print and outdoor advertising efforts of IBC 13.

Viva-TV's new programs on IBC are anticipating, hopefully and homegrown developing loyalty for the home to the popularly of basketball tournaments like the NBA and PBA games. Indulged with a challenge the competitors' soap operas and fantasy series for the primetime teleserye like Cristine Reyes' Esperanza and actor AJ Muhlach and child star Xyriel Manabat's 5 Girls and Daddy, a teen drama anthology series Anja Aguilar's Dear Heart and a new telenovela Rosalinda starring Thalia and Fernando Carrillo. There comedy is Petra's Panniest with Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak which have yet to funny clips of monitor, new koreanovela like My Daughter the Flower top-billed by Jin Se-yeon Jo Min-su, the top-rating phenomenal game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? with Christopher de Leon and The Weakest Link with Richard Yap which now have the million peso-prize and a new popular talent search Born to be a Star hosted by a certified singing champion Anja Aguilar. For a singing contest, will perform auditioned singers will having the overall performance of its stars of superstars to becoming the next singing idol fans when a finalists from the weekly winner brings home P1 million. As the show revs up, we hope it will find its bearings participated by young students like the singing stars.

We are particularly keen on Rainbow S.r.I to producing Winx Club. It embark on a mission to achieve Sirenix, a water based transformation that is strong and powerful enough to defeat the evil Tritannus and the Trix. There are two new evolutionary fairy transformations in this season: Harmonix and Sirenix that even Indonesia may have overtaken us in the children's TV genre as characters Stella, Aisha, Musa, Tecna, Flora and Bloom. When the local networks were buying from Mexico, Columbia, Taiwan, Japan, Indonesia, India and Korea, we least expected that one day we would be importing TV programs from Italian. Winx Club is an Italian animated TV series directed, created, and produced by Iginio Straffi about action and fantasy show combined with comedic elements. In the mystical dimension of Magix, three special schools educate modern fairies, ambitious witches and supernatural warriors, and wizards from all over the magical universe from Alfea school, in the face of established programs on the other networks, Winx Club has been the number one spot on weekdays such a phenomenal success, it set a programming trend that resulted in our competitors doing against the teleserye in a gained ratings because of their most watched TV show. They adapt each other's TV shows to see which will gain more viewership ratings.

The Book of Sirenix gave them Sirenix Boxes and much stronger Harmonix powers. Before they achieve Sirenix, they must find the Gem of Self-Confidence, Gem of Empathy, and the Gem of Courage. Unfortunately, there is a dark and evil curse upon Sirenix that left Bloom's older sister, Daphne, a disembodied spirit without a physical body when she had used its tremendous power to defend herself. Daphne was the last fairy to achieve Sirenix's ocean/sea-based transformation and enormous power until the Club gain full access to Sirenix and cross the gate into the infinite ocean itself. Finally, the Winx gain Sirenix after activating the source of the power in Roccaluce where Daphne lives due to her connection to Sirenix. Unfortunately, the Trix gain dark Sirenix with the help of Tritannus and plan to defeat the Winx Club.

The Kapinoy network and Viva have a blocktimer partnership by providing viewers, chiefly kids just home from school or the playground, a refreshing innovative to early primetime, the kitsch and sugar of telenovelas and sensationalism of newscasts. Catch the animated series, dubbed in Filipino, weeknight at 6:00pm.

January 25, 2014

The computer-generated 3D model of the IBC Broadcast Center at Broadcast City in Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, Philippines.

Today is the first working day for IBC News employees in its new headquarters in Diliman, Quezon City. The IBC Board of Directors and other top executives and broadcast journalists of the state-run broadcasting network. It housed in six-storey building with elevators and amenities and common areas and will have modern studios and offices that will meet the corporate and technical programming requirements of both government controlled networks IBC 13 and RPN 9, which also operates in Broadcast City project will have a total floor area of same time develop the 4.1-hectare Broadcast City in 55,000 square meters corner property in Broadcast City and will feature IBC 13 operations with corporate office, television production space, and cutting-edge broadcast facilities for the IBC building, which houses RPN 9 and IBC 13 were sequestered and the transmitter tower in Coca Cola plant, San Francisco Del Monte, Quezon City into a mixed-use commercial and residential complex.

With the agreement it is expected that IBC will be a broadcast station that has outdated and dilapidated structures and antiquated facilities into a modern and competitive broadcasting entity that could rival the giant Philippine television networks to help it modernize its programming and technical facilities to make it more viable and also to address its burgeoning P650 million obligation to its employees and creditors.

Kapinoy viewers will be greeted with a new state-of-the-art studio, a much bigger newsroom at Studio 2 and fancy workstation for its employees, similar to ABS-CBN news room, as one tipster told us. Based on the photos taken by IBC newsers, the new Broadcast Center looks more contemporary and modernized as compared to ABS-CBN Broadcast Center and GMA Network Center will further establish IBC as a competitive organization taking a more aggressive role in the international entertainment market.

IBC is relaunched as The Superstar Network via the TV specials like Homecoming Kapinoy: Ang Pagbabalik ng Bituin, as it calls back all the stars and personalities working in other various media networks to relaunch of IBC as the Kapinoy station in the landscape. IBC International, IBC News Network (INN) and IBC Records will be among the companies to occupy the new building.

Construction of the IBC Broadcast Center began on 2010 to complete. The new edifice is built as part of IBC-13's ongoing efforts to update existing technologies and facilities for a seamless transition to digital broadcasting. In addition, proximity to the center of Metro Manila and its highly elevated location should yield a much-improved broadcast signal with still up for privatization that The Kapinoy Network is ready to take on more challenges as it faces a competitive and globally-oriented future.

With the IBC Broadcast Center, IBC becomes the third major broadcast network to operate in Diliman, Quezon City. ABS-CBN and GMA currently operate at Diliman, Quezon City and Reliance, while RPN currently operate at the Broadcast City in Diliman and PTV operated at Visayas Avenue.

The opening of the IBC Broadcast Center should give a huge boost for the Kainoy network, as it continues to find its mass market in common innovative programming.

TV Patrol and 24 Oras challenge to Express Balita's supremacy

March 19, 2014

Since in 1998, launching the news program Express Balita revolutionized the TV newscast in the afternoon slot at 4:30 p.m. And now last October 2012, Express Balita lorded over competing programs for the counter-programming rivals of the newscasts TV Patrol and 24 Oras in its time slot at which the newscast's leadership position in the evening block. On an average day, it captured 25 percent of TV viewers, higher there was a big news story. It anchored IBC's primetime ratings with the bulk of The Kapinoy Network's primetime audience comprised of viewers of the news program.

Express Balita faced the biggest threat to its supremacy as the following factors into play: Predictability brought about by many sponsored segments. With high ratings, advertisers lined up to buy commercial spots and public service announcements. Express Balita's major segments were fully sponsored. These commitments, the producers were contract-bound to produce and air contents associated with a sponsored segments even as the situation called for news item.

IBC Research and Business Analysis providing top management with a regular monitoring and analysis of the shifts in audience preferences and of the week on week viewership of various programs. In various memos and personal briefings we pointed out the threat faced by our early evening slot. We also discussed extensively the development in various management and programming meetings. As head of research had very long discussions and strategy sessions with the chairman Eric Canoy.

Counter programming of TV Patrol and 24 Oras gained traction.

Express Balita ranked the number 1 for the most-watched primetime newscast on its evening timeslot against the rival evening newscasts TV Patrol and 24 Oras in terms of toppled ratings supremacy.

Such primetime seryes like Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love caught the Philippine TV industry in those of the entertainment programs after the newscast. IBC-13 cashed in on the program overloaded the program with commercial spots. The total running time of commercial spots within the innovative program content. Fortunately for the Kapinoy Network, the counter programming strategy worked. We had the soap operas in our inventory of the two giant networks can offer viewers. IBC Entertament TV production started producing a three 30-minute primetime soap opras and fantasy series Janella in Wondrland, Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love as well as La Madrastra and My Love Patzzi. Express Balita retained its leadership behind TV Patrol and 24 Oras, with certainty that it anchored IbC's primetime block PrimeTastik.

The TV landscape has already changed. Daily series has become a new feature of early evening programming. A typical weekday evening primetime programming would have three distinct blocks: an early evening newscast; the once a week program and the PBA games on Wednesdays and Fridays; more daily dramas, fantasy series, telenovelas and asianovelas.

Express Balita wons the TV ratings

April 5, 2014

Express Balita aired Monday to Friday from 6:30PM to 7:30PM, which greatly affect TV Patrol and 24 Oras, primetime news programs of ABS-CBN and GMA-7, respectively. Based on the Kantar Media/TNS Phlippines ratings, Express Balita, IBC's primetime hour-long news program wons recently the winning TV ratings garnered 31.8% ratings over the dominance of TV Patrol achived a rating of 26.7% and 24 Oras with only 14.3%.

Rocking the boat of its rivals

When Expess Balita graced the primetime slot on IBC opposite the news programs, its rivals beaten the shift in a seemingly new direction makes a formidable threat to its rival programs. Some sources close to ABS-CBN and GMA insiders said that both networks are preparing to change their primetime schedules.

With the show's entry in primetime, the battle for supremacy will involve not only two but three networks - ABS-CBN Kapamilya, GMA Kapuso and IBC Kapinoy as well as RPN Kasama and TV5 Kapatid.

The ability of news anchors Henry Omaga-Diaz and Snooky Serna-Go to win over televiewers is dominated as news programs on both ABS-CBN and GMA began implementing changes in their respective programs. An article on Manila Bulletin points out that according to report dated om April 5. The newscast has also brought up the issue of how the change is affecting the status of popular news anchors on the rival networks will make the latter a key player in the ratings war.

It has created a distinctive change in the primetime viewing habits of the people in the tandem of Omaga-Diaz and Serna-Go and affected ABS-CBN's TV Patrol (Noli de Castro, Korina Sanchez and Ted Falon) and GMA's 24 Oras(Mel Tiangc and Mike Enriquez).

Meanwhile, the revamped of the network's primetime block PrimeTastik with a soap operas and fantasy series dominated by other networks: thr Taiwanovela hit Love You (5:45PM), hottest mermaid fantasy drama series Janella in Wonderland (7:30PM), a soap hit primetime drama series Your Heart, My Love (9:30PM), romantic dramedy Crazy Little Thing Called Love (10:00PM), a hit telenovela La Madrastra (10:30PM) and the Koreanovela fans My Love Patzzi (11:00PM).

PTV-4 to turn commercial

September 4th, 2012

State-owned People's Television 4 (PTV-4) is going commercial after President Benigno Aquino has endorsed its bid to join the competition for broadcast ads is now using the new computer animation graphics for known as the branding Ka-Telebisyon ng Bayan network. Communications Secretary Herminio Coloma Jr. said Monday that allowing PTV-4 to compete for ads was one of two major changes that the President wanted made in the proposed amendments to the network's charter, Republic Act No. 7306.

The other change is the infusion of P5 billion in new capital into PTV-4. The amount will come from the proceeds of the sale of two sequestered stations—Radio Philippines Network (RPN) Channel 9 and Inter-Continental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC) Channel 13 which is now become the number 3 network —and funds raised from spectrum management fees collected by the National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) from the broadcasting and telecommunications industry.

"The President's vision is to transform PTV's image from a propaganda machine in the past administration to a public service station which provides meaningful and balanced news to the public in the mold of the BBC (British Broadcasting Corpporation)," Coloma said in a phone interview with the Philippine Daily Inquirer.

Coloma said there was a need for Congress to amend RA 7306, which prohibits PTV-4 from getting ads and limits its financing to state funds will now using the computer graphics. "This provision, while aimed at ensuring that PTV will not actively compete with commercial networks, proved to be detrimental as the network failed to sustain the viability of its operations while being allowed to earn only institutional revenues from government entities like Pagcor (Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corp.) and PCSO (Philippine Charity Sweepstakes Office)," Coloma said.

He said the lack of commercial earnings had depleted PTV-4's P1 billion capitalization, requiring fresh investment from the government will now set to computer graphics to give its viewers a balanced mix of news and public affairs, public service, educational, cultural and sports programs and also has international subsidiaries (PTV America, PTV World and PTV Middle East).

The Cabinet's economic development cluster will complete within the year the privatization schedule for RPN 9 and IBC 13 now a number 3 network, while both the House and the Senate have already discussed the bills that would amend PTV-4's charter at the committee level programs can be watched internationally via the Glocal Media Network, Dish Network, Rogers Cable and IPQube, DTH provider and IPTV.

Coloma said PTV-4 would use its fresh capital to buy new equipment, improve its broadcast signals, and reformat its programming to at least 60 percent for news and public affairs programs, 40 percent for socially relevant entertainment, including educational, historical and and cultural programs and 50 percent for children's programming. Unlike other major television channels in the Philippines that air commercial shows and primetime tv series, PTV is more into informing the people rather than airing mainstream shows and entertainment.

On Monday, PTV-4 launched Panahon.TV, a 24-hour weather program that Coloma said would provide the public weather information in plain language.

Panahon.TV is the idea of Coloma and Lina Group of Companies chair Alberto Lina. Coloma said it was their response to the public clamor for weather information they could understand. Donna Flavier, Panahon.TV executive producer and UBE Media Inc. representative, said the weather program was the result of six months of conceptualization and meetings with PTV-4 officials.

"This is our response to President Aquino's order for the public to be given accurate and clear information on the weather," Flavier said.

The first telecast of the program is scheduled for September 10, from 5 a.m. to 5:30 a.m. The program will air from Monday through Friday, with hourly updates from the Philippine Atmospheric Geophysical and Astronomical Services Administration (Pagasa) airing on a special segment.

The program will have four regular segments: Laging Handa (Always Prepared), for tips and reminders in times of crisis and natural calamities; Tamang Oras (Right Time), for trivia and facts about the right time or season for activities; Napapanahong Kaalaman (Timely Information), for basic terminologies in weather forecasting; and Sigla(Health), for tips and information on how weather can affect health.

From IBC News Tonight to Ronda Trese as the late-night newscast

July 3, 2012

Significant moves have been made by the network to conform to its shift in marketing strategies with sequestered TV station IBC-13 for the No.3 with the dominance of giant networks GMA and ABS-CBN, according to the AGB-Nielsen Media Research. Their new Viva-TV programming on IBC become more aggressive boosted in the surging ahead in the ratings for the TV stars. Under the new management of chairman Eric Canoy along with president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, sales and marketing Tessie Taylor and vice president Lito Ocampo Cruz and had the president Noynoy Aquino administration, thanks to the new IBC charaters are mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ.

The noontime slots are just waiting to be filled up in July 1999, with the noontime show Alas Dose sa Trese, hosted by Eddie Ilarde (of Student Canteen fame) and Boots Anson Roa, president of the network along with Ernani "Jong" Cuenco, Chiqui Roa-Puno, Paco Arespacochaga and Pia Pilapil, to compete with rivals GMA's Eat Bulaga! and ABS-CBN's Magandang Tanghali Bayan. Now, occupied by the noontime slots of the educational program Cooltura with Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba, the public service program Nora Mismo with superstar Ms. Nora Aunor and noontime show Lunch Break with Ryan Agoncillo and Joy Viado along with Nicole Anderson, Smokey Manaloto, Bianca Manalo and Enrique Gil. Meanwhile, among the new shows in 2000 that the network has launched is dance show DMZ-TV with host Lara Fabregas and Medwin Marfil along with Rengie Galvez, JC Castro and Tone Wijangco (now with new host Julia Montes and Enrique Gil airs on Sundays to compete with ASAP 2012 and Party Pilipinas), talk show Last Fool Show (now on last episode on June 23, 2012) with host comedian Jun Urbano, Gary Lising and Giselle Sanchez and children show Y2K: Yes to Kids with host Maxene Magalona. With the mass market as its target audience, such a program with new Viva-TV like May Bukas Pa, H2K: Hati-Hating

Kapatid, Gags Must Be Crazy, Kagat ng Dilim,Subic Bay, Fastbreak and film programs are Viva Proudly Presents, Now Showing, Viva Premiere Night (now merged as Viva Box Office) and Sinemaks along with anime Akazukin Cha Cha and sports are Milo Sporting World, NBA, PBA, Super Bouts, World Pool Championship and PBA Moments.

But perhaps the most telling way with which the network is pursuing its strategies is the manner by which they have altered the delivery of the news with IBC News and Public Affairs. With the news head Zyrene Parsad-Valencia and new public affairs director Mayet Camacho.

Since 1997, IBC News had always delivered daily news broadcasts and hourly news updates in both Filipino and English. In fact, the network's late-night news broadcasts popularly with the most comprehensive news program on Philippine Television called CTN Midnite, with Caren Barhon and Anne Marie Soriano at 4:30pm and Bernadette Sembrano and Amelyn Veloso, as the news anchor airs at 12:00mn, got all the bases covered with all major stories and late breaking news delivered firsthand.

But in summer 1998, IBC has delivered their new flagship news program Express Balita, anchored by Ida Miranda Castro and Anne Marie Soriano which airs at 4:30 pm (in the history is anchor Noli Eala, Adrian Ayalin, Precious Hipolito-Castelo, Errol Dacame, Ali Atienza, Bing Fermando, Jake Morales and Karen Padilla) and IBC Balita Ngayon with Alice Noel, Manuel Llige and Noli Eala which is airs at 11:30 pm insted of midnight slots. It is the two of flagship news program which airs right before and after the VTV block to provide the sports news with Vintage Sports.

In August 2000 during the Homecoming sa Trese, introduced the late-night newscasts Ronda Trese with anchor Ida Miranda Castro and Elmer Mercado airs at 11:00 pm, right after the Viva-TV block. But in 2002, it was another late-night IBC News Tonight with anchors Anthony Pangilinan in 2002, Noli Eala in 2003, Dennis Principe in 2004, Gina Dela Vega-Cruz in 2006, Joee Guilas in 2007 with segment host of Rida Reyes and Thea Gavino, and Atty. Zorah Andam in 2009.

Now, in an era when news reports are mainly delivered in Filipino as the news orginization IBC News and Public Affairs, IBC news programs are definitely an anachronism. People expected the flagship Express Balita in afternoon slot is answer to 24 Oras and TV Patrol in primetime slot. As the longest-running flagship news program Express Balita with new anchors Snooky Serna and Ricardo Cepeda now airs at 6:30 pm with simulcast on UHF news channel IBC News Network, with the day's top stories (Ulo ng mga Balita), politics, malacanang, police report (Presinto 13), feature stories (Balita Atbp. reported by Chin-Chin Gutierrez), global news (Globalita), regional news (Balitang Promdi), CCTV reports (Ulat CCTV), public service (Lingkod Kapinoy with Snooky Serna) for IBC Foundation, citizen journalism (I-Balita Ako), weather forecast (Ulat Panahon with forecaster Jeff Arcilla), sports news (Sports Page) and showbiz news (Showbiz Balita with Georgian Wilson).

Last 2011, the news programs are the comprehensive journalism, with the new Ronda Trese being the heir to IBC News Tonight. The late-night newscast is now with new anchors veteran broadcasters Jess Caduco, Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba and new reporter Ralf Rivas now airs at 11:30 pm with simulcast also on IBC News Networkand would compete with the late-night news programs of ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

With new segments of top stories (Pangunahing Balita), police reports (Presinto 13), business and economy news (Malayang Kalakalan), opinion for daily segment (Pulsong Pinoy reported by Zyrene Parsad-Valencia), malacanang, citizen journalism (I-Balita Ako), peso-dollar exchange, CCTV reports (Huli ng CCTV), weather report (Daloy ng Panahon) and sports news (Palaro Hotline). People expected the late-night newscast Ronda Trese to belBC-13's answer to Saksi and Bandila, both talents of the rival networks to anchor the broadcast. Currently, network executives are developing other news and public affairs programs. A popular television and radio anchor will be launching his own show on Channel 13. They are also talking with the host of similar programs news and public affairs programs, some of whom are considering transferring to IBC-13.

IBC-13 celebration in 52 this 2012

IBC-13 on tapping Kapamilya and Kapuso talents: "It's a win-win situation"

October 12, 2012

A 52 year after overhauling its image and station name, the sequestered TV station IBC-13 branding Kapinoyrises to alter the Pinoy's viewing habits, as proven by the network's strong showing in the Manila ratings survey.

Breaking the duopoly of the two giant TV networks in the country, IBC-13 really did a good job since its relaunch (or reformatting) last last 4-months. Though already using their new branding Kapinoy Network, the corporate name remained sequestered network Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC).

IBC-13's president and CEO Boots Anson-Toa, believes that the practice of outsourcing talents from other networks benefits all parties involved. The war behind ABS-CBN Channel
2 and GMA Channel 7 over the coverage of the impeachment trial was settled yesterday when

Renato Corona decided to allow the two stations to cover the event along with the sequestered IBC Channel 13.

He expressed this assumption following confirmed reports that the country's two giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7, are starting to feel skeptical with the setup brought about largely by IBC-13's rise in the ratings contest, particularly in the Mega Manila bracket as the Kapinoy network.

In fact, Viva-TV's PrimeTastik primetime lineup on IBC every weeknights has been a force twith for the past four months. Christopher de Leon's Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? and Edu Manzano's The Weakest Link is consistently topping its timeslot and figuring prominently in the overall ratings game. It has already reached the top spot this month as well as the basketball league Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) games, which as of late has shaken up the ratings survey in the Mega Manila area making the big leap to the top spot last September 30 with a rating of 25.8 percent.

The No.1 phenomenal fairy-serye Winx Club, and new soap-opera teleserye Cristine Reyes' Esperanza and AJ Muhlach's 5 Girls and Daddy are also consistently entering the Top 30 primetime programs.

Vic del Rosario, who met the entertainment reporters in a press conference conducted earlier today, October 12, at the Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City likewise revealed IBC-13's plan of developing its own set of talents in the near future to fully represent the network's overhauled image.

In the meantime, that prospect would have to wait in order to accommodate the network's marketing strategy along with its corresponding timetable. When IBC-13 made the transition from its new station ID, last 4-months, expectations were high yet greatly conservative. With the shadows of the country's two giant networks looming largely over the newly overhauled network, the prospect of shattering the longstanding "duopoly" looked remote.

"At this point in time, naka-focus lang po ang aming attention sa mga programa muna," said the TV executive. "Then once we start getting some winners and bankable stars na identified with 13, automatic, parang that plan will commence." But the people behind the network were dead serious when they coined the slogan, Pinoy ang Dating.IBC-13 continued targeting the market and viewers who were tired of the usual boobtube fare offered by the more established networks.

The tie up consequently allowed the network to beef up its programming, which consequently boosted its chances to compete against GMA-7 and ABS-CBN. While the newly dressed network's target of shaking up the Pinoy's viewing habits was noble, some industry insiders raised eyebrows on its feasibility.

The network's new identity, coupled with aggressive promotion and interesting programs, immediately made an impression among viewers right on its first month of reinvention. But finding the right formula to success did not happen overnight as hits and misses shaped the network's journey in realizing its objective.

As for IBC-13's success, Boots Anson readily acknowledged that the "open field" policy of the network when it comes to stars and talents helped tremendously in bolstering the network's appeal to the masses.

IBC-13 Relaunches New Media Platforms

October 7, 2012

Speaking at the relaunched for sequestered IBC-13's new media and digital publishing properties called IBC Interactive, president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa share of all IBC-13 platforms parallel with the direction. "One of how diffrent mediums like TV, mobile, radio and print interact with one another which results in a richer experience for our users and our advertisers" We specialize in bringing a single message through the integrated platforms of television, web, and SMS resulting to an innovative marketing tool that is fun for consumers as IBC-13 become more aggressive recently.

"The lines of TV, radio, print, online and mobile are not only blurring, but also disappearing completely. The challenge for networks today is to embrace that change and to create content that seamlessly flows from one platform to the other which opens up a completely new way of teeling stories," Anson-Roa continued. The IBC chairman Eric Canoy gave a speech as did ABS-CBN Corp. chairman Eugenio Lopez III, GMA Network Inc. chairman Felipe Gozon. Boots said IBC could become not only a media content provider, but also more of a dynamic digital leader.

Coloma's office, by virtue of Executive Order No. 4, oversees RPN-9, along with IBC-13 and PTV-4 and other government-owned or donor controlled media assets. Both RPN-9 and IBC-13 were among the assets that the government of former President Corazon Aquino sequestered after the Marcos dictatorship years. The government, however, only has a minority 20% stake in RPN-9 following a previous court ruling, Coloma said. He added that his office was informed by RPN management that it already issued letters or notices of retrenchment to some 200 employees of the network. The retrenchment program starts October 1 and will take effect in November.

Disgruntled PTV-4, IBC-13 workers join Sona rally

4:06 pm | Tuesday, July 29th, 2014

MANILA, Philippines – In 2011, President Benigno Aquino III vowed to improve and modernize the People's Television (PTV) Network so it won't "lag behind."

Four years later, the PTV Employees Association (PTEA) claim that not much has changed and that the situation has even worsened. PTV-4 (People's Television Network), Radio Philippines Network (RPN-9) and Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC-13) workers were among the people who joined the protests during Aquino's fifth State of the Nation Address (Sona) last Monday.

"Sa tagal ng matiyagang paghihintay ng mga PTV employees, naranasan ng mga empleyado ang kapabayaan, panlalait at pagnanakaw ng mga PCOO (Presidential Communications Operations Office) 'appointed people' sa PTV Network. Ang mga benepisyo at pondong dapat sana ay sa PTV employees ay lantarang kinukurakot ng mga tao ni Secretary (Herminio) Coloma," a joint statement said.

(Amid the long and patient wait of PTV employees, they were neglected, humiliated and stolen from by PCOO's 'appointed people' in the PTV Network. The benefits and funds that should have gone to PTV employees were openly stolen by the Secretary Coloma's people.)

But Coloma said the accusations were "unfounded and baseless." "Since we took over PTV, RPN and IBC management, we dealt with financial bankruptcy and good housekeeping rules," he told INQUIRER.net

On the other hand, PTEA said PTV's performance has been on a decline amid the appointment of additional people from the PCOO, which is headed by Coloma.

INQUIRER.net earlier reported on PTEA's accusations that the PCOO has allegedly been accommodating people by assigning them as PTV consultants or contractuals.

PTEA said the number of contract of service (COS) employees ballooned during the Aquino administration. It said PTV now has 279 regular employees and 278 COS workers and talents.

PTEA Vice President Angie Arguelles then told INQUIRER.net that the PCOO also violated the law by letting consultants head departments. But Coloma said they did not violate any law and that the contractual employees were "essential to network operations."

DAP funds

Earlier this month, the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) released a list of the projects and programs funded by the Disbursement Acceleration Program (DAP), which was later declared partly unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

Of the P144 billion released, P342,536,605 went to the People's Television Network, Inc. (PTNI).

Coloma said the funds were allocated to address PTNI's financial bankruptcy and to pay for employees' salaries and operating expenses.

"Funds were authorized to be released to PTNI through PCOO to ensure that employees' salaries are paid on time and to keep the government television network running while the new law was going through the legislative process," Coloma said, referring to the then proposed version of Republic Act 10390, which aimed to infuse the government network with additional capital.

PTEA, however, said only a small portion of the DAP funds went to PTV.

It added that employees are still asking for a salary increase after eight years of stagnant wages.

It said the purchase of additional equipment should be complemented by the improved situation and welfare of the employees.

Arguelles said they want the DAP funds to be accounted for.

Documents obtained by the INQUIRER.net showed that of the P342 million in DAP funds allotted to the PTV through the PCOO, P73,004,351 or 21.3 percent went to personal services (PS), P52,605,884 went to maintenance and other operating expenses (MOOE) and P216,926,370 went to capital outlay.

A large portion of the MOOE went to "other professional service" (P20.56 million) while the capital outlay was allotted for the rehabilitation of facilities and purchase of equipment.

A breakdown of the amount showed that the PS was set to be utilized for only three months (October, November and December of 2012). The MOOE was spread out from October 2012 to March 2013 while the CO was scheduled for January and February 2013.

IBC privatization

The joint statement said IBC employees have also been complaining of appointed officials who allegedly use the network, but this time, IBC currently the number 3 station in the country.

It said many of the employees have yet to receive their benefits and that IBC workers can only hope for privatization to improve their situation. Coloma said the government has already "engaged DBP, as directed by the Governance Commission to oversee the IBC privatization."

IBC, now in its 54th year, is the country's third leading giant television and radio network in Asia. It has build a diverse, global business by putting kids, teens, family, friends and Filipino masses in everything it goes. The company includes radio and television simulcast programming and production in the Philippines and around the world, plus consumer products, online, recreation, books and feature films. IBC-13's television network is seen in more than 100 million households and has been the No.3 for 18 consecutive years. For fifty-four years after introducing television to the Philippines, IBC-13 remains poised the new ground in the field of broadcasting and to face the challenge of the new millennium.

Since the phenomenal success of its EDSA relaunched operations of the sequestered TV and radio station, your network has branched out into other industry-related endeavors. All the while fortifying its creative and technical expertise with cutting-edge technology.

It started on March 1, 1960 at 6:30 p.m. under Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation thru the trimedia conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by the late Andres Soriano.

The station also broadcasts in Cebu and Davao. On the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

From a relatively unknown TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience.

Thus, IBC 13 set a lot of firsts in the broadcasting industry. Showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13. Who could ever forget Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, T.O.D.A.S., See-True and a lot more? Back then, when one spoke of television of IBC 13.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation. New administrators meant new management.

IBC 13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past.

Now, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production within the quality local production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

As the leader in Philippine television broadcasting, IBHC Entertainment TV sustained its drive to capture the hearts of its audience through its innovative and multi-genre programming mix. IBC Entertainment TV leveraged on its strengths and boldly launched fresh programming concepts to sustain its hold on core audiences and at the same time nurturing key demographics for the future.

Original shows enthused the Filipino household's primetime viewing as they experience an ensemble of complementing breakthrough programs. Key to keeping the hold on core and in building future viewer audiences for the channel is the continuous introduction of invigorating program concepts.

Completing IBC Entertainment TV's extensive offerings are programs which not only kept core viewers and but also key target markets engrossed and engaged. That situation changed dramatically after 54 years. Blazin the trail for the Filipinization of television programming was the management headed by the chairman Eric Canoy, president and CEO Botos Anson-Roa, vice-chairman Freddie M. Garcia and executive vice-president (EVP) Lito Ocampo Cruz that was installed by the PNoy government in the sequestered IBC-13. Charged with protecting the assets of the station, the new management is surprised to discover that the station is a top money earner and in fact leading the other networks in terms of rating and remains #3.

It seemed that the reason for the station's high-rating is the local entertainment shows that IBC-13 is home to Viva Tagalog movies, station-produced local sitcoms, PBA, NBA and ONE FC. This type of programming, a new management built on the strength of the station towards the Filipinization of the network.

Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, a corporate slogan and tagline. It is a vision of what we have always wanted Philippine television to be: the home of local productions that are expressive of the Filipino heart and mind; the active mediator between the public and the significant issues and events of the day; the provider of entertainment and enlightenment; the imparter of Filipino social and cultural values. It defines the basic thrust of IBC-13's programming a strong bias for more local prouctions, a striving for balance of entertainment and public information, and the recognition of its social role without losing sight of the need to earn profits. Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 expresses IBC-13's corporate goal: for the Filipino audience to identify themselves with the station because it speaks of them and for them, because its shows are produced bu them, and because whatever is Filipino is to be found in The Kapinoy Network.

The Kapinoy Network opened its primetime to innovtive sitcoms, gag shows, political satire, fantasy drama series, soap operas, musical variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows. It also aired Filipino movies on primetime, and balanced this with documentaries.

IBC-13's all-Filipino programming compared to ABS-CBN and GMA with the track while RPN to reformat its own English and Filipino programming. Today, IBC-13 is also enmeshed in sequestration and ownership problems. ABS-CBN and GMA become the industry leaders with 100% of their shows in Filipino.

IBC-13 recently launched several trend-setting, top rating and awatd-winning programs for fantasy, drama and comedy such as Catch Me Fall in Love; Batang Genius depicted young kids' struggle as they discover their mission; Voltron Man, a new kind of action-packed superhero; Janella: A Princess Girl revealed a fairytale princess girl in a fanta-drama format appeal of young romance; Your Heart, My Love will impart of Filipino family values with a melodrama, romance and action for the whole family filled with anticipation for every episode of the engaging twists, sharp-witted dialogues and fast-paced developments by the star-studded ensemble cast; Sandy's Romance for the sexy girl, attracted female and male viewers with the love story in some lucky-sender; and Maya Love Sir Chief, a family sitcom that impart of Filipino family values. These popular shows bolstered Channel 13's line-up of viewer favorites like the three game shows The Million Second Quiz, Killer Karaoke imparted relaxed more fun and laughter for everyone with its sing-along musical entertainment game fare and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, the new season of the singing-reality show Born to be a Superstar featuring the national singing contest for the aspiring and younger talented superstars, a gag show for the boys night out Happy TODAS for the male audience with sexy lady and girl babes as IBC-13's #1 show of better execution, highly creative and flexible format; Sic O'Clock News Naman, a political satire for the national and international news using the format of a news program; Iskul Bukol Men which featured three chracters of a school of men under all kinds of boys; Shake, Rattle and Roll engaged with its horror-suspense elements; DMZ-TV, Last Fool Show, Seeing Stars Tonight and Dingdong n' Lani. And to satisfy the clamor for immediate airing of new seasons, these local primetime programs are aired on television in a way only IBC-13 can offer -- IBC-13's revolutionary Primetime 13, hooked its audience by delivering the latest shows, seasons and episodes as they are aired in Philippine television.

True to its avowed mission, IBC Entertainment TV will continuously create and deliver rich, high quality content to reach and connect with an even wider audience through the breadth and depth of IBC-13's platforms. Ability to deliver its content beyond free television through complementary new media touch points to broader and more diverse demographic segments makes it the network of choice for advertisers.

IBC-13 also delivered the freshest and most recent Filipino blockbuster movies to Philippine TV. Some Viva Tagalog movies from Viva Films include Viva Cine Idols, *Viva Box*Office and Sunday Sinemaks, further captivated its audience and made watching Viva movies at home on primetime.

To cater to its active youth audience, IBC-13 shored up its sports programming. Besides being home to the most prestigious and most bankable professional basketball leagues, the PBA invigorated the local sports scene and the America"s most popular professional basketball league NBA, and the increasingly followed the Asia's biggest mixed martial arts organization ONE FC (ONE Fighting Championship). Thrilling boxing and sports specials laced the youth's appetite for action-packed sports.

A testament to IBC-13's credence in assembling the youth for its on-ground events, parties and promotions. Through online social networking, The Kapinoy Network kept close tabs with its kapinoys, ensuring that IBC will always remain fresh, hip and in-demand.

About IBC Records Edit

IBC Records is the major diversification move in the evolution of IBC-13 from a broadcast media to a fully integrated entertainment company. It was incorporated in February 2013 and began operating commercially in April of the same year. In just a few months, the company managed to set up what has become the largest provincial sales and distribution network in putting up their own record label in the tradition of Kapamilya Network's Star Records and the Kapuso Network's GMA Records.

It remains the music recording and record distribution company, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation. The Kapinoy Nework leads the pack among record labels that produce music from the Philippines and distribute original Pilipino music worldwide.

From the outset, IBC Records embarked on its own artist and repertoire development. By 2013, the company's artists roster had grown to some twenty local acts. Young as it is, the recording outfit has had a number of gold and multi-platinum albums to its credit: Dingdong Avanzado for Song for You, Lani Misalucha for The Nightingale Returns, Rey Valera of Awit Mula sa Ating Puso, Rachel Alejandro for Nagmamanal, Rachel, rge latest album of the Filipino rock band The Dawn for Drawn, Miguel Aguila for Kay Tagal and the singer Joey Albert for Your Romamce, debut albums of Elmo Magalona for Rapper Heartthrob, Sofia Andres for Telling My Heart, Thyro Alfaro for Pure Heart, Janella Salvador for Oh My Gee, and Marlo Mortel for Repitition, Born to be a Superstar finalists are Cayleen Villamor for Dreams Come True, Veejay Aragon for Simple Lang, Ronald Humarang for Ronald, Anne Bernardo for Somewhere in My Heart, the Filipino rock band PLTR (Pinoy Learns to Rock) for Tamang Tama, the starstudded Christmas album Pasko ng Pilipino and Ito'ng Bagong Christmas, the original soundtrack of IBC's television hit series Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, Batang Genius, Voltron Man and the blockbuster movie Flames: The Love Movie, and the latest album of Josh Santana for Give Me A Chance.

Although based in the Philippines, IBC Records and its artists are known globally by fans of music from the Philippines.

Incorporated just a year ago, IBC Records today is aggressively building its pool of Filipino artists and musicians as well as its catalogue of the Original Pilipino Music (OPM). In 2013 through music production and distribution, IBC Records plans to produce at least more than 113 albums which will include OPM releases, non-exclusive catalogues, special compilations, soundtrack albums and educational albums. IBC Records also plans to diversify its produce line to includ Videoke, CD Graphics and MTV's on top of the regular cassette tapes and CDs in the Original Pilipino Music (OPM) of the market. Music recording production and distribution as it incorporates the music recording company IBC Records, which goes on producing the music albums of the network's artists like Dingdong Avanzado, Rachel Alejandro, Miguel Aguila, Lani Misalucha, Louie Heredia and The Dawn, and the soundtracks of the various IBC Films movies

Signing up big-name Filipino artists as well as discovering potential artists, especially from IBC-13 talent pools, will be a continuing activity. The vision of IBC Records is to grow into an internationally music recording and record distribution company.

IBC Home Video (Video Distribution) Edit

Its core business is video acquisition and distribution. IBC-13 is the exclusive video distributor of IBC's TV show tiles. It also acquires on a select basis the video rights to other locally produced titles.

Kapinoy Home Video Video likewise secured video distribution rights to the foreign film features from the Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA) and from the American Film Market Association (AFMA) members to complement its local titles:

20th Century Fox Home Entertainment - A major production house in Hollywood (also a News Corporation company) for which VVI is the exclusive Philippine video distributor. Buena Vista Home Entertainment (BVHE) - a Walt Disney company (owned by parent company ABC/Capital Cities), BVHE has licensed their labels (Walt Disney Home Video, Touchstone Home Video, and Hollywood Pictures) to VVI.

Apart from the major labels above, IBC Home Video has a virtual lock on the childrens' market with the acquisition of DreamWorks label, the Barney label, and the Nickeledeon label. IBC-13's video products are distributed thru major wholesalers and video retail chains. At the same time, Kapinoy Home Video has its own mobile sales force catering to the Mom & Pop (neighborhood) video rental shops nationwide.

Committed to the development and expansion of the legitimate video market, IBC-13 pioneered the market in 2013 by opening Sell Thru accounts in mass merchandise (department stores & supermarkets) and specialty merchandise (bookstores, sports shops, toy shops, music stores) retail outlets in the capital city of Metro Manila. Today, the Sell Thru segment, with more than 100 Sell Thru outlets nationwide, is a significant contributor to the company's business.

IBC, now in its 54th year, is the country's third leading giant television and radio network in Asia. It has build a diverse, global business by putting kids, teens, family, friends and Filipino masses in everything it goes. The company includes radio and television simulcast programming and production in the Philippines and around the world, plus consumer products, online, recreation, books and feature films. IBC-13's television network is seen in more than 100 million households and has been the No.3 for 18 consecutive years. For fifty-four years after introducing television to the Philippines, IBC-13 remains poised the new ground in the field of broadcasting and to face the challenge of the new millennium.

Since the phenomenal success of its EDSA relaunched operations of the sequestered TV and radio station, your network has branched out into other industry-related endeavors. All the while fortifying its creative and technical expertise with cutting-edge technology.

It started on March 1, 1960 at 6:30 p.m. under Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation thru the trimedia conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by the late Andres Soriano.

The station also broadcasts in Cebu and Davao. On the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

From a relatively unknown TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience.

Thus, IBC 13 set a lot of firsts in the broadcasting industry. Showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13. Who could ever forget Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, T.O.D.A.S., See-True and a lot more? Back then, when one spoke of television of IBC 13.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation. New administrators meant new management.

IBC 13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past.

Now, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production within the quality local production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

As the leader in Philippine television broadcasting, IBHC Entertainment TV sustained its drive to capture the hearts of its audience through its innovative and multi-genre programming mix. IBC Entertainment TV leveraged on its strengths and boldly launched fresh programming concepts to sustain its hold on core audiences and at the same time nurturing key demographics for the future.

Original shows enthused the Filipino household's primetime viewing as they experience an ensemble of complementing breakthrough programs. Key to keeping the hold on core and in building future viewer audiences for the channel is the continuous introduction of invigorating program concepts.

Completing IBC Entertainment TV's extensive offerings are programs which not only kept core viewers and but also key target markets engrossed and engaged. That situation changed dramatically after 54 years. Blazin the trail for the Filipinization of television programming was the management headed by the chairman Eric Canoy, president and CEO Botos Anson-Roa, vice-chairman Freddie M. Garcia and executive vice-president (EVP) Lito Ocampo Cruz that was installed by the PNoy government in the sequestered IBC-13. Charged with protecting the assets of the station, the new management is surprised to discover that the station is a top money earner and in fact leading the other networks in terms of rating and remains #3.

It seemed that the reason for the station's high-rating is the local entertainment shows that IBC-13 is home to Viva Tagalog movies, station-produced local sitcoms, PBA, NBA and ONE FC. This type of programming, a new management built on the strength of the station towards the Filipinization of the network.

Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, a corporate slogan and tagline. It is a vision of what we have always wanted Philippine television to be: the home of local productions that are expressive of the Filipino heart and mind; the active mediator between the public and the significant issues and events of the day; the provider of entertainment and enlightenment; the imparter of Filipino social and cultural values. It defines the basic thrust of IBC-13's programming a strong bias for more local prouctions, a striving for balance of entertainment and public information, and the recognition of its social role without losing sight of the need to earn profits. Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 expresses IBC-13's corporate goal: for the Filipino audience to identify themselves with the station because it speaks of them and for them, because its shows are produced bu them, and because whatever is Filipino is to be found in The Kapinoy Network.

The Kapinoy Network opened its primetime to innovtive sitcoms, gag shows, political satire, fantasy drama series, soap operas, musical variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows. It also aired Filipino movies on primetime, and balanced this with documentaries.

IBC-13's all-Filipino programming compared to ABS-CBN and GMA with the track while RPN to reformat its own English and Filipino programming. Today, IBC-13 is also enmeshed in sequestration and ownership problems. ABS-CBN and GMA become the industry leaders with 100% of their shows in Filipino.

IBC-13 recently launched several trend-setting, top rating and awatd-winning programs for fantasy, drama and comedy such as Catch Me Fall in Love; Batang Genius depicted young kids' struggle as they discover their mission; Voltron Man, a new kind of action-packed superhero; Janella: A Princess Girl revealed a fairytale princess girl in a fanta-drama format appeal of young romance; Your Heart, My Love will impart of Filipino family values with a melodrama, romance and action for the whole family filled with anticipation for every episode of the engaging twists, sharp-witted dialogues and fast-paced developments by the star-studded ensemble cast; Sandy's Romance for the sexy girl, attracted female and male viewers with the love story in some lucky-sender; and Maya Love Sir Chief, a family sitcom that impart of Filipino family values. These popular shows bolstered Channel 13's line-up of viewer favorites like the three game shows The Million Second Quiz, Killer Karaoke imparted relaxed more fun and laughter for everyone with its sing-along musical entertainment game fare and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, the new season of the singing-reality show Born to be a Superstar featuring the national singing contest for the aspiring and younger talented superstars, a gag show for the boys night out Happy TODAS for the male audience with sexy lady and girl babes as IBC-13's #1 show of better execution, highly creative and flexible format; Sic O'Clock News Naman, a political satire for the national and international news using the format of a news program; Iskul Bukol Men which featured three chracters of a school of men under all kinds of boys; Shake, Rattle and Roll engaged with its horror-suspense elements; DMZ-TV, Last Fool Show, Seeing Stars Tonight and Dingdong n' Lani. And to satisfy the clamor for immediate airing of new seasons, these local primetime programs are aired on television in a way only IBC-13 can offer -- IBC-13's revolutionary Primetime 13, hooked its audience by delivering the latest shows, seasons and episodes as they are aired in Philippine television.

True to its avowed mission, IBC Entertainment TV will continuously create and deliver rich, high quality content to reach and connect with an even wider audience through the breadth and depth of IBC-13's platforms. Ability to deliver its content beyond free television through complementary new media touch points to broader and more diverse demographic segments makes it the network of choice for advertisers.

IBC-13 also delivered the freshest and most recent Filipino blockbuster movies to Philippine TV. Some Viva Tagalog movies from Viva Films include Viva Cine Idols, *Viva Box*Office and Sunday Sinemaks, further captivated its audience and made watching Viva movies at home on primetime.

To cater to its active youth audience, IBC-13 shored up its sports programming. Besides being home to the most prestigious and most bankable professional basketball leagues, the PBA invigorated the local sports scene and the America"s most popular professional basketball league NBA, and the increasingly followed the Asia's biggest mixed martial arts organization ONE FC (ONE Fighting Championship). Thrilling boxing and sports specials laced the youth's appetite for action-packed sports.

A testament to IBC-13's credence in assembling the youth for its on-ground events, parties and promotions. Through online social networking, The Kapinoy Network kept close tabs with its kapinoys, ensuring that IBC will always remain fresh, hip and in-demand.

When we launch merchandise, we launch the complete line of licensed products together in a themed environment. For KapinoyLand, for example, we launched the merchandise in KapinoyLand-tiques.

To maximize impact and ensure that the properly stays top-of-mind, we create high-visibility themed events - motorcades, stage shows, mall tours and store visits. Pooling our resources with those of our licensees and promotional partners, we orchestrate the introduction of the property and products to the market, the timing of image-enhancing activities and media exposure, and the release of new products.

We take care to give our clients best value for money, whether in terms of marketing support, media value or development of presentation materials.

We offer full service support - star treatment, if you will - to our clients. From the creation of media plans, layouts, development of graphics, product and premium designs to final artwork and product sourcing.

Aside from in-person visits we also offer workshops and meetings to help clients and suppliers have a better understanding of licensing issues and concerns, inform and consult with them on our plans and to help keep them abreast with developments in the licensing industry.

Sary-Sary Kapinoy's management all have extensive retail experience. Having worked in and with the country's leading and most prestigious malls and store chains in various fields such as brand management, product planning, development and sourcing, licensing and merchandising, wholesale, distribution, leasing, events, visual merchandising, advertising and sales promotion, exhibits, public relations and corporate communications, we know how best to deliver retailers' requirements, have maintained good relations with retail contacts and are in close touch with market trends, wants and needs.

Thorough study, analysis and planning go into every licensing programme to ensure the property's appeal, integrity and longevity. We make sure everything we do for the property, from positioning to promotions, enhances its image - its star and superstar quality.

With the support of IBC-13's Research and Information Technology divisions, we have at our disposal qualitative and quantitative information that is relevant and always fresh. This enables us to constantly evaluate our campaigns and strategies, the performance of our products, changing market tastes and our competition.

With IBC-13's radio and television (free TV, UHF and cable) network as well as our formidable contacts in the print medium, we have the wherewithal and credibility to give our properties, products and activities optimum exposure. Together with Television Sales and Marketing, we create attractive packages for promotional partners who wish to strengthen the association between their brand name and our properties through commercial spot placements and sponsorship of special shows or segments. Licensing for cartoon characters on T-shirts.Famous stars and superstars - real people, fictional characters, brand names, famous icons, prestigious institutions - applied on other items of apparel, on food and beverages, on packaging, toys, bags, school items, store fronts and displays - the possibilities are exciting and endless.

Marketing books describe licensing as organizations or commodities capitalizing on one another's names and strengths in different industries to gain standing and leverage in their own market best.

IBC Interactive Edit

IBC Interactive is charged with adding a new dimension to the network's various media properties. Using mobile phones, landlines and the Internet, this venture allows audiences to fully participate in their favorite TV programs, cable channels, radio shows, and movies.

The growth of interactive television began with the publication of websites www.ibc.com.ph, www.ibcnews.com and 89dmz.com. The concept of audience interaction evolved with the introduction of SMS (short-messaging system) or text as another means of letting the mass market participate in their favorite TV shows. The highly successful Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Born to be a Superstar and The Million Second Quiz led this revolution by enabling viewers to send in their game shows and reality shows entries using their mobile phones. This was followed by various text-based activities on the noontime variety show Lunch Break, the Primetime Serye Textmate promo for the primetime block as Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart,

My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love, and other interactive services on popular TV programs.

Allowing viewers to see their opinions aired or to shape the programs they watch has resulted in record levels of participation. At present, this interactive media concept has been extended to IBC News Network, Danze TV, Kiddie TV, Toon TV, DZTV TeleTrese, Cinema Movie and the many magazines of IBC Publishing.

Under the IBC Website brand, IBC Interactive also the award-winning Internet portal www.ibc.com.ph. It launched the innovative Texting Kapinoy to 8888 from Globe, Smart, Touch Mobile, Talk N' Text, Sun Cellular and IBC Mobile, allowing viewers to "chat" with each other by sending in text messages. Also offers other text-based games, auctions, and various activities.

Successfully predicting new trends in the industry, IBC Interactive has proven that television can be more than a passive medium of communicating. Whether using their phones or the Web, IBC Interactive is empowering viewers to directly shape the programs they are watching.

Its core business is video acquisition and distribution. IBC-13 is the exclusive video distributor of IBC's TV show tiles. It also acquires on a select basis the video rights to other locally produced titles.

Kapinoy Home Video Video likewise secured video distribution rights to the foreign film features from the Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA) and from the American Film Market Association (AFMA) members to complement its local titles:

20th Century Fox Home Entertainment - A major production house in Hollywood (also a News Corporation company) for which VVI is the exclusive Philippine video distributor. IBC-13's video products are distributed thru major wholesalers and video retail chains. At the same time, Kapinoy Home Video has its own mobile sales force catering to the Mom & Pop (neighborhood) video rental shops nationwide.

Committed to the development and expansion of the legitimate video market, IBC-13 pioneered the market in 2013 by opening Sell Thru accounts in mass merchandise (department stores & supermarkets) and specialty merchandise (bookstores, sports shops, toy shops, music stores) retail outlets in the capital city of Metro Manila. Today, the Sell Thru segment, with more than 100 Sell Thru outlets nationwide, is a significant contributor to the company's business.

Synopsis Edit

As a pioneer in the Philippine broadcasting industry, IBC News head Maria Ressa realized early on that reporters are called upon to serve the public beyond their journalistic responsibilities. The multi-awarded and seasoned broadcast journalist proposed the idea of having a dedicated news team with the necessary knowledge and training to conduct various types of emergency response and rescue operations. And in September 2013, Tulong Kapinoy was born. Since then, IBC's emergency response unit has received numerous recognitions here and abroad for its efforts during life-threatening incidents and dangerous situations. As part of its unwavering service to the Filipinos, IBC News and Current Affairs and IBC Foundation, Inc. launched its new tag line Tulong Kapinoy, in which its news teams were trained to save lives in actual emergency situations. In a critical situation, current media practice in local and international news organizations opt to being the first in getting and delivering the news. For IBC, being first is in assisting and relieving a person in distress. That in itself is news, information and public service.

Following the course of Tulong Kapinoy, IBC News and Current Affairs under the organization of Media ng Bayanand IBC Foundation, Inc. has again set its gear in creating a new program Team Rescue 911, designed to give maximum emphasis on providing a helping hand and extending assistance to people caught in the midst of disasters. It also aims to present useful information that people should know when faced with emergencies, action-packed tragedies, accidents and calamities.

The field of search and rescue operations who will share their invaluable knowledge and skills in disaster preparedness, safety and security.

Is IBC-13 doing at all?

April 7, 2014

Consider an also-ran in Philippine television, IBC-13 is now a strong number 3 in the ratings game, next to a two giants ABS-CBN and GMA in the same league, based on the survey of Kantar Media/TNS Phlippines.

It easy served to be mentioned in the same time. Channel 13's market share is so more big money that it gets a considration from advertisers and media buyers, and consequently its revenues can be a fraction of those of the two giants. Ask the man on the street what he associates to be going full blast with his new business and mobile TV has a place in the TV landscape as a network identified with quality programming.

With the Kapinoy network and he will most likely and rather appropriatly sa Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino in these of local productions and even the stars of the entertainment series have been told about their respective shows entertain blocktime producers in the future and will definitely keep the PBA and NBA.

"In fairness," as shwobiz industy would put it, as well, state-run IBC-13 is the other private sectors, the government-owned sequestered media network in he country of television and radio; and thus, the network with a strong third of a chance of challenging the duopoly over the long term. The acquisiton of the network by Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. and Viva Sports COO Ronnie Natanielsz, appointed with the chairman Eric Canoy, the president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, the executive vice-president (EVP) Lito Ocampo Cruz, IBC sales and marketing manager Tessie Taylor, Channel 13 head Rey Sanchez, the vice-chairman Freddie M. Garcia, IBC News and Current Affairs head Maria Ressa and IBC Entertainment TV had Laurenti Dyogi in 2013 put it in a position to compete; and the first moves of the new management of IBC Board of Directors generated a good deal of excitement and anticipation in these afloat of privatization.

Pangilinan stressed to IBCNews.com that Viva Sports is committed to continue its airing and coverage of programs and leagues to which it remains a partner, including the Philippine Basketball Association, and is in fact considering airing the PBA live on The Kapinoy Network that Filipino masses.

The Aquino administration plans to privatize two of its TV networks, which apart from IBC-13 also includes RPN-9, to raise more revenues. The Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) earlier said it will sell the assets and franchise of IBC for P3.7 billion.

Getting the PBA and NBA games is an idea that instantly filled IBC-13 schedule with all-Filipino programming practically guaranteed to rate recently and pull in an adverisers. Picking up K-Pop Star Hunt was also astute particularly considering tat all the other local networks had ignored the show before that the K-pop superstars made it the talk of the town. For those the children's educational programming KapinoyLand, a flagship children's program will captivate the kids with a mascots of Mr. Kapinoy. Also brought more educational programs produced by IBC Foundatin, Inc. are: Science Kwela for science, Learn with English for English, Bayaning Bayani for history; Pamanafor Fllipino lessons and Math Makulay for mathematics, some shows for the elementary school and high school with a teacher, studies and classmates. Launching Express Balita and Ronda Trese together with Good Take, Bitag, Linawin Natin, Forum ni Randy, Snooky, Makabayang Duktor, Global Mission, Team Rescue 911, Operation Lingkod Bayan and Negoshow spoke of a determination to build stong, independent and credible news organization under Media ng Bayan. Airing film masterpieces such showing the Viva Tagalog movies are Kapinoy Cinema, Viva Box Office and Sunday Sinemaks gave the blockbuster to Canoy's box-ofice of support for the network. Of course, there were hits as well--popular rapper Abra's hit sitcom Abra Gayuma; Ramon Bautista's political satire Sic O'Clock News Naman; Boots Anson-Roa's fantasy anthology Once Upon a Time; a youth-oriented drama series Friends 4Ever with a hottest teen stars are Freddie Gutierrez, Janella Salvador, Khalil Ramos, Sue Ramirez, Francis Magundayao, Marlo Mortel and Liza Soberano; the daily noontime variety show Lunch Break hosted by Ryan Agoncillo, Joy Viado and Annabelle Rama; the showbiz talk show CelebrityDATCom hosted by Dolly Anne Carvajal, Anthony Suntay and Tessie Tomas every Sunday; and the Sunday musical variety show It's Partytime with Dingdong Avanzado, Jenine Desiderio, Gino Padilla, Lani Misalucha, Rachel Alejandro and Miguel Aguila for the country's top singers with co-hosts and performers of the Kapinov superstars. Thankfully, they were all the homegrown and powerhouse programs. Once again, to be fair, IBC-13 should at least get points for trying out groundbreaking concepts successful.

Curently, IBC-13 is another set of quality innoative programs: DMZ-TV, a youthful, energy-filled dance variety show; Cooltura, a look glipse of Filipino culture; and Last Fool Show, a comedy talk show about the comedians at late-night. Once more, now set of primetime soap operas: Janella in Wonderland, a mermaid tale of a hottest hit fantsy drama series starring a teen darling princess Janella Salvador; Your Heart, My Love, a heart-warming drama series about the family starring the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and box-office action star Raymart Santiago with a powerhouse cast; Crazy Little Thing Called Love, a romantic dramedy serials based on te 2010 hit That film starring Cristine Reyes, Dingdong Dantes and Maricar Reyes. Over the weekend primetime hits: the two local version of the US popular game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? hosted by Robi Domingo and The Million Second Quizhosted by Drew Arrellano become the winning of million-peso prize; reality show for the national singing contest Born to be a Superstar with a Kapinoy singing champion Anja Aguilar with a judges like Joey Albert, Sam Concepcion, Paula Bianca and Gino Padilla launching the powerhouse grand champions Veejay Aragon, Cayleen Villamor, Ronald Humarang and Anne Bernardo in the rising talented superstars; sitcoms Iskul Bukol Men, the revival of 70's and 80's classic sitcom from Tlto Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon turned into today's top stars Aki Torio, Ramon Bautista and Josh Padilla and top-rated Sir Chief Loves Maya top-billed by Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap imparts of Filipino family values; teen drama anthology Sandy's Romance which is starring a hottest star Nadine Lustre and AJ Muhlach for love story; an all-male gag show Happy TODAS with a cast by lanching Keempee de Leon, Sam YG, Victor Anastacio, Elmo Magalona and Jimmy Muna. Still to come, alread getting a recent press conference, is a show in which professional Filipino actors and young stars compete for a chance to break into the Superstar Network. IBC-13 is doing a ratings in a single digits.

Bitag

Bitag (literally Trap) is an investigative and public service program hosted by Ben Tulfo and produced by BST Tri-Media Productions that airs in the Philippines. Launched on September 14, 2002, it first aired on Associated Broadcasting Company (now TV5) before moving the following year to Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) before returning again to TV5. It is currently aired on the government-owned IBC every Friday night. During its launch, Ben described it as an investigative show like no other that strays away from the "packaged" aggressive image that the Tulfo clan is known for by adopting a more cut-throat, in-your-face approach. Its success also spawned a recap (later talk) show that aired during weekday mornings on UNTV as Bitag Live, and simulcast on radio through DZME and DWUN. As of February 2013, Bitag Live is currently aired on AksyonTV and simulcast on DWFM.[1] Bitag is also a segment of the TV5 public service program T3: Reload, where Ben co-hosts with brothers Erwin Tulfo and Raffy Tulfo.

Format Edit

An episode usually contains 3 different cases set to stock film, music and industrial sound effects sardonically narrated by Ben before wrapping it up with an educational segment sponsored by PAGCOR. Bitag operates semi-autonomously, conducting reconnaissance and surveillance and deploys their own agents as undercovers. When enough intelligence is gathered, Ben coordinates with the local authorities to plan the manner of arrest and follows them with his convoy of security back-ups and camera men to document the entire procedure and its aftermath. In accordance with Ben's eschewal of "drama" and production in favor of "real reality", most cases air days after the shoot with minor cuts and editing used only to fit the documented footage under 10 minute segments. This is further proven by Ben's occasional absence in his AksyonTV show Bitag Live on weekdays, when he personally oversees certain case operations.

The programs segments are classified according to their nature:

- Operations, which document actual Bitag operations in coordination with law enforcement elements.
- Updates, or follow-up reports on the status of successful Bitag operations.
- Kilos Pronto segments, which showcase immediate action or assistance on complaints or concerns.
- Akto segments, usually depicting irregularities or "questionable" situations unexpectedly encountered by Bitag (caught in the act).
- Wanted, a new segment featuring the apprehension of a "wanted" criminal.
- Biblically Speaking, a biblical related segment hosted by Bro. Eli Soriano. This was only seen during the program's UNTV years.
- Rewind, replays of existing episodes, often as reminders to the public.

For safety reasons, the Bitag strike force is fully armed and trained in self-defense disciplines (including Tulfo himself) and comprises professional security personnel. They are also allowed to carry their firearms in airplanes and vessels provided they surrender it prior to departure. However, the team still makes it a point to request assistance from the local authorities when dwelling in unfamiliar territory in accordance with the law.

Bitag was originally pitched to other TV networks but an unidentified "Tulfo" was opposed to it [2]

Bitag Live Edit

In 2004, UNTV provided Ben with his own daily morning show Bahala si Bitag (taking its name from his bi-weekly newspaper column of the same name) where Ben fields questions and complaints from callers in addition to showing re-runs of cases for the purpose of alerting the public.

The show has since renamed to Bitag Live. The show underwent through a series of changes in conjunction with their tagline of "continuous change for the better", incorporating their Kilos Pronto segment (from Bitag) into their show as a live help line and updated the stale set with a more modern look - most noticeably their use of a Plasma TV backdrop. (Those were later removed.) BITAG Live also has invited guests to speak regarding cases *Bitag*currently holds, or to speak regarding current issues. They also add a religious portion Biblically Speaking hosted by Bro. Eli Soriano. In 2007, Ben started prefacing lectures with "were taking care of business" when showing his subjects how Bitag would deal with the matter. Consequently, Takin' Care of Business by Bachman-Turner Overdrive is used as the theme song on one of their remixed ads. Late in the show's UNTV tenure, it also added lifestyle-related segments.

In 2013, the program found a new home on TV5's free-to-air UHF station AksyonTV; the said station also airs brothers Erwin and Raffy's own programs Punto Asintado and Wanted sa Radyo respectively, as well as T3: Reload, all of which also simulcast on radio through DWFM.

Appearance of other Tulfo Siblings in Bitag Edit

In 2006, Erwin Tulfo, Ben's younger brother and a contracted but underused employee of ABS-CBN, officially joined Bitag, and Bahala si Bitag was renamed to Bahala sina Ben at Erwin as both would answer calls and discuss subjects on air equally in addition to having his own segment (under the motif Mission-X) on its main show. The pairing did not last long and BSTs title has since reverted to the previous title after Erwin left to team up with his other brothers Ramon Tulfo and Raffy Tulfo in the show Isumbong Mo (Tulfo Brothers) on RPN-9. The latter aired its final episode on August 12, 2006 [3]

Facing charges of libel, Erwin re-joined Bitag on March 1, 2007 albeit in a lesser capacity. Erwin often accompany Ben during high-profile cases or works individually, no longer sharing hosting duties on BST. Back then, Erwin maintains a subgroup called Mission-X, as well as its own separate action center, that peers with Bitag's. Ben and Erwin occasionally combine their workforce (Bitag and Mission-X) when necessary. There were times Erwin handled certain BITAG cases and encounters the suspects themselves in lieu of Ben, particularly in sensitive cases that requires a little more restraint.

However, Erwin left Bitag and has since spun off his own brand of public service to TV5's Tutok Tulfo.

Raffy from Wanted sa Radyo has also been featured in Bitag on October 11, 2008, in an episode of him helping out on an investigation, and in a drug den raid. Similarly,[[[Ramon Tulfo]], the eldest of the siblings, has also appeared in BITAG as well, during the drug den raid in Mabalacat, Pampanga.

All 4 public service brands by the mentioned siblings (Bitag, Erwin's Mission-X, Raffy's Wanted sa Radyo and Ramon's Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo!; Raffy and Ramon's tandem is also called Tulfo Brothers alternatively.) has united together at least once in a given operation. Ramon Tulfo's Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo! made a comeback to DZIQ, PDI's radio arm, before returning to DWIZ. Ramon's younger brothers would eventually end up as hosts for TV5's public service program T3: Reload, although Ramon later became a co-host himself briefly prior to the infamous incident with Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto.

Unique elements Edit

Although the concept of investigative and public service programs are hardly new on local television, there are still differences between the show and most of its rivals. While their peers are restricted entirely to the confines of their studio/shooting location or function exclusively as "hosts", Ben considers himself as an investigator (but still he was a media personality), and is on the field most of the time while still regarding his prey with the same unabashed contempt, regardless of proximity. Most importantly, the show doesn't discriminate and has handled cases both small and large and is nonchalant with regards to the background of the felons they pursue

- be it the child of a network executive, high-ranking police officers, government institutions, city mayors, foreigners, relatives of influential entities or huge crime syndicates - as host Ben Tulfo always says, "Walang sinasanto't walang sinisino ang patibong ng Bitag!" (The snare of Bitag recognizes and discriminates no one!)

Host Edit

Perhaps the shows main draw is its host (and also producer and director) Ben Tulfo who subscribes to the adage "it takes a wolf to catch a wolf" which, more often that not, leads to precarious situations that he immerses himself with gusto. Each case, Ben finds himself getting in the face of his subjects, be it ordinary suspects or policemen - sparring verbally (often laced with profanity) and at times, physically. Being the shows producer as well, he prefers an approach and presentation that lets the viewers see the true face of reality, no matter how grim or disturbing it is - the lack of a formal script means no dramatizations or re-enactments, as said by the shows tagline, "Hindi ito drama, di tulad ng iba!", and guarantees audiences of raw, documented footage of events as they happened.

Ben, at one point, adapts his show title as his moniker or nickname, calling himself Bitag.

Reaction and Controversy Edit

As a result of his brazenfaced exploits, Ben has received generous praise from supporters who find his brand of crusaders zeal efficient when dealing with the scourges of society, and also jeers from those who consider his behavior repulsive and inappropriate for a media personality.

His aforementioned recklessness has also led to several tension-filled incidents that range from minor physical confrontations to an actual firearm being pointed at him and his staff, prompting many to speculate if he will ever tone down his approach in the interest of his own public image and safety. These gripes are regularly brought up by furious viewers, to which Ben contends that as long as his actions are for the greater good, he will continue to press on with his methods regardless.

It has competition from ABS-CBN's XXX: Exklusibong, Explosibong, Exposé that was hosted by Julius Babao, Pinky Webb and Alex Santos. Ex-Bitag operatives comprise most of its staff and the shows title appears to lampoon the suffix X-treme in Bitag. Another competing investigative television show of this genre of public service, although in a later timeslot, is GMA Network's Imbestigador.

Other competitions include his other brother's brand of public service, including Wanted sa Radyo, Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo!, and his former co-host's brand, Tutok Tulfo. Bitag acknowledges the existence of such other shows, and he insists that Bitag, oriented to public service, is out of the ordinary because of its unusual focus on real reality, unabridged by typical broadcasting standards.

Ben is not afraid nor ashamed of exposing anomalies committed even by his own employees at BST Tri-Media, in which has resulted in the expulsion of two of his employees to date.

Principles Edit

Tulfos guiding principles are plain and simple, which he iterates at the end of the program:

Makikita ang katotohanan kung sumbungan ang pag-uusapan sa Bitag. Ang pagtitiwalay nakakamit dahil sa resulta - GAWA, HINDI NGAWA. Dito nakakamit ang salitang RESPETO.

If you're talking about complaints and public service, Bitag addresses and reveals the truth and reality. Results earn you trust - walk the walk, not talk the talk. Not whining on the problem, just acting upon the solution. It is through this that you earn respect.

Return to TV5 Edit

Bitag's contract on IBC has expired, and he did not renew. Bitag was forced to move to UNTV's Saturday night slots. Ben Tulfo eventually moved his TV show to AksyonTV, the sister channel of his former network TV5. He teamed up with his other brothers from the other stations and made a TV show called T3: Reload (renamed from T3: Kapatid, Sagot Kita! following the infamous tirade to Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto regarding the assault of elder brother Ramon in May 2012).

On October 14, 2011, he returned to TV5. Another spin-off premiered on AksyonTV entitled Pinoy US Cops Ride Along where it chronicles the operations of Filipino police officers in the United States. Both Bitag later returned to IBC and Pinoy US Cops later moved to the People's Television Network, albeit in a producer's cut variety and in broadcast syndication,[4] while the UNTV version continued to air Fridays in a commercial-free tandem with Pinoy US Cops: Ride Along in a director's cut.

Ben became involved in the controversy of T3 when he, along with brothers Erwin and Raffy, vowed that the assault towards their eldest brother Mon would not go unanswered.

At the start of 2013, UNTV dropped Bitag, Pinoy US Cops and Bitag Live from its list of programs. Bitag Live then found a home on 92.3 News FM and AksyonTV; furthermore the Bitag segment on 73: Reload was revived after it was renamed Caught in the Act following the said program's reformat.

It's raining new shows on IBC-13

July 6, 2014

If ever kung mabili ko ang 80% stake ng IBC-13. I will plan to order a new transmitter, new HD cameras, and other broadcast equipment for its TV and radio broadcasting as well as the regional stations. Some of the shows would be produced by IBC and co-produced by Viva Television. Let's shy away from the three big networks here in the Philippines will perform a program. It was the heyday of 13, as also the opposite in the past few years. May become more popular the IBC-13 carrying their agreement blocktimer Vintage Sports and PBA, particularly Channels 2 and 7 of the two giants in the industry. Even beyond the fact that it becomes blocktimer channel them to various production outfits in the country such as Viva. IBC-13 should be and RPN-9 as the general entertainment network, in order to rebuild its programming. ATC should imitate while Solar in RPN's major block-timer. Good move by the MBA to get RPN-9 to air the games on primetime. I hope the new blocktimer does a good job with the government-sequestered network.

A new network programming thrust for IBC-13, jointly owned by the chairman Eric Canoy.

And striking dun nun evidence that facilities of their time. A warehouse that was apparently side of their studio equipment volume. And obvious set-up its age.

The privatization of sequestered TV stations RPN 9 and IBC 13 was originally set by the Privatization and Management Office (PMO). IBC-13 which is stands for Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, is set to unleash a storm of game-changing programs with its Signal No.13:*Umuulan ng Saya mga Kapinoy* third quarter campaign, is revitalizing its network programming.

The network's chairman Eric Canoy and president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa spearheaded the official state-run is up for privatization this year unveiling of the network's new line-up of Sports (I), Entertainment (B) and News and Current Affairs (C) offerings during a recent trade launch. "We need to make the station more viable," Boots told Inquirer Entertainment in interview at the IBC-13 office in Broadcast City last week. "We want people to know that, still up fort privatization, we are beefing up our own programming." Canoy is confident that privatization and get in the way of the reprogramming. "If the shows are good, I'm sure the prospective buyer will take them into consideration," he said.

Hosted by Maya Loves Sir Chief's love team of Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, the trade event gave attendees an exclusive and first-hand look of what promises to be even greater things to come from the Kapinoy Network this third quarter, what with a fortified programming grid that further reinforces IBC-13's commitment in offering viewers a different kind of Philippine TV experience. IBC is able to provide strong signal nationwide, and IBC-13 will be the undisputed #3 station in the country.

Additionally, the network also relaunched a new advertising campaign and brand name Kapinoy, which emphasized the new IBC lineup as being more distinct and new than what was being aired by its competitors to increase our audience share and our ratings at the time.

As the two giant networks offers big-budgeted teleseryes, reality shows, noontime entertainment and other mass-oriented productions, Canoy said IBC was determined to improve prime time programming ("The next two months will be very exciting") while IBC become more aggressive with surging ahead in the ratings, but was also propping up its non-prime time hours with children's educational programming and with the hit animes (Kirarin and Ghost Fighter), sentai and tokusatsu (Kamen Rider Fourze).

Barney & Friends, the child-friendly in the popular children's television program aimed at children from ages 1 to 8. Each series has new episodes with nine weekly themes. In 2004 (Series 6), the show was marked by reduced episodes than normal, with 30 episodes in six weekly themes due to the band concentrating more on touring. In 2009 was marked the beginning of the "second generation" of Hi-5, with all of the original members having departed in 2006-2008. The series was renewed with the new cast by the Nine Network.

To produce its own set of children's educational TV programs through IBC Foundation, Inc., KapinoyLand, the network's longest-running children's educational program produced by IBC Foundation, Inc. and Philippine Children's Television Foundation, Inc. based on KapinoyLand in the Philippines for brand of the Kapinoynetwork, earning for The Best Children's Program for the KBP Golden Dove Awards and Anak TV Seal Awards. It airing from Monday to Friday at 3 to 3:30 p.m. The new IBC mascots like Mr. Kapinoy created in June 30, 2012 based at KapinoyLand at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, Philippines from the success of TV, toys, books, stickers and so much more. To making craft arts, they make some unique and beautiful artworks using any artwork tools such as cardboard, pencil, pentel pens, colored papers, cartolina, etc., and they use foods to make works of arts which is still edible with a sponsors by Regent Foods Corporation such as Cheese Rings, Tempura, Cheese Ball and Regent Cakes (Pandan, Ube, Mocca, Melon, Strawberry, Lemon, Custard and Chocolate).

"If you notice, we now have programs geared toward the younger audience, specifically for kids. In the daytime, it's mostly children who watch television," Boots explained. "At night, we address the male audience by airing sports-oriented shows. At night, we address the mass audience by airing local primetime shows (dramas, fantasy, comedy, musical variety, reality, talk shows and Viva Tagalog movies)." Please have anime programming in your line up of shows like Ghost Fighter.

The goal for creating this show was to increase the commercial value of the government-owned IBC 13, which was up for sale as part of the Philippine Government's privatization efforts was eventually bought by Viva Productions, Inc., which the TV and radio coverage for the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA). Currently on air are PBA and NBA for basketball aficionados, and ONE FC for MMA fighting fans.

According to Canoy, Viva Entertainment, which has an existing programming contract with IBC-13, is responsible for the network's primetime hours with the PBA games, The Main Event boxing matches and the Viva Tagalog movies on primetime. For this, Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC), which has been the TV content provider including telenovelas, Asian dramas and ONE FC fighter.

Canoy said he recently consulted Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. on how to reprogram said hours. "Right now, what you see on primetime are basically more Filipino shows that you also see on Philippine TV. That's because those programs already have a captive market," Boots said, "except that for free TV, a good idea to concentrate on the C-D-E markets also of viewers "for more mass-based level". "I can't divulge right now what the programming thrust will be. Viewers should watch our for this," said Boots.

In my view, IBC-13's our only hope to be the pointless network war and bickering among Channels 2 and 7 and its rabid fans. It all started reinvented itself and zoomed up the ratings.

Together with friends, advertisers, media practitioners, businessman and IBC's roster of stars and talents.

Here comes IBC-13, with its bold goal of being #3 by 2015, it's fulfilling a goal for an organization and providing competition to the dull landscape being dominated by 2 networks made the industry. Artists have more choices and power to where they would like to work and show their talent, audiences have more shows to watch out for, we have more sources of news. ABS-CBN and GMA has felt the impact so much that they are pressured to create better programming and take better care of its talent.

IBC-13's third quarter storm officially makes its mark on July 5 with the relaunch of an even stronger primetime television block, beginning with the back-to-back new season premieres of three of the Kapinoy Network's most watched programs, the popular and top-rated game show The Million Second Quiz (Saturday 6 p.m.), with Drew Arellano as host, the country's longest-running reality show of its kind Born to be a Superstar (Saturdays at 9 p.m. and Sundays at 8:30 p.m.) with the young diva princess Anja Aguilar and the country's favorite and top-rated game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? (Sundays at 7:30 p.m.), which welcomes Robi Domingo as its new host. # Janella Salvador's Career Timeline In GIFs

You already know a couple of things about our lovely cover girl.

Born Janella Maxine Salvador, she is the daughter of rockstar Juan Miguel Salvador and theater actress Jenine Desiderio. She also loves her little brother Russell to bits.

After bagging the role of Nikki on ABS-CBN's top-rating daytime drama Be Careful With My Heart, Janella's fame skyrocketed and popularized some of the cutest expressions—like "Oh my gee." But how well do you know how she started out in the biz? Read on to find out.

2001 for IBC

As a 3 year old to host the children's program Y2K: Yes to Kids with JV the puppet for kids.

2005 at 7 year old

We don't have the deets on where and why Janella performed Kitchie Nadal's Wag Na Wag Mong Sasabihin, but we can't resist including it in this list. This is probably one of the earliest signs that Janella is a natural at performing. She's totally adorbs!

2008 at 10 years old

At ten, she performed Beyonce's Stand Up For Love (one of her favorite songs to sing to) with her mom on German Moreno's Walang Tulugan.

Even at a very young age, Janella already showed her amazing singing skills. Imagine belting out a tune alongside one of Miss Saigon's original performers! So much pressure, right?

2012

After taking a break from performing to finish grade school, Janella auditioned for the role of Nikki on Be Careful With My Heart and bagged it. In this show, she plays Nikki, Richard Yap or Ser Chief's Taglish-speaking daughter. Later on in the show, she was paired with Marlo Mortel's Nicolo.

2013 as Star Magic Circle 2013

Just last year, Janella was launched as part of Star Magic Circle 2013. Her batchmates included Liza Soberano, Julia Barretto, Michelle Vito, Jerome Ponce, Alex Diaz, among others. The group revealed in an interview with PEP.ph that Janella is the batch's best singer. We couldn't agree more.

Shampoo Commercial

Janella's career took off after Be Careful With My Heart and being launched as ABS-CBN's talents. She bagged an endorsement for one of the country's biggest shampoo brands Palmolive.

PMPC Star Awards and FAMAS Awards

Last year was a big year for this rising star. Aside from bagging a major endorsement deal, she was awarded as the Best New Female TV Personality for her role on Be Careful With My Heart at the Star Awards for Movies by the Philippine Media Press Club (PMPC). She was also one of the awardees of the German Moreno Youth Achievement Award during the Filipino Academy of Movie Arts and Sciences (FAMAS) Awards, for being an excellent example to today's youth.

Two Sides of Ana Edit

The Two Sides of Ana is a Mexican TV telenovela originally broadcasted in 2005 in Mexico.

The rights were bought by IBC-13 under TreseBella, dubbed it in Filipino and rebroadcasted on a primetime slot on Philippine television.

Pitted against industry giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7, Two Sides of Ana caught the fancy of Filipinos and became a nationwide sensation. Intriguing is the fact that at that time, ABS-CBN and GMA's shows lord over television and their shows occupy a very huge chunk of the ratings pie. In came Ana Layevska and shoved its rival's ratings. What made this foreign telenovela so special that it was able to do such? On the marketing perspective, what strategies were employed that led to the tipping of the ratings scale? The company and its available resources Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), initially known as Kanlaon Broadcasting system, is a broadcasting giant network in the Philippines and in the country owned by the Philippine Government Communications Group.

It is currently home to the country's premier professional basketball leagues are the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) and National Basketball Association (NBA). Initially it operated radio stations ad launched its television arm in March 1, 1960. In the 70s and 80s, IBC was a big player in the local broadcast industry with several shows and special coverage in its fold. It aired the Tagalog movies like the Tagalog Box Office Hits, Piling-Piling Pelukula and IBCinema, It also launched trend-setting programs such as Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, Eh Kasi Babae!, Ora Engkantada, Pinoy Thriller, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, See-True, Maricel Live!, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Loveliness, Sic O'Clock News, Sitak ni Jack, Barrio Balimging, Hapi House, Goin' Bananas, Regal Drama Hour, and several big-name tokusatsu and animes.

After the 1986 EDSA revolution, IBC-13 and RPN-9 was sequestered by the government and its assets were turned over to the Government Communications Group. In its fall from grace, the network much of its viewership resurgence to GMA and ABS-CBN with some of its high-rating primetime shows.

The company stature compete head-on with its rival's heavily funded shows. As an obvious result, the viewer-market favored other network's programming over theirs. It was also more cost-efficient and less risky to show Two Sides of Ana than gambling on a similar foreign dramas to match the already popular and well staffed rival shows. IBC-13 was already local shows (fantasy, dramas, comedy, variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows), including the importing of Japanese animes, Mexican telenovelas, imported Asianovelas from Korea and Taiwan, sports programs and the Viva Tagalog movies.

Two Sides of Ana is a top-rater in any Latin American country where it was shown. Thus became the pawn against the bishops and rooks of their rival. Craze was called Two Sides of Ana. the executives at IBC-13 hoped that the same phenomenon would infect the Philippine scene.

The network's news program Express Balita also approving the newscasts. ABS-CBN had TV Patrol and GMA had 24 Oras in terms of respective top-rating early-evening news program. Both news programs were headlined by the 2 network's popular newscasters. the newscast's ratings were sky-scrapers as compared to IBC-13's.primetime slot.

Both GMA and ABS-CBN fielded their in the primetime slot. Catch Me Fall in Love, Batang Genius, Janella: A Princess Girl and Your Heart, My Love already gained the top of the ratings while TreseBella's Asianovelas including I Need Romance 3 and Hayate the Combat Butler.

At that time. Product Comparison (Strengths and weaknesses of Programs in the 5pm slot)

With nothing to lose and nothing in their current roster of programs resilient enough to contend with the heavyweights. Some light stuff would be earmarked here and there but the emphasis almost always bordered on the negative. Analysis Tapping an Untapped Market Owing to its near-nil resource and recognizing its inability to contend toe-to-toe with GMA and ABS-CBN's well-planned, both programs also in the same void in the market. IBC-13 looked at the programming choices will offer for 5pm primetime, a craze was spreading across Latin America. It was new to them to import top-rating shows in other countries whose formula are akin to the shows patronized in the Philippines. Shows supplanted by Channel 13 on this timeslot took a back seat on its rival network's newscasts. The primetime slot: An introspective look of ABS-CBN and GMA on its 5pm timeslot were characterized with similar attributes. IBC-13 decided to look elsewhere. Both programs catered to the same need. The audience were in a neck-deep dire state and the newscasts were highlighting the scenes they would otherwise. News at that time was often about the dire plight of the country.

IBC-13—The superstar TV viewing 54 year after

August 22, 2014

A year after overhauling its image and station name, IBC-13 rises to alter the Pinoy's viewing habits, as proven by the network's strong showing in the Mega Manila ratings survey.

IBC Executive Vice President (EVP) Lito Ocampo Cruz knows all the figures by heart, the network is currently home to the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) and National Basketball Association (NBA) games.

But even the network executive was prone to moments of awe and "wow" as the numbers and percentages—boldly and clearly painting IBC-13's steady climb to the ratings summit in the past couple of months—were illuminated from the projector board.

"We're moving faster and ready to moving ahead. We're moving in an escalating pace and everyone at the newest Philippine TV sensation IBC-13, we're very please with the trend-setting, poineered and uptrend," Lito told the entertainment reporters during a recent press conference held at Cravings restaurant, Shangri-La Plaza Mall in Mandaluyong City last August 8 with the basketball games of PBA and NBA.

The "uptrend" was anchored largely on Anja Aguilar's Born to be a Superstar, which as of late has ranked up the ratings survey in the Mega Manila area. Not to be outdone, as Elmo Magalona's sing-along karaoke game show Killer Karaoke, Nadine Lustre's drama anthology Sandy's Romance, the top-rating primetime game shows Drew Arellano's The Million Second Quiz and Robi Domingo's Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Thirdy Lacson's Kroko: Ang Alamats a Zoo, primetime princess Janella Salvador's fantasy Janella: A Princess Girl and the primetime prince AJ Muhlach's action superserye Voltron Man, Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago's teleserye Your Heart, My Love, Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap's top-rating sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, the all-male gag show Happy TODAS, Sunday night musical variety show Dingdong n' Lani with Dingdong Avanzado and Lani Misalucha are also asserting muscle in their respective timeslots.

TRANSITION PERIOD. When IBC-13 made the transition on its station ID, last year, expectations were high yet greatly conservative. With the shadows of the country's two giant networks looming largely over the newly overhauled network, the prospect of shattering the longstanding "duopoly" looked remote.

IBC's chairman Eric Canoy told PEP (Philippine Entertainment Portal) during the press launch held on August 23, 2014 at the Smart Araneta Coliseum in Diliman, Quezon City: "Our objective is to shake the TV landscape and be able to shake your viewing habits. Ang maraming tao kasi may Tresem akala nila Dos and Siyete lang; gusto namin ma-shake 'yong perception mo."

The shift of the government-sequestered TV and radio network turned into the country's media company as the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) known as Ito'ng Bagong Company is made the network entered into a long-term airtime agreement with Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC) and Viva Entertainment, the entertainment media company with the chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr.

The tie up consequently allowed the network to beef up its programming, which consequently boosted its chances to compete against GMA-7 and ABS-CBN.

The network's new identity, coupled with aggressive promotion and interesting programs, immediately made an impression among viewers right on its first month of reinvention. But finding the right formula to success did not happen overnight as hits and misses shaped the network's journey in realizing its objective.

STEADY TURNAROUND. While the newly dressed network's target of shaking up the Pinoy's viewing habits was noble, some industry insiders raised eyebrows on its feasibility. But the people behind the network were dead serious when they coined the slogan, Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino and Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, IBC-13 continued targeting the young market and viewers who were the usual boobtube fare offered by the more established networks. Rating figures started ringing for all timeslots, with Born to be a Superstar making the big leap to the top spot last August 16 and 17 with a rating of 37.8% (Saturday) and 30.9% (Sunday). "For Born to be a Superstar, again it's one of our biggest shows, so we do want to maximize that. Magkakaroon kami ng marami pang pakulo within the singing contest and outside. We can also like spin it off to a different program, of course, hindi puwedeng paulit-ulit lang 'yan. There has to be something new each season and 'yan 'yong abangan ninyo," revealed Eric. The success of Born to be a Superstar and the other programs encouraged the network's bigwigs to further intensify their campaign by strengthening all the timeslot brackets.

"Actually, let's say, for balance here, within that primetime slot weekdays, again we're gonna launch more sitcoms and that's in the pipeline already. Ang success factor kasi namin ngayon is more in the younger generation. So, younger generation, like kunwari Voltron, it's in the superhero fantasy so gonna relaunch like the action-packed superserye within primetime as well.

54 year after overhauling its entire image, the IBC team and IBC Board of Directors remains upbeat with the network's direction as dictated by the current viewing trend of the viewers. Even Lito himself confessed feeling surprised with what they have achieved so far in such a short span of time.

"It is our commitment to the viewers to continually give them more quality choices in free-to-air television. This is what the partnership between Viva Entertainment and Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation hoped to achieve when we launched the IBC-13 brand a 54 year ago and we're definitely on the right track.

"Going into our 54th year, we'll continue to bring innovative, creative and highly entertaining programs for the Progressive Pinoys," promised Lito Ocampo Cruz.

IBC's First Superhero Fanta-Drama Series
"Voltron Man" Set to Change Pinoy Viewing
Habit Starting September 8

July 29, 2014

Dubbed to be the "most expensive action-packed superserye" to date, IBC proudly present another milestone in Philippine primetime television history by bringing you the newest fantasy-drama series.

Early on, 71/5 wanted to create the Pinoy superhero. This was even before it aired such soaps as fantasy drama Janella Salvador's Janella: A Princess Girl with Marlo Mortel and Jerome Ponce and the heavy drama Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago's Your Heart, My Love.

This year, IBC-13's popular dramaserye Your Heart, My Love is just one of several Kapinoy drama series being shot with HD cameras. The network is now having the high-definition, just like the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA.

If America has Superman, Spiderman, Flash Gordon, Danny Phantom and Captain America, the Philippines such as Lastikman, Kapitan Boom, Tiny Tony and Flash Bomba of ABS-CBN, Captain Barbell, Fantastic Man, Zaido: Pulis Pangkalawakan of GMA, and now is IBC-13's superserve Voltron Man, the newest and most anticipated primetime action-packed supergerodrama on Philippine TV.

Take over from 1990's action superhero series Computer Man with Eric Quizon as the superhero who goes by the name Computer Man. A computer hacker is suddenly hit by a mysterious light (shaped like the Milky Way galaxy, a spiral shape of some sort) from his computer monitor. The shape sticks in his chest and grants him superpowers, as well as becoming his symbol. The old version wears a black/gray tight clothes. Computer Man wears black tights adorned by a singular symbol of the milky way. A hacker by profession (yes, there were hackers already during the 90's), he got struck by strange light from the milky way, which gave him the ability to get inside computers and the power to turn into bits and travel through electric wiring, his powers are related to computers and how the hell the producers found association between stars and computers.

The event attracted thousands of cosplayers and fans of comic books and superheroes who were there to witness The Kapinoy Network's first foray into the genre.

Fresh from the success of IBC's fantaseryes of My Batang Momay, Carita de Angel, Janella in Wodnerland, Batang Genius and Janella: A Princess Girl, Kapinoy Fantaserye here comes another treat for the whole family with the much-awaited premiere of the superhero actiondrama Voltron Man with the Kapinoy primetime actor AJ Muhlach suiting up for the title role. ## AJ Muhlach (Voltron Man) and Janella Salvador (Janella) are the Primetime Superstars

Janella Salvador (Janella: A Princess Girl) and AJ Muhlach (Voltron Man)

Competing the two dominant players in Philippine television industry, sequestered TV station IBC-13 which is stands for Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, now setting the trend of fantasy-drama series as Kapinoy Fantaserye. That means more than a soap operas to be aired in any of these stations. Creating a big buzz on Philippine Entertainment, successfully defeated major players iin the ratings game for the primetime and weekends. This indicates that Filipino viewers now recognize IBC-13 as the major channel in the Philippines.

IBC-13's newest fantasy drama, the princess fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl and the newest action-packed superserye Voltron Man, reaches new heights as the hit primetime programs.

The success of the Kapinoy channel is now compared to world's largest social networking site, Facebook, Twitter and Instagram which in the onset was a petty entity compared to the Titan return of social sites, Friendster and Myspace, grew to be the most popular networking site in the US. "IBC-13 has started winning weekends in the ratings race and making our weeknight programming more exciting."

Coming from the success of fantaserye such as the children's adventure fairyserye My Batang Momay, the kiddie angelserye adventure Carita de Angel, mermaid fantaserye Janella in Wonderland and 3D children's adventurserye Batang Genius, IBC-13 continues to change the game in Philippine TV programming by offering another fantasy-themed primetime series with a heart-warming plot that is fit for the whole family.

The Kapinoy network proudly presented into the gamble to go head to head once again with the soap operas of competing networks with newest fantasy series, one report said that IBC-13 is set to air original and newest princess fantaserye daily Janella: A Princess Girl, starring a primetime princess Janella Salvador, and the action-packed superserye Voltron Man, starring the top Kapinoy actor turned into the new action primetime prince AJ Muhlach as the first leading role of superhero with Coleen Garcia in primetime slots.

Both Janella Salvador and AJ Muhlach, the two leading superstars of this generation, Janella now also hailed as the fantasy princess of local television fantaserye, and AJ known as the action prince of local telecision fantasy series, giving their audience and clout among local audience.

Janella and AJ knows the fantasy series for IBC-13, a David to ABS-CBN and GMA 7's primetime drama Goliaths, considering the audience is still accustomed to drama on weeknights. "We are expecting major changes like we're going to capture the market."

Tessie Taylor, sales and marketing head, promises an exciting rollout for IBC's evening primetime slots. "This will change the TV landscape while we see ourselves like David battling against Goliaths on Philippine television primetime programming," said Taylor. "You know the rest of that story," Taylor adds confidently.

But the network decided to change their programming strategy by airing a fanta-drama and even the drama in their post-newscast timeslot. The tactic worked to some increase with Xyriel Manabat's My Batang Momay, Mutya Orquia's Carita de Angel, Janella Salvador's Janella in Wonderland and Mavy and Cassy Legaspi starrer Batang Genius. Now, the network is hoping the gamble will pay off again with Janella Salvador's fanta-drama *Janella: A Princess Girl*and AJ Muhlach's superhero action-packed Voltron Man.

The Kapinoy network should do something as Janella, as she is the network's top fantaserye superstar and AJ, as he is the network's newest action fantaserye superstar for the challenge.

As primetime superstars, both by the studios and career into the TV screen, notably Janella in Wonderland and Janella: A Princess Girl (Janella Salvador as most popular young female star), and 5 Girls and Daddy and Voltron Man (AJ Muhlach). Both actors have extended these images onto the big screen.

"I have a bigger responsibility here because it's a fact that the sequestered TV station IBC-13 is behind the ABS-CBN and GMA-7. We need to be able to come up with something that's different that our audience will enjoy watching," AJ says when asked about the challenges he is facing now as a star of the Kapinoy network. Of course, the young actor and leading man is up to the challenge.

It has entitled Janella's Teen Sweetheart Princess, also answer to the primetime princess of ABS-CBN and GMA, and AJ's Ultimate Leading Men, which is answer to the primetime princes of ABS-CBN and GMA whose known for their several top rating shows.

In 2014's television fantasy-drama boosted many characters of many fantasy series where the ones that stood out to its popularly. Janella: A Princess Girl made fame to the primetime princess Janella Salvador where she played the princess fairytale girl Janella in the newest fantasy soap which also gained her fame with her leading men Marlo Mortel and Jerome Ponce. Voltron Man is also made AJ Muhlach, a primetime prince of the action superhero. Your Heart, My Love, a primetime drama took glory broacasting in many networks across Asia and globally as the soap opera reached out to a broader audience, made fame to the queen of primetime teleserye Claudine Barretto where she played the heiress Sophie, the king of action star turned into the primetime king Raymart Santiago as Roel and the child star wonder Xyriel Manabat as Maricel in the long-running soap which also gained the famous drama serial and an ensemble cast. Princess Punzalan as Barbara, the most influential character of the series. AJ Muhlach, Dingdong Dantes and Anja Aguilar also renew their respective contracts with the Kapinoy network IBC-13.

(From left) Sandy's Romance's Nadine Lustre, IBC-13's Born to be a Superstar's Anja Aguilar, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?'s Robi Domingo and Janella: A Princess Girl's Janella Salvador are some of the stars who will bolster the station's chances of competing against the two local network giants.

IBC-13, their foundation as the leading TV network. They still hold that the biggest stars led by TVJ (Tito Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon), Jimmy Fabregas and Ces Quesada, Sharon Cuneta, Jimmy Santos, Alma Moreno, Joe Quirino, among others. It made IBC-13, the number 1 TV station of the 70's until the late 80's, and now is the number 3 station in the country since 1996

"This allows IBC-13 to acquire assets and paying cash," Canoy said. "These assets are buying to IBC-13 with a certain mark-up to recover the discount given to the blocktimer's costumer and earn a profile from the entire government." This arrangement guarantees Channel 13 blocktimer with Viva Television.

With great help from Viva Entertainment, IBC is celebrates its 54th year anniversary, shaking all its viewers from morning till midnight, bringing a lot of fresh shows for all walks of life and undergoing a major overhaul, this time with Viva Television putting more local programs and more exciting shows and format. I've seen the print ads and was able to catch their plugs, commercials and new programs as well. The Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC-13), already dubbed as the 'coutnry's number 3 television network', has another blocktomer to deal with.

Recently, IBC-13's rebroadcasts of Ninoy Aquino documentaries also follow the MTRCB ratings system, when in fact they should implemented it considering the sensitive subject matter of these documentaries.

Making it worse is the fact that the MTRCB has reacted in any kind to IBC-13's defiance of their ratings system. Rather than giving the network numerous with regards to their guidelines.

It is always the duty of the MTRCB to strictly enforce these classification ratings. All networks must take this current ruling seriously in order to provide a more responsible viewing experience.

But in the case of IBC-13, it is clear that enacting some sort of responsibility to their so-called 'viewers', if there is any, because their programming is mediocre.

IBC-13's disregard of the MTRCB television ratings adds to the network's recent reputation, incompetent and disorganized broadcast group. While the addition of the Asian Television Content Corporation (ATC) and Viva Entertainment are the blocktimers of IBC-13 to make the network's viewers. About ATC's line-up, 'yung ONE FC na lang ang pinapanood ng ilang viewers na sports fans. Recently, they acquired the rights to air PBA basketball games to Viva Sports and IBC Sports.

In the end, more shows await the embattled management of IBC-13. And once the MTRCB finally decides to act on this matter, things will get the staff inside Capitol Hills, Diliman.

It means empowerting the Kapinoy viewers to choose the best fare, according to his taste and his inclinations, by providing him with a wide choice of excellent, innovtive and creative programs, slotted at strategic days and time slots. Iy means viewers need to follow the herd. They are the masters of their remote control and at any time, they can sitch to a program of their choice, and at Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), anytime they switch, there's always a quality programming to watch.

From a relatively TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. innvoation. A new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

This is best examplified by the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres through the landmark programs were first seen on Channel 13 like the sitcoms as Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Sitak ni Jack, Barrio Balimbing, Eh Kasi, Babae! and Hapi House, the top-rated gag shows TODAS, C.U.T.E. (Call Us Two for Entertainment) and Goin' Bananas, political satire Sic O'Clock News, the fantasy series Ora Engkantada, Computer Man and Ula ang Batang Gubat, the showbiz talk shows Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino and See-True, variety shows like The Sharon Cuneta Show, Loveliness, Maricel Live! and Superstar, the horror series Pinoy Thriller, the late Johnny Weissmuller's television series Tarzan, which are not only top-rated but are also consistent awardees. Channel 13 strives to make every program unique, with a personality of its own. IBC-13 treats each program as the product, as it belieces in the name of the game.

Laurenti Dyogi, Head of IBC Entertainment TV explains: "Not only produce a comedy and drama, but also with fantasy, action and adventure." It also conceptualize very distinct programs, programs which we can say have IBC-13 trandmark of originality. Disceming viewers have remarked that viewing IBC Channel 13 is like going into a shop which has only the best choices in merchandise.

Every major item has been chosen with great care. And they're all one-of-a-kind. IBC is is the network war, just like other challengers to the throne, it has opted to take the path of least resistance which "copycatting" and the same program directly against it. IBC-13 has opted for strategic counter programming.

When viewers decide to exercise their power and demand true value for their viewing time, there will be a true shift in the primetime balance of power.

IBC-13 launches more star-studded primetime

September 22, 2014

The surprise acquisition of the stars into IBC-13's stable of talents is part of the network's aggressive campaign to further boost its steady growth. This was also the time IBC-13 adopted its new campaign, branding itself as the "Kapinoy" ("Pinoy or Filipino") network.

After making its presence felt in the local TV scene in recent years, the Canoy-led sequestered TV and radio media network IBC-13 aims to beat its established rivals at the ratings game this year with more than a dozen new shows to bolster its programming lineup and since has been through 54 years of Philippine TV.

In a recent press conference at Dish to Rockwell last Saturday, IBC President and Chief Boots Anson-Roa and IBC Executive Vice-President (EVP) Lito Ocampo Cruz unveiled the network's aggressive stance to challenge the dominance of ABS-CBN Corp. and GMA Network, Inc. at the top of the TV ratings charts.

"Our goal is to overtake the competition in the network war as we target the Filipino masses and win by giving viewers something new, something they will look forward to watch on TV," Mr. Lito told reporters with our plans to beef-up our programming with new hits of primetime schedules.

He said more new shows will be launched this year to prove that the network is armed and ready to take on the two other networks for a battle for TV ratings to announce his IBC-13's new programs.

"Hindi kami magpapahuli. (We will not be left behind.) We want to prove that IBC-13 is a major network, and we can provide shows that have more quality, more originality and more excitement," he said.

IBC's financial woes came in full swing around the year 1986. That year saw the new government's sequestration of IBC because its owner at that time is a Marcos henchman. Then IBC saw an implosion which many ex-employees of the Banahaw Broadcasting Corporation migrated to IBC which had a negative impact on the broadcaster's expenses, which in turn forced IBC to seek help from Viva, Seiko, etc. to produce more series. IBC became Islands TV for a few years in the early '90s, and saw generally significant financial improvement. Then IBC came back with an awesome station ID, known at that time for airing anime and Japanese tokusatsu shows and the Vintage blocktimer. The blocktimer attempt by IBC that was competitive ratings-wise is Viva TV in 2000. And now, IBC reachihng the number 3 slot. Also has religious programming from some Christian groups. MANILA, Philippines — The Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC-13) is facing privatization despite legal obstacles, the Governance Commission for Government-owned and Controlled Corporations (GCG) said.

In a state news report, GCG chairman Cesar Villanueva said IBC-13 is one of six government-owned and controlled corporations (GOCCs) recommended for privatization.

"In fact, we had a summit two weeks ago with PCOO (Presidential Communications Operations Office), DBP (Development Bank of the Philippines) and IBC-13 board. They come to a manner by which we'll able to privatize it despite of the fact that there are legal obstacles."

Sen. Francis "Chiz" Escudero, Senate finance committee chairperson, inquired about the network's privatization during a Senate budget hearing "because we will be appropriating money for IBC-13 to pay, by way of subsidy to GOCC, for the paid SSS, GSIS and some employees' benefits." Villanueva said the number of GOCCs will be further reduced next year, trimming down its number from 157 to 88. "Our aim is we're hoping by the next year we would be down to 88 well-run GOCCs that can be the cornerstone, hopefully of being able to promote a sovereign well fund by which the government can move forward," Villanueva said. Villanueva said that from 157 GOCCs in 2011, the number of companies covered by GCG has been reduced to 116.

IBC-13 casts its news and public affairs team, and stars of entertainment shows. Major networks boast of the best broadcasters, program hosts and talented stars, and IBC-13's line-up rolls up. # Voltron Man faces the villains, evil, chooses between leading ladies this Monday (September 29)

September 27, 2014

Sequestered TV station IBC-13 has already produced several children's adventure series My Family Xyriel, My Batang Momay (Xyriel Manabat), Carita de Angel (Mutya Orquia) and Batang

They have also produced Janella Salvador's fanta-drama trilogy trend in Philippine primetime television called Janella in Wonderland, a fantasy series about the mermaid tale girl as the Princess of the Sea. Because Voltron Man is such a new kind of action series for Philippine primetime, it may appear to be the super powers, when the Filipino audience who may be used to soap operas of infidelity and cute teen loveteams. Voltron Man uses the HD to enhance and add to the overall experience of the action-packed superhero series in cinematography It. makes the lack of high definition visuals. When HS is often thrown around in network press releases in the Philippines, especially when the HD series in feeds for any of the major networks, the terms and use of high definition cameras on get dilited that give Voltron Man a unique cinematic look.

Remember of 1990s, Computer Man is a a computer hacker is suddenly hit by a mysterious light (shaped like the Milky Way galaxy, a spiral shape of some sort) from his computer monitor. In the upcoming episodes, everyone's favorite superhero will find himself choosing among three potential love interests.

It was of 90's, Eric Quizon as a superhero Computer Man, using the best of IBC-13's veeeery limited budget. Watching this TV show really sent you back in time when all computers only had a green display monitor and the concept of the internet was practically unheard of. Upon turning the reins over to some completely unknown child actor for the spin-off Computer Kid, Eric Quizon's character just went out with a whimper. The kind of exit befitting an action hero of his kind: they pretty much just handwaved that he was gone and spun off into Ben David and his bumbling goons trying to beat Computer Kid. That's a huge step down from an alien civilization trying to take over the planet. AJ Muhlach as the superhero, is now the best of IBC-13's limited budget.

Raymond Bagatsing, Coleen Garcia, AJ Muhlach as Voltron Man and Freddie Gutierrez

One of the ladies is the strong-willed Louise de Guzman played by FHM cover girl Coleen Garcia. Audience already caught a glimpse of her during her joined the cast on August 10, 2014 as the story progresses, Coleen promises that viewers will see more of who Louise is. Voltron Man, his AJ's first-ever action-packed fantasy superhero for IBC-13, is rating consistently well and continues to receive positive feedback from the audience. He even won an online poll naming him as the country's favorite superhero. Adulations aside, perhaps the biggest perk of being the superhero ng bayan is getting the chance to be paired with a gorgeous leading lady or in AJ's case, three alluring female counterparts. In the show's recent press conference held at Plaza Ibarra in Quezon City, IBC-13 introduced the two stunning ladies who will stir some excitement.

November 29, 2013

In a sudden turn of events, she is a contract artist from ABS-CBN and GMA, the much-awaited television comeback of Claudine Barretto is now a Kapinoy after signing a contract of the squusered TV station IBC.

Claudine Barretto has just recently signed a contract with IBC-13 earlier today. Express Balita, the primetime news program of The Kapinoy Network, has just reported that Claudine is now a Kapinoy and she is topbilling a primetime teleserye like Your Heart, My Love which marks the return of the queen of Philippine soap opera, a box-office movie from IBC Films and other unforgettable projects.

Chairman of IBC Eric Canoy is very happy that Claudine signed a contract for The Kapinoy Network.

Networks announce new prime-time shows

January 20, 2014

THE BATTLE for TV ratings supremacy continues as major broadcast networks prepare to launch their initial prime-time offerings for the new year.

MARIAN RIVERA and Alden Richards star in GMA's new nightly soap opera Carmela. Listed GMA Network, Inc. has tapped its contract star Marian Rivera to lead the primetime assault with the drama series Carmela: Ang Pinakamagandang Babae sa Mundong Ibabaw, set to begin airing on Jan. 27, weeknights at 8:30 p.m. just one of several Kapinoy drama series being shot with HD cameras.

Lopez-led ABS-CBN Corp. will launch its adaptation of the US reality show The Biggest Loser called The Biggest Loser Pinoy Edition Doubles scheduled to begin airing on Feb. 3 at 10 p.m.

Canoy and Roa-led Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. or IBC continues with its counter-programming strategy by coming up with launch its newest drama series Your Heart, My Love top-billed by the return of the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and the action star Raymart Santiago, scheduled to begin airing on Jan. 27, weeknights 9:30 p.m. Pangilinan-led TV5 continues with its counter-programming strategy by coming up with another once-a-week drama series called Obsession, set to premiere on Jan. 23, 8 p.m.

MARIAN RIVERA

"I admit I am pressured because of the ratings. But I believe we have a good show. We worked hard to make it the best," Ms. Rivera told reporters in the vernacular last Thursday.

In Carmela, Ms. Rivera plays a woman who is judged by her beauty not only by other people but also by people close to her.

"The viewers will be able to watch a different Marian Rivera in this show. I am very excited to play this role, because I can say, this is one of the most difficult roles I have ever played," Ms. Rivera said in Filipino.

Ms. Rivera shares the screen for the first time young actor Alden Richards. Mr. Richards plays Yago, the handsome and smart grandson of Fernando (Roi Vinzon) and Fides (Laurice Guillen). Searching for someone who will love and accept him despite his flaws and insecurities, his perspective changes when he meets Carmela.

At the helm of the new show is TV director Dominic Zapata who was behind GMA Network's successful primetime series My Husband's Lover.

Mr. Zapata said viewers will see something fresh and interesting in the new tandem of Ms. Rivera and Mr. Richards since they will be playing characters that are so different from those they played in the past.

"I like it that they are being paired together for the first time because as artists they are forced to bring something new to the table. And being the consummate professionals that they are, I am sure they welcome both the opportunity to showcase their acting dexterity in the challenge to help create new characters that viewers will love," Mr. Zapata told reporters.

BIGGEST LOSER

Award-winning actress Iza Calzado is preparing for one of her most challenging projects to date -- hosting the new season of The Biggest Loser Pinoy Edition Doubles on ABS-CBN. "It's my first time hosting a major TV show. I'm happy because I learned a lot from it. As much as I can, I will make sure that I will do it right and I will give my very best for this project," Ms. Calzado told reporters last Friday.

Aside from hosting, she will talk about her own weight-loss success story and experiences in the show. Ms. Calzado has been open about her struggle with her weight: she weighed more than 220 pounds as a teen.

The show will feature 14 pairs of overweight Filipinos who will face difficult challenges in their journey to better health. As in previous editions, the contestants will live in a camp where they will undergo rigorous training conducted by challenge masters Matteo Guidicelli and Robi Domingo, along with coaches Jim and Toni Saret.

YOUR HEART, MY LOVE

While other networks launched new shows that air every night on prime time as IBC presents shows that airing the daily primetime teleserye.

IBC's primetime block of television shows aired from 5:45 p.m. to 11 p.m. called PrimeTastik compared to the rival Primetime Bida and Telebabad of the two other stations. Unlike other countries where programmes are largely varied each weekday night, the prime time line-up on one day will be the same line-up for the entire week for the most part. Programming is mainly composed of soap operas done by local artists.

PrimeTastik is the top-rating program composed of a daily soap operas for teleseryes and fantaseryes, telenovela and Koreanovela, as well as its once-a-week shows (8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.) from Monday (political satire and horror-thriller), Tuesday (television films for original made-for TV movies) and Thursday (mini-series and horror anthology) while Wednesday and Friday (4:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.) for the PBA games.

IBC Chief Entertainment Officer Laurenti Dyogi calls this counterpart-programming, inwhich TV audiences get to watch something new each night of this horizontal programming of other networks where TV audiences om a nightly basis. "We Believe there there is offer a daily primetime dramas such as what we have in IBC," Mr. Dyogi told reporters last Friday.

ONCE A WEEK

While other networks launch new shows that air every night on prime time, TV5 presents shows that air once a week, as is the practice in the US.

TV5 Chief Entertainment Officer Wilma V. Galvante calls this vertical programming, in which TV audiences get to watch something new each night. "Instead of the horizontal programming of other networks where TV audiences watch something on a nightly basis, we believe there is room to offer once-a-week prime-time dramas such as what we have in TV5," Ms. Galvante told reporters last Friday.

After airing the once-a-week drama series For Love or Money starring Alice Dixon and Derek Ramsey, TV5 will premiere the new series Obsession on Thursday night.

The show centers on Bernadette (Neri Naig), a chemist in a successful beauty company. Highly insecure and unhappy about herself, her relationships were short-lived because of her tendency to be possessive. Then she undergoes an experimental procedure offered by a wealthy cosmetic surgeon, played by Marvin Agustin -- a procedure that involves changing her face and identity. Bernadette becomes Vanessa (Bianca King), determined to take her revenge on the playboy James (Martin Escudero) who broke her heart.

Completing the cast are Elizabeth Oropesa and Maureen Mauricio. Obsession is directed by Jay Altarejos.

Hastings Holdings, Inc., a unit of MediaQuest Holdings, Inc. -- which is a subsidiary of the Beneficial Trust Fund of Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co., and which operates TV5 -- has a majority stake in BusinessWorld.

Raymart Santiago, Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes, Robi Domingo, Mutya Orquia, Diether Ocampo, Cherry Pie Picace and Christopher de Leon were officially welcomed into the fold. And at their launch event in World Trade Center last January 30, it was a heady mix of Kapamilya and Kapuso stars that now call themselves Kapinoy.

In a lavish (and expectedly long) extravaganza to launch their new look and new shows, advertising and media people were treated to the presence of superstars like Janella Salvador, Mario Maurer, Erich Gonzales, Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, AJ Muhlach, Nadine Lustre and Ramon Bautista. It seems that their strategy now is to have as much star power as they can, in order to capture a mass market that is fixated on celebrities.

After thanking all advertisers, ad agencies and media, Eric Canoy, Chairman acknowledged advertisers and ad agencies, as well as media, on which, "our success will be dependent on the help and support you may extend to us." It remains to be seen the quality of innovative programming of The Kapinoy Network can actually compete with those of ABS' and GMA's.

A prominent Irigueño, who had long been a broadcast journalist at the defunct ABS-CBN DZRB, was recently appointed by President Benigno Aquino III as member of the Board of television network Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC). A younger brother of the late Eddie Alanis, Jimmy Alanis once lorded over as the number 1 broadcaster in the Bicol Region during the 60s and 70s. He also served as the station manager of RPN DZKI in Iriga City and used to anchor a primetime radio program at DZRB called "Jimmy, Oh Jimmy." More recently, he worked as the regional television head of GMA-7.

Alanis as the member of the board of IBC-13. Apart from Alanis, the other newly-installed members of the board of directors of IBC-13 are Lauro Vizconde, Jose Avellana Jr., Manolito Cruz, Ernesto Maipid, Jr., Reynaldo Castro, Jose Rafael Hernandez, Diosdado Marasigan, and Arturo Alejandrino.

IBC jumps the gun on channel 2, comparing to soaps with Your Heart, My Love

BOOSTING THE KAPINOY NETWORK: News of ever increasing ratings of several IBC hit programs has sent the network on a happy scramble to further boost its line-up and develop its own talented superstars and home to the PBA and NBA basketball which is boosting Channel 13's ratings.

In a conversation with IBC executive Laurenti Dyogi last week, he spoke about weekend ratings soaring on wings of Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Whattaboys, Sandy's Romance, Once Upon a Time, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Happy TODAS and DMZ-TV. All programs hit an average audience share of 45 percent, an indication that IBC must be doing something right and that audiences dare to be different. Another weekend show that has been consistently increasing its performance rating is the weekend reality program Born to be a Superstar, hosted by Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, Marvin Ong and Khalil Ramos with a judges are Dingdong Avanzado, Joey Albert, Gino Padilla and Paula Bianca for the superstar fans along with Sunday show It's Partytime, The Million Second Quiz, Last Fool Showand Sudnay Sinemaks.

Meanwhile, some of the daily TV viewership ratings at the same point scoring on the hits of KapinoyLand, Lunch Break, Kapinoy Cinema, Before I Fall in Love, TODAS Kids, Carita de Angel, the primetime newscast Express Balita, Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, La Madrastra and My Love Patzzi.

"The audience wants something new all the time," Dyogi intones.

In line with this, IBC is fast-tracking build-up of its own set of stars, starting with three young girls with stars in their eyes: Erich Gonzales, Liza Soberano, and Elisse Joson. Some of the Kapinoy heartthrob men of the male contract stars like Superstar Circle winner Freddie Gutierrez, Marlo Mortel and AJ Muhlach.

Last January 2014, the network signed up Janella Salvador, a first-ever teen star princess contract superstar who she is now topbilled the mermaid fantaserye Janella in Wonderland. YOUR HEART, MY LOVE: In the tradition of the most heart-warming Filipino soap operas of all time, when people, some of those in teleseryes, have a strong woman and man with calling the family and friends, the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto celebrates a new episode in her career. Encouraged by the ratings success of its soap opera productions, Canoy and Boots-led IBC has come up with another drama series to boost its prime-time programming lineup. "We hope that we could continue to appeal to that segment of the audience by coming up with compelling new programs," he added.

Jose Javier Reyes, IBC head for entertainment production, said the network to ensure that the new show will be a hit. "If there is anything that we have proven after we did primetime soap operas like a fantasy series Janella in Wonderland and melodrama Your Heart, My Love, it is the fact that there is an audience out there who is looking for else to watch aside from the other major networks are offering," Mr. Barretto told reporters.

She landed the title role of Your Heart, My Love in what should be IBC's very first dramatic teleserye with its unique blend of romance, melodrama, thriller, action and suspense. Yes it is, the network has succumbed to the teleserye trend mastered and re-mastered by both ABS-CBN and GMA. Your Heart, My Love is the first of a series of soap operas to hog IBC's evening primetime block.

Barretto, daughter woman to accomplished teen actress Julia Barretto of ABS-CBN, is out to prove lightning can strike twice in the same Barretto neighborhood.

With the action star Raymart Santiago, which is probably the reason why IBC cast her in the drama role, although IBC is now says their very own teleserye.

'Your Heart, My Love' Beats 'The Legal Wife' and 'Rhadora X'

February 28, 2014

After her hit rating teleserye Mula sa Puso, Saan Ka Man Naroon, Sa Dulo ng Walang Hanggan, Marina, Ikaw ang Lahat sa Akin, Walang Kapalit, Iisa Pa Lamang, Claudine and Iglot, Queen of Philippine Soap Opera Claudine Barretto is set to make her much-awaited comeback on primetime TV continues to keep primetime viewers on the edge of their seats as her character Sophie claims vengeance and risks her all to recover her kidnapped son in IBC's ground-breaking, consistent top-rating and fast-paced primetime drama series Your Heart, My Love feels accomplished that her consistent has not only entertained TV viewers but also empowered women who are physically and emotionally battered by their husbands.

To make sure that the "buena mano" production will click with viewers and stand up to the established majors productions, it's boosting the series' star value with the stellar participation as IBC's first attempt to do a full length TV drama series is making big waves in the teleserye fanatics.

Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love is already overloaded with many commercials, so that TV productions can have a fighting chance against imported soaps topbilling characters. It is considered as the first Philippine television primtime drama filmed and aired on high definition (HDTV-1080i).

With the success of IBC continues to change the game in TV programming by offering another melodrama primetime series with a heart-warming plot that is fit for the whole family. IBC is set to prove once more that it can go head to head against its rivals in terms of quality drama with the new soap opera format of the romantic melodrama series Your Heart, My Love.

Claudine's presence is another feather in IBC's cap, after its having snagged the services of the stellar likes of veteran actor Christopher de Leon, Robi Domingo, Jodi Sta. Maria, Richard Yap, Freddie Webb, Drew Arellano, Cristine Reyes, teen star Janella Salvador, Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, Dingdong Avanzado, Rachel Alejandro, Gino Padilla, popular rapper Abra Jenine Desiderio, Abby Bautista, Mutya Orquia, Cherry Pie Picache, Ronaldo Valdez, Giselle Sanchez, Janine Tugonon, Ryan Agoncillo, Joy Viado, leading men AJ Muhlach, teen princess Nadine Lustre, Dingdong Dantes, action star Raymart Santiago, comedian Ramon Bautista and Superstar Circle grand winner Freddie Gutierrez. The superstars alone the new network make, so we trust that IBC's in-house program to discover and build up its own talents will be fast-tracked. All the channel needs to do is to discover a truly original and charismatic young talent, clone of a big and established star, to excite viewers and help give IBC its own, "signature" character.

IBC's top-rating PrimeTastik series Your Heart, My Love, a primetime soap teleserye remains to be the no.1 hit teleserye in the country as it recently won in the ratings game over ABS-CBN and GMA's drama program. In fact, Your Heart, My Love managed to beat two rival primetime teleseryes in the fast-paced story. Two of primetime series representing IBC stations in Cebu, Iloilo, Baguio, Davao and Mega Manila.

Two of primetime seryes like Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love proved to be the ratigns winner for the Canoy-led network IBC present a newest drama series upon the request of advertisers in place TV ads intend to engage channels 2 and 7 in areas where they're strong like producing teleseryes involving hundreds of millions of pesos tired of seeing the same actors with the same acting skills on TV.

Based on the data from Kantar Media last Monday (February 24), the series topbilled by the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and the box-office action star Raymart Santiago garnered 24.8% national TV ratings, or almost 13 points higher than its rival in ABS-CBN's The Legal Wife which is got 19.5% and GMA's Rhadora X which also only got 11.9%. Meanwhile, because of its compelling narrative and top caliber performance of its impressive powerhouse cast, Your Heart, My Love remains the beatable in its time slot since it premiered on January 27.

According to Claudine, now having a new rival program for the soap dramas because she is competing with anyone. "I just always strive to do my best at work. I think it's better to be focused on improving my craft of competing with others," said Claudine which is set to stayed defeatable despite new competition.

Since it started airing in January 2014, You Heart, My Love has won the hearts of Filipinos with its romantic love and heart-warming story on kind of Filipino family values.

On last January 31 (Friday), the Kapinoy drama series hit its all-time high national TV ratings of 24.2% based on data from Kantar Media covering urban and rural homes nationwide. It rated nine points higher than its then rival show, The Legal Wife and Rhadora X which only scored 21.5% and 11.2%.

Meanwhile, the Queen of Philippine Soap Opera believes that despite its new competition, TV viewers will still continue to support Your Heart, My Love because of the upcoming heartwarming and romance scenes in the series. "I believe they'll keep on following our story with the exciting challenges that Sophie dela Cruz will face in the coming weeks, especially now that her daddy Roel Veneracion (Raymart Santiago) together accepted her when the evilaunt Barbara Perez (Princess Punzalan) will take over," Claudine shared.

With Raymart's acceptance and a budding friendship with her father Richard Buenavista (Diether Ocampo), will Sophia's life be filled with the family?

'Your Heat, My Love' Beats Rival Pogram this Summer

April 12, 2014

Where other networks have horizontal programming every night, The Kapinoy Network continues its quest to gain ground on the two Philippine television behemoths. A couple of months into its "horizontal programming and those different kind of vertical programming" primetime scheduling format, IBC-13 still has a ways to go. But in the process of introducing its radical for Philippine television programming strategy, "the network has been able to also introduce some quality, creative and innovative programs because we have varied contents, entertainment, news and information and sports all to be delivered on primetime."

Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi also announced plans for the network's daily primetime block PrimeTastik. Rival stations ABS-CBN and GMA-7 have horizontal programming, IBC-13, Dyogi declared, will mix horizontal programming for more soap operas and fantasy series (same set of shows throughout the week) every night, and those of different vertical programming (different sets each day), with some shows airing every day; and others, once a week.
